MINING FORCE IS WIPED OUT

From Thirty to Sixty Lives Lost in Colorado Shaft.

BODIES ARE BURNING

Rumble Like an Earthquake Shock Preceded a Volcanic Eruption.

GAS OVERPOWERS RESCUERS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

TRINIDAD, COL., Oct. 28.—From 30 to 60 men lost their lives in a terrific explosion which occurred at mine No. 3 of the Rocky Mountain Fuel and Iron Company at Tercio, 40 miles west of Trinidad, this afternoon.

The exact number of dead may never be known, as the mine is burning, and in all likelihood the bodies will be consumed. A large number of mine officials left here as soon as word of the accident was received. Company doctors were picked up all along the line, as well as all other available physicians.

F. J. Foreman, a government stock inspector, was at Tercio when the explosion occurred. He returned here tonight and gave the following account of the affair:

"I was standing not more than 300 yards from the mouth of the tunnel when the explosion occurred. It was preceded by a low, rumbling sound, which made the earth tremble, and startled the whole camp

"Out of the mouth of the tunnel and two air shafts came a great volume of smoke and dust, which continued for nearly a minute. One of the two air shafts, each of which are seven feet in diameter, timber fully two to three feet in diameter, were shot into the air and broken into splinters. Rocks were thrown over the camp for a distance of a quarter of a mile. In fact, it rained rocks, broken timbers and all kinds of debris for fully a minute. Many persons were injured by being struck by these missiles.

Overcome by Deadly Gas.

"Men, women and children rushed to the mouth of the tunnel, and women whose husbands were in the mine had to be brought away by miners to prevent their being killed by deadly fumes coming from the mouth of the tunnel."

The mine in which the accident occurred employs 80 men. It is believed at least 60 were in the mine at the time.

News of the explosion brought assistance from the adjacent camps. Tonight hundreds of men are trying to enter the mine. Deadly fumes overcome the rescuers frequently, but their places immediately are taken by others. It is not thought possible than anyone in the mine can escape death.

It was impossible to secure the names of the dead and injured tonight. Nearly all the miners employed are Slavs. The mine was opened only a year ago, and extended 2,000 feet into the hill. The explosion is supposed to have been caused by dust.

But one body has been recovered, that of T. Duran, a driver who was entering the tunnel when the explosion occurred. He was torn and burned almost beyond recognition.

All the mines within a radius of 20 miles have been shut down and the miners are on the way to assist in the rescue of the bodies.

KITTEL ATTENDS WAKE OF MAN HE KILLED

No Attempt at Arrest—Incendiary Burns Homes of Three Families Watching Over Dead.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CUMBERLAND, MD., Oct. 28.—John and Roy Kittel, cousins, quarreled at a dance near Coalton, in Roaring Creek district, below Elkins, W. Va., early yesterday morning, and the former shot the latter in the right side, death ensuing in 20 minutes. Last night John Kittel attended the "wake" of his dead cousin, and has since been running at large, no attempt having been made to arrest him.

While the "wake" was in progress an incendiary set fire to the homes of three families that were absent attending it, and all were burned to the ground. Two haystacks and a hogpen were also fired and burned and a number of fine hogs shot and killed. There seems to be a general reign of lawlessness.

MANY PASSENGERS HURT.

Six Coaches Filled With Democrats Went Over an Embankment in New York.

GOSHEN, N. Y., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Six coaches were derailed just east of New Hamton tonight. The train was filled with Orange county Democrats returning from a reception held in their honor by Judge Parker at Rosemount today. The wreck was due to the breaking of an axle on the tank.

The tank, engine and six cars were thrown upon their sides clear of the track and down an embankment. Eighteen rails were tore away and went down with the train. Nearly every passenger and the train crew were bruised and severely shaken. John Walters of Middletown, who was most badly hurt, had a leg broken.

COLLEGE PRESIDENT SUED FOR BREACH OF PROMISE

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Edward A. Newcomer, president of the New Jersey Business college in this city, was arrested at the college today in a $10,000 breach of promise suit, brought by Miss Jennie M. Thomas, one of his former pupils. The young woman says they went to Wadsworth, O., on a visit to his mother, and among his acquaintances she was introduced by him as his wife. Miss Thomas is now 21 years old and very pretty.

CONGRESS CAN ACT PROMPTLY

Members Will Be Fully Informed of Conditions in Panama.

GOING TO ISTHMUS

Arrangements Completed for Two Parties to Sail for the Canal Zone.

A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 28.

When congress meets in December the officials and lawmakers of this government will be in a position to deal intelligently with any question that may arise with reference to the Panama canal and our relations with the little new republic. Within a few days after election two parties will sail for the isthmus to make a thorough investigation into affairs there and will inform themselves upon all questions that pertain to our interests on the isthmus.

Secretary of War Taft, who has been designated by President Roosevelt to go to Panama and make a report in the matters of which the republic of Panama complains, will sail for Pensacola on November 15 on the cruiser Columbia. This ship has been employed off the coast of Massachusetts in connection with the trial of new warships, but she has been relieved from that duty and has been ordered to the New York navy yard to be fitted out for her trip to the isthmus of Panama. Secretary Taft will be accompanied by Senor Obaldia, the Panama minister; by Judge Magoon, law officer of the isthmian canal commission, and by several other officials to assist him in making his investigation.

On about the same date that Secretary Taft and his party leaves Pensacola another party will sail from New York with the same destination. It will consist of the members of the congressional committees that deal with isthmian affairs, and the army transport Sumner is now being prepared to convey them. The members who will be invited to join this party will likely consist of senators who hold places on the committee of foreign relations, of which Senator Cullom of Illinois is chairman; the committee on interoceanic canals, which has been without a chairman since the death of Senator Hanna, and the committee on public health and national quarantine, of which Senator Morgan of Alabama, the mortal foe of the Panama route, is the chairman. It is possible that others will be asked to become members of the party.

The house committees on foreign affairs, on interstate and foreign commerce and on railways and canals will be asked to go along, and the invitation may be extended to other committees.

The congressional party will meet Secretary Taft on the isthmus and will consider with him the situation there, thus informing themselves of the matters that are likely to come before congress in connection with the building of the canal. L. W. STRAYER.

PERSIA NEEDS PRODDING.

Uncle Sam Demands That Murderers of American Missionary Be Promptly Punished.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Persia required considerable prodding to promptly punish the brigands guilty of the murder of Mr. Larabee, an American missionary, nearly a year ago, T. H. Norton, American consul at Harput, Turkey, has accordingly been directed to proceed to Teheran. His business will be to effect more vigorous action by the Persian authorities.

Sayid, the leader of the brigands held accountable for the murder of Mr. Larabee, has been arrested. The arrest of other suspects has been ordered, but not accomplished.

P. A. Johns May Recover.

UNIONTOWN, Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Word received today from Youngstown, O., is that P. A. Johns, a prominent hotel man of Uniontown, who fell in the Elks' club yesterday and fractured his skull, is improving and hopes are now entertained for his recovery.

FIFTY PER CENT MORE PIG IRON

Steel Corporation's Furnace Record for October Will Show Increase Over 1903.

MONTH BEST FOR THE YEAR

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.

The pig iron production of the United States Steel Corporation for the month of October will approximate 600,000 tons. This compares with a monthly average of 606,603 tons throughout 1903 and of 644.627 tons average monthly production in 1902. In October, 1903, the Steel Corporation produced about 400,000 tons of pig iron, or 200,000 tons less than the production this month. Last year its total pig iron production was 7,279,241 tons, as against 7,975,530 tons in 1902, while this year the total production will fall below that of 1903.

In the first quarter of 1904 the corporation held down its pig iron production, but for the last six months it has been steadily advancing. In December it will again be cut down unless rush orders come in faster than anticipated.

The rolled and finished products of the corporation last year aggregated 7,635,690 tons, and for 1902 they were 8,197,232 tons. This year an estimate of 7,000,000 tons in round numbers is made. This may be changed by the developments in November and December.

CAMPANIA'S PASSENGERS SAW SIOUX WAR DANCE

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Col. William F. Cody returned to America today on the Campania, accompanied by Chief Iron Tail and a band of Sioux Indians. At an entertainment on the steamer Wednesday, a feature of the program was a war dance in which 50 of the Indians took part.

Crucible Steel Board Believes It Can Get Better Than 95 for Issue.

WAIT FOR BETTER MARKET

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.

The issue of any part of the authorized issue of $7,000,000 bonds by the Crucible Steel Company has been postponed until 1905. This was decided upon finally by the board after organization.

The re-election of all the executive officers makes certain no change in the policy of the management, and now that this is beyond the stage of discussion, it is known that the company intends to:

1. Wait as long in the new year as possible before attempting to market any new bonds or to get stockholders to take the issue.

2. To use its cash resources of $1,200,000, and its unsold United States Steel Corporation second mortgage bonds, aggregating $200,000 par and $175,000 market value, in taking care of its indebtedness of over $900,000.

The management believes that by waiting a much better price than 95 and interest can be obtained. In the improving market of 1905 the bonds may go as high as 98 and interest, it is hoped.

MONONGAHELA TO HAVE PURE WATER FOR $10,000

MONONGAHELA, PA., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—A $10,000 filter has been completed by the Monongahela Water Company, at its plant in the First ward, and before the first of January Monongahela will have pure water. At times recently the city water has been so muddy that it would scarcely run through the pipes. As soon as pumps can be connected the filtered water will be served to consumers.

PAULINE ASTOR A BRIDE TODAY

Ceremony to Be Held in St. Margaret's Church in London.

GOWN IS GORGEOUS

London Has Rarely Seen More Costly Appointments for a Wedding.

STRICT RULES OF ADMISSION

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, Oct. 28.—W. W. Astor escorted his daughter, Miss Pauline Astor, to St. Margaret's church this evening to inspect the floral decorations for the wedding at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Never before has a London church been so lavishly decorated. Rare palms and plants were brought from Cliveden, London florists possessing none fine enough to please Mr. Astor. The chancel is a mass of greenery, orchids and other flowering plants. Tonight the bridegroom's comrades of the Second Life Guards, one of the most swagger regiments in the city, are giving Captain Spinder-Clay a farewell dinner at the Guards' club in Pall Mall.

Capt. Claude Champion de Crespigny, Clay's best man, is one of the most popular officers in the army. He is son and heir of the famous sporting baronet and balloonist and is the youngest aid on Lord Curzon's vice regal staff.

Miss Astor's gown is of white soft satin, quite simply arranged with beautiful lace and white silk embroidery. Her court train will be of the same soft satin lined with chiffon. She will wear a plain tulle veil over a wreath of orange blossoms and carry a bouquet of white flowers.

More Costly Than Diamonds.

The gown was made here, but Worth himself bought the precious gowns of nine of the bridesmaids. They were tried on here. The tenth maid, Caroline Drayton, determined to go to Paris herself to try her gown on. Miss Drayton dallied in London until Wednesday afternoon, when she hurried to Paris. The margin of time necessary to complete the gown was small and the gown was not finished in Paris until tonight, just in time to permit the impatient Miss Drayton to cross the channel and arrive Saturday morning.

Probably no bride outside of royalty ever wore costlier lace upon a gown weight for weight. The lace is worth more than diamonds. It was picked up by Miss Pauline in Florentine convents. It is reputed to be the oldest Italian lace outside of the quirinal. The rope of pearls the bride will wear is composed of hundreds of the rarest pearls money can purchase. The pearl markets of the continent have been scoured for months to secure the jewels. The pearls are perfectly matched and of extraordinary pink luster. Experts declare it is the finest rope of pearls in London, excluding the queen's. It makes the duchess of Marlborough's famous rope seem cheap. It is valued at £30,000.

Lords Barred from Church.

The church holds 1,000 and admission will be by ticket only. Mr. Astor requested the commissioner of police to detail a squad of constables to keep out idlers. They will not be busy, because Londoners, unlike New Yorkers, do not mob fashionable weddings. The constables, however, will be unable to keep out uninvited members of the house of lords, because at the rear of the chancel of St. Margaret's there is a door called the parliamentary door.

It is a centuries old privilege of members of the house of lords to enter the church through this door, no matter what ceremony may be going on in the church. However, for the first time in centuries this door is to be closed tomorrow, but there will be a verger stationed at the door to open it in the event of any stray uninvited peer knocking at the door thrice as a signal.

The American bridesmaids, Miss Drayton and the Paul sisters, and the seven other bridesmaids, were entertained at dinner tonight by Miss Pauline at Carlton House terrace. The dinner was magnificent. The Astor service of solid gold was used, including the famous candelabra profusely repoussed with nymphs and cupids. During the week Lady Bingham, the bridegroom's sister, entertained Miss Astor and her bridesmaids.

BODY OF GIRL IS FOUND IN CANAL NEAR SUNBURY

Eighteen-Year-Old Daughter of Hotel Proprietor Believed to Fallen from Bridge.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

SUNBURY, Oct. 28.—The body of Carrie Felnour, the 18-year-old daughter of the proprietor of the hotel across the Susquehanna river from here, who had been missing since Monday night, was found this afternoon in the canal about 100 yards above her home. It was at first believed that the girl had been murdered, but an examination of the body revealed no bruises.

It is supposed by the county authorities that her death was accidental. The girl was employed in this city and it is believed she, having missed the last ferry across the river, started to walk to her home across the bridge of the Philadelphia & Reading railway and fell through the trestle work into the river.

Forest Fires Rage Near Greensburg.

GREENSBURG, PA., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Forest fires are blazing at several points in the Chestnut ridge, and farmhouses in the foothills are in danger. One fire is threatening Hutchinson, on the southern end of the ridge. Smaller fires are near the summit back of Youngstown. The fire wardens and constables of the townships bordering the ridge are at work, but helpers are few, the law allowing only 12 cents an hour.

RUSSIAN YARN IS TOO THIN

Balfour Intimates This Bluntly in Announcing Arbitration Plan.

BRITAIN GAINS POINT

Czar Will Punish Guilty According to Court of Inquiry's Findings.

DANGER OF WAR IS AVERTED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, Oct. 28.—All danger of war between Russia and Great Britain has been averted, and the settlement of the only points in dispute regarding the attack by the Russian second Pacific squadron on British trawlers October 21 has been referred to an international commission, under The Hague convention.

Premier Balfour, speaking at a meeting of the National Union of Conservative Clubs at Southampton tonight, broke that silence which has been so long preserved, which had brought the people of the United Kingdom to a condition of almost desperate irritation, and had given rise to misconceptions which Mr. Balfour tonight himself exposed.

"The Russian ambassador," said Mr. Balfour, "has authorized a statement to the following effect: The Russian government on hearing of the North sea incident at once expressed its profound regret, and also promised most liberal compensation. The government has ordered the detention at Vigo of that part of the fleet which was concerned in the incident, in order that the naval authorities might ascertain what officers were responsible for it, that those officers and any material witnesses would not proceed on the voyage to the far east, that inquiry would be instituted into the facts by an international commission as provided by The Hague convention.

Guilty Will Be Punished.

That, Mr. Balfour interpolated, had nothing to do with arbitration; it was the constitution of the international commission in order to find out the facts, and any person found guilty would be tried and punished adequately. The Russian government undertook that precautions would be taken to guard against recurrence of such incidents. Special instructions on this subject would be issued.

Preliminary to this court, said Mr. Balfour, there would be the coroner's inquest at Hull over the dead fishermen, a board of trade inquiry, and an inquiry by Russian officials at Vigo. The board of trade inquiry would be especially constituted by the British government to include representative men. The Russian embassy had been asked to send a representative and give assistance.

Apology and compensation having already been offered, nothing now remains but to determine which is correct, Rojestvensky's story or the trawlers'.

The immense audience received Mr. Balfour's announcement of the settlement of the affair with unbounded enthusiasm, which was echoed throughout the kingdom when the evening extras appeared and set suspense at rest.

Were Spoiling for a Fight.

The day was an eventful one in the metropolis. The population, stirred by flaring headlines in the morning newspapers, seemed convinced that the war was inevitable. The cabinet meeting, which was held at noon, served to increase rather than allay anxiety. Throughout the country there had spread a deep-rooted, though perfectly erroneous idea that Great Britain had given Russia a time limit in which to reply, and "Charley" Beresford, England's naval idol, was on the spot.

Many, indeed, thought it was only a question of hours when he would be demolishing Russian ships. Without the least national desire for war, a great naval excitement had been worked up. In the streets tonight many expressions of disappointment might be heard because the crisis had not developed into hostilities. This merely voiced the opinion of the thoughtless, which comprised a considerable section of the public.

Foreign Minister Lansdowne and Ambassador Benkendorff probably will be able to decide the constitution of the international commission, and its date of sitting. In view of the circumstances, neither Japan nor Spain are likely to object to the temporary prolongation of the stay of the section of the second Pacific squadron at Vigo, and the inquiry will be expedited as much as possible.

Ridiculed Admiral's Story.

Mr. Balfour said at Southampton:

"If this meeting had been held yesterday evening I would not have dared preface my remarks in a hopeful tone. Everybody felt that if the trawler incident could be repeated, a belligerent fleet was indeed a pest against which all neutral powers would be bound to combine.

"The only version we had on Monday of the lamentable incidents of the previous Friday was the version supplied by the trawlers. Thursday morning the situation changed, because for the first time we had a counter story, supplied by the Russian admiral. In the story of our fishermen there was much tragedy but no romance; in the story of the Russian admiral there is no tragedy, but I am driven to the belief that there is much romance.

"It is impossible to doubt which is the correct story. I should not have approached it but for the fact that the admiral's story is really an attack upon our national honor, and implies that we are not doing our duty as neutrals. In an island kingdom like Great Britain, the nationality of every craft is known. It is inconceivable that we could be harboring Japanese steamers and warships without Russia and indeed, the whole civilized world knowing. I enter a most emphatic protest against such an allegation.

Shot at Russian Diplomacy.

"The truth will be made manifest and clear as noonday when the inquiry is held, which in most statesmanlike manner has been welcomed by the czar. But in bare justice to the czar and the Russian government I will say they never at any time underestimated the gravity of the crisis, or failed to do what they could to diminish it.

"Remember, the wheels of diplomacy move slowly, and perhaps the wheels of Russian diplomacy especially slowly; but it should be borne in mind that the tragedy was not known until Monday, and the government at once expressed its sorrow, promised reparation, and at the very beginning intimated that any wrongdoer ought to receive punishment.

"One difficulty was that the fleet which committed the outrage was on its way to the illimitable east. That difficulty has been gotten over, but there is another difficulty, namely, that the Russian admiral has a theory of the rights and duties of a belligerent fleet as against neutrals, which would really make the high seas a place of public danger.

Admiral's Theory Intolerable.

"Suppose some dark night a liner or transport fell in with the second Pacific fleet at Gibraltar, when they had intended to divide, and approached within the magic distance. According to the admiral's theory he would be justified in sinking it. The position is one impossible for neutrals to tolerate. A fleet animated by that policy would be a fleet which would have to be eliminated out of existence, if civilized commerce was to pursue its way unimpeded. I am glad to think that in this view the Russian government agrees and has given orders which will prevent a recurrence of the tragedy that has filled our hearts with sorrow and the hearts of all those who had heard of it abroad with something approaching indignation."

Mr. Balfour thought it must be admitted that the Russian government had shown an enlightened desire that truth and justice should prevail. Only a few hours ago, he said, he himself had taken a very gloomy view of the possibility of a satisfactory and peaceful solution. He thought the emperor had shown himself an enlightened judge of what was right in the matter, as between nation and nation.

War Narrowly Averted.

The British government did not ask of others anything it would not gladly have granted if it had been in a similar position. The government had no desire to take advantage of Russia's difficulties to enforce its demands. It had appealed simply to justice and equity, to principles which ought to govern in the good relations between nations; and it had not appealed in vain. It might have been far otherwise, and that it was not was due in a great measure to the foresight and wisdom of the emperor. The world had its eyes centered upon one great, warlike tragedy in the far east. It would have been appalling, but it was not at one moment impossible, that that world's tragedy would have been doubled by another, and we should have seen the greatest calamity that could befall mankind, namely, a struggle between two first-class powers.

Speaking for the government, Mr. Balfour declared he could say they had done all they could consistently with honor to avert war. To say the incident was closed and over, would be too much, but they surely would not think him oversanguine in hoping the spirit of reason and justice which had brought Great Britain through the most difficult parts of the controversy, without the calamity of war, would still preside over the council of the nations, and that the greatest of all calamities, that of internecine war between two European nations, would be avoided.

Congratulates the World.

"If," said Mr. Balfour, "war could be avoided without dishonor, the settlement would reflect nothing but credit upon the ruler of the great empire with which we have been so nearly coming in collision, but with whom it is my earnest hope and sincere belief our good relations will remain undisturbed.

"I hope I have said nothing which can in the smallest degree impair international relations, and though I have spoken under a heavy sense of responsibility and under considerable difficulty, I do think the events of the last few days, though they can never wipe out the tragic occurrence of last Friday, will not bring in their train any of those widespread calamities which at one time we almost feared they would bring with them. I congratulate this country and Russia, Europe and the world, on what I believe will be the result of the last few days' negotiations."

Mr. Lee, member of parliament, speaking for the admiralty, added that the navy was prepared for any contingency and ready to act, but he thanked Heaven it would not be necessary.

A vote of approval of Mr. Balfour's conduct of the negotiations was enthusiastically passed.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The Daily Express asserts that Admiral Sir Syprian Bridge will be one of the British representatives on the commission to inquire into the North sea affair. The commission, the Express adds, will sit at Vigo under neutral chairmanship. The Russian ships will anchor off Vigo, and Admiral Beresford has been ordered to station the Channel squadron there during the sittings of the commission.

ST. PETERSBU[illegible] Oct. 28.—The emperor has approved the proposal to submit the North sea incident to an international tribunal. Orders have been telegraphed to Vice Admiral Rojestvensky to detain at Vigo all the warships which took part in the North sea incident.

There was a feeling of profound relief tonight in higher government spheres and diplomatic circles, where the knowledge existed that the grave crisis in the relations between Russia and Great Britain over the North sea incident has happily been avoided by a decision to submit the issue to a commission. This prompt and satisfactory outcome is attributed in diplomatic circles mainly to the direct interposition of Emperor Nicholas and King Edward.

The Russian public has as yet had no intimation of the solution reached. The people, without counting the cost, talked lightly and even joyfully of the prospect of war with the traditional enemy at whose doors the public mind lays so many of Russia's difficulties.

HOW TO SELECT A PIANO.

Experience Unnecessary.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 28.—Few people realize the importance in the selection of a piano for their home. It means a companion for lifetime. If it becomes harsh and "tinpanny" in tone, you will always be dissatisfied. If you select a world-renowned make like the genuine Chickering or the old reliable Hardman or Kroeger pianos you are sure to have a standard make, with a sweet, singing, poetic and mellow tone that will last a lifetime. These pianos are sold only by W. F. Frederick, the reliable piano dealer, 635 Smithfield street; also 10 other reliable makes. Our reasonable prices and easy terms, if wanted, make piano buying easy at this store. Art catalogue free. Entire building. Remember, the genuine Chickering, Hardman, Strich & Zeidler, Kroeger, McPhail, Estey, Schubert, Haines Bros., Price & Teeple pianos and Chase & Baker and Hardman piano players are sold only by W. F. Frederick. G. & W. Schroeder, Mgrs. Largest dealers between New York and Chicago.

Largest stock of pianos in Pittsburgh. Used uprights, reliable makes, $100. Terms, $10 down, $5 per month. Bargains in used Chickering, Hardman, Steinway and Kroeger pianos. Square pianos, $40 upward. Used organs, $20 to $40.

SHARP FIGHTING ON HUN RIVER

Japanese Are Driven Out from Village, but Capture a Russian Position.

TOTAL LOSSES WERE 50 MEN

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 28.—The general staff has received the following dispatch from Gen. Sakharoff, dated today:

"October 26 the Russian cavalry made a reconnaissance in force in the direction of Kekeouital. A division commanded by Prince Tumanoff forced the enemy from the village of Hailaosa, on the right bank of the Hun river.

"A detachment of about 1,500 infantry, with four guns and two squadrons, under Lieut. Yagodin, supported on the flank by another squadron of cavalry, attacked the enemy's infantry, who fled.

"October 26 a reconnaissance was made on our right flank by several detachments of sharpshooters. After an hour and a half's preparation by fire from mortars and quick-firing guns, the detachments advanced toward the villages of Tchailampu and Bezymianny. The latter was taken by assault by the sharpshooters. Two of our officers were wounded.

"A party of Japanese fell into an ambuscade prepared by our sharpshooters the morning of October 26. The enemy had two men killed and five wounded.

"West of Huihalin a balloon was observed, which came to earth after several shots had been fired at it by our sharpshooters.

"The morning of October 27 two of the enemy's batteries bombarded a height with a temple a mile and a quarter south of the village of Yangsingtun, which was occupied by us as a point of observation. In the afternoon the Japanese attacked the hill. Our companies stubbornly resisted and retired on their main position, but afterwards our artillery forced the Japanese to evacuate the hill."

FUSAN, Oct. 28.—(Gen. Kuroki's Headquarters in the Field.)—The Japanese yesterday drove the Russians from a high hill 10 miles east of the railroad in Gen. Kuroki's front which is important strategically as a post of observation and was the only point south of the Shakhe river which the Russians held. About a regiment of Russians were entrenched, with five machine guns.

The Japanese rushed the Russian trenches, shot many Russians as they were running down the hillside, and captured two machine guns.

The Japanese had 20 men killed and 80 wounded. The Russians left 80 dead on the field.

BATH HOUSE IN SOHO.

Committee of Women Appointed to Take Charge of the Erection of a Model Building.

The Public Baths committee yesterday authorized the appointment of a building committee to take charge of the erection of the Soho public bath house, and it was appointed by the chairman, Mrs. Alfred Longmore, as follows: Mrs. George W. Schlinederberg, chairman; Mrs. Franklin P. Iams, Mrs. Alfred Longmore, Mrs. Dallas Albert, Mrs. Gilliford B. Sweeney, Mrs. Enoch Rauh, Mrs. Samuel Miller, Mr. Marshall and Mr. H. D. Mason.

The baths committee has under consideration several plans for a model building in the Soho district, but the selection will be left entirely to the building committee. This committee will also decide whether to enlarge the original plan of buildings to cost between $50,000 and $75,000 or to put up a building whose estimated cost will be $100,000.

THIEVES ROB GIRL.

Inmate of Disorderly House in Allegheny Had Battle With Robbers and Loses Diamonds.

Bertha Stanley, an inmate of a house at 63 West Robinson street, Allegheny, was robbed and brutally maltreated last night by two thieves who entered the house shortly after 7 o'clock. A diamond eardrop, valued at $200, and a ring worth $175, were taken by the couple after a desperate battle between them and other girls in the house, who were given aid by "Billy the Kid," a character in the First ward.

One of the men was in the room with the girl when the other entered with a drawn revolver and demanded that she give up her jewelry and diamonds. When she screamed the thieves threw her to the floor and in the struggle one of the earrings was torn from her ear. The ring was pulled from her finger. At the foot of the stairs the thieves encountered several girls and "Billy the Kid," but after a fierce battle the thieves escaped into the street.

THREE HURT IN EXPLOSION.

Leak Ignites from Grate and Plays Havoc in Sharpsburg Hotel.

An explosion of gas in the Hotel Schuchert, at 900 Main street, Sharpsburg, yesterday afternoon partially wrecked the building and injured three persons. The injured are George A. Schuchert, proprietor, cut and bruised about the face and head; Mrs. Schuchert, cut about the head, bruised and stunned; Nicholas Wick, bartender, stunned and bruised.

The explosion was caused by a leak in a gas pipe in the cellar. The gas reached the upstairs rooms and ignited at a grate in the dining room. The explosion wrecked the two dining rooms and stairway, tearing away the brick wall of the building and damaging the bar room. Mr. Schuchert, his wife and the bartender were searching for the leak when the explosion occurred.

STARTED THE BAD WORK.

John Robinson Was Helping Commissioners to Destroy Court House Beauty.

Satisfied that county commissioners who would raise the court house two stories and destroy its architectural beauty would not care, John Robinson, a negro, began the work of despoiling the property yesterday by sawing off about 50 pounds of lead pipe in the basement. He was captured by Special Officers Denniston and Dunn in Grant street while trying to locate a junk shop and is awaiting a hearing in Central station.

Harry Simmons is another amateur plumber who got into difficulty yesterday. He is also a negro and he helped move a family out of 48 Logan street yesterday. When the house was deserted Simmons returned, and, it is alleged, cut out a lot of lead and brass pipe and ruined the plumbing.

JAPANESE RAILROAD MEN ORDERED HOME TO FIGHT

CHEYENNE, WYO., Oct. 28.—G. Wakimoto, in charge of hundreds of Japanese employed on the Union Pacific railroad, has been notified by the Japanese consul that all members of the first and second army reserves are ordered home for active service. Wakimoto says over 50 members of the two reserves are located in Colorado, over 600 in Utah and about 500 on the railroads in Wyoming.

Sibley and Williams Speak.

GROVE CITY, Oct. 28.—(Special.)—The Hon. Joseph Sibley of Franklin was the principal speaker at the big Republican demonstration here last night. Mr. Sibley briefly handled all the important issues of the campaign. He predicted the largest majority ever given for the Republican party this fall. In response to the demands of the audience, A. W. Williams of Sharon, candidate for judge, also gave an address, in which he said that neither money nor whisky had been used, to his knowledge, to secure his nomination.

CARNEGIE'S BEST BARGAIN IS PHILADELPHIA LIBRARIES

Philanthropist So Declares While Visiting Quaker City—Glad England and Russia Have Decided to Arbitrate.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28.—Andrew Carnegie, philanthropist, founder of libraries and endower of The Hague peace tribunal, the greatest iron master of any age, joined his fellow members of the Iron and Steel Institute in Philadelphia this evening.

"How are the library sites coming along?" he asked with the greatest of interest apparent in his eyes.

When he was told that several of the sites have already been selected and donated he replied:

"I am glad to hear that. Those 30 libraries for Philadelphia constitute the best bargain I ever made in my life. There are two things I wanted the English visitors to see. One is the Baldwin locomotive works, which for magnitude and system is unexampled in the world's history. The other is the way your workingmen are housed. They have better homes than the workingmen of any other city in the world.

"What do I think of the political situation? Why, there is no political situation anymore. The Democrats now simply should try to give Parker a bigger electoral vote than they did Bryan, so as to keep President Roosevelt in check. That is all they can hope to do."

Speaking of The Hague tribunal, he said: "I am glad that England Russia have decided to arbitrate the North sea dispute. That is the way all international differences should be settled."

CHESTER D. POTTER.

ROJESTVENSKY PUTS ON FINISHING TOUCHES

Adds to Former Story the Statement That Six Shots Hit His Vessels.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The Daily Chronicle tomorrow will publish an interview with Admiral Rojestvensky at Vigo today, in which the admiral is quoted as saying when the vessels of the Russian squadron found themselves surrounded by the fishing fleet they had to stop their engines continually so as not to get the screws entangled in the nets.

The warships frequently gave way to the trawlers. Suddenly the cruiser Aurora saw ahead two torpedo boats coming toward the squadron at full speed. She turned her searchlight on them, and then noticed two floating mines close to her. An order to fire on the torpedo boats was immediately given, with the result that one of them was sunk and the other escaped and was lost sight of among the trawlers.

The admiral added there were two men injured on his flagship. One, a priest, had a hand shot off. Six shots fired during the incident hit the Russian vessels. The Aurora was hit, and has not yet been repaired.

One trawler came within range of a searchlight. Immediately the projector was turned skywards at an angle of 45 degrees, as a signal for the squadron not to fire on that boat. The fire lasted altogether nine minutes.

Touching on the warship which is alleged to have remained behind, the admiral said:

"Any English naval officer understands that it would be impossible for a Russian war vessel to remain behind, considering the presence of hostile torpedo boats.

"The trawlers had their lights out. I need hardly affirm to you my absolute conviction in the presence of these torpedo boats. I am very sorry for what has occurred. I did not know of it until I arrived here. I sincerely hope the matter will be settled amicably."

PORT ARTHUR'S ARSENAL HAS BEEN DESTROYED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

SHANGHAI, Oct. 28.—A private letter from Port Arthur, dated October 21, received here today says:

"The Japanese shells are inflicting great damage to the Russian fleet in the harbor and to the fortifications. The arsenal with its contents of ammunition and small arms has been destroyed, and preparations are being made for the last deadly struggle at close quarters.

"The water supply having been cut off, wells are being sunk. Provisions are scarce. Only tinned meats being left, the soldiers hold gala feasts on horses killed by the shells. Gen. Simonoff, it is said, would surrender, but is overruled by Gen. Stoessel.

"Certain troops included in the garrison have to be closely watched at present for fear of desertion or treachery.

"The field and naval hospitals are crowded and hygienic conditions are becoming desperate. The bombardment at times is so incessant that it is impossible to bury the dead to any depth. Over one-half of the original garrison is dead, wounded or sick."

TOKYO, Oct. 28.—It is reported that the Japanese opened a desperate attack on the eastern forts of the Keekwan group, north of Porth Arthur, during the morning of October 26 and silenced the Russian batteries. A shell exploded the Russian magazines. Simultaneously the Japanese attacked the forts on Rihlung mountain and Sunghohowian mountain, silenced the Russian batteries and stormed and occupied the forts in front of these mountains.

On the night of October 26 there was a conflagration in old Port Arthur and on October 27 a shell hit the Russian battleship Sevastopol, and two Russian steamers were sunk.

BOUND TO GET BEEF.

Russia Sends Second Order to America to Replace the Cargo Seized by the Japanese.

SIOUX CITY, IOWA, Oct. 28.—Intended for the use of the Russian soldiers fighting in the trenches of Manchuria, a ship load of 2,000,000 pounds of beef, one-fourth of which was shipped from the Sioux City plant of a local packing company, was captured by the Japanese off the coast of Japan. The order was received from the Russian government late in the summer. The value of the cargo was $200,000.

Undaunted by the fate of the first cargo, the Russian government has placed a second order for 2,500,000 pounds of beef, which must be on its way within the next 40 days. The order has been divided among three plants at Omaha, Kansas City and Sioux City.

SEIZED STEAMERS RELEASED.

American Representations Concerning Mail on the Calchas Reach Russia.

VLADIVOSTOK, Oct. 28.—The British steamers Allanton and Calchas, both seized by the Vladivostok squadron, have been released. A deposit of $500,000 was made in behalf of the latter vessel, whose case comes up on appeal at St. Petersburg shortly.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 28.—The American representations regarding the mails of the British steamer Calchas, seized by the Vladivostok squadron, reached the foreign office today through Charge d'Affaires Spences Eddy, who presented them direct to Foreign Minister Lamsdorff.

Take Statement Under Oath.

GEFLE, SWEDEN, Oct. 28.—The captain and crew of the Swedish steamer Aldebaran, from Hull, previously reported to have been fired on in the Skagerack by a foreign cruiser, apparently Russian, have been examined on oath by a magistrate at the instance of the government. All affirmed their conviction that the cruiser fired shot and not merely blank charges.

Queen Was Greatly Concerned.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Queen Alexandra's deep concern regarding the Anglo-Russian crisis was evidenced today. Hardly had the cabinet risen when a message was handed to Mr. Balfour from her, and the premier immediately drove to Buckingham palace, where he had a prolonged interview with the queen.

SAYS ROJESTVENSKY CANNOT BE CULPABLE

Russian Ambassador in London Discusses Result of British Cabinet's Action.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Ambassador Benckendorff tonight expressed the greatest pleasure over the Anglo-Russian conference, which he considered honorable to both nations. Until Premier Balfour spoke, the ambassador said, he was bound to silence, hence much misinformation had pervaded the British press, which had reiterated the statement that Russia had given no reply to the British note.

Only this morning, the ambassador said, the placards of the Times and Daily Telegraph had flared through London—"Still no Reply"—totally ignoring the fact that the Russian government's reply had been announced by the Associated Press early in the week, as was confirmed by Premier Balfour tonight. While all this furore was going on, chiefly owing to the public belief that Russia had refused to apologize, diplomatic negotiations had been proceeding smoothly.

On the authority of Count Benckendorff, it can be stated that never at any time did Foreign Minister Lansdowne express the belief that a pacific settlement was not attainable, or endeavor to secure a settlement by veiled menaces.

"I know, however—I could not help knowing—" said the ambassador, "that there was a British fleet at Gibraltar. If our fleet had left Vigo it would probably have been war; but now all is well. There was only one danger, namely, the excitement of public opinion. To be precise, during the negotiations there were never demands on either side but might have been given to the public earlier; but it was thought better to leave everything to Mr. Balfour tonight.

"In view of Mr. Balfour's scathing denunciation of Admiral Rojestvensky, it is interesting to note that, in the Russian view, he could be in no way held responsible, though he has generously assumed the responsibility. The British public throughout the week has been crying for Rojestvensky's head, but Russia has firmly pointed out, and Lord Lansdowne has acquiesced, that he is not one of those individuals who could be described as directly concerned in the firing on the trawlers, being out of signal distance.

"There never was," continued Count Benckendorff, "any question of apology and compensation. These were freely conceded early in the week. The only approach to a hitch occurred in connection with the question of guarantee of punishment. When those differences appeared acute, the whole situation was changed by the appearance of Rojestvensky's report. That was obviously made in good faith.

"It is possible our admiral's subordinates made the mistakes; neither he nor they are infallible. That they made a mistake in hitting trawlers is obvious; that they were mistaken in believing they saw torpedo boats remains to be proved. But if they are not infallible, how much less so are the fisherman?

"The British government said it was impossible for torpedo boats to be where the Russians thought them to be. The statements on both sides absolutely conflicted, and so there was no other way of determining that point than by arbitration. As a friend of peace, America will, I am sure, welcome that decision, which was arrived at after negotiations, which in themselves were of nothing but the friendliest character."

The greatest relief was exhibited in all diplomatic circles when the news of the settlement arrived. As has been stated in these dispatches, the best informed opinion never inclined to the belief that war would ensue, in spite of the enormous naval preparations and the bellicose tendency of the press.

The government's continued silence until now, and the grave aspect in which the affair was placed before the British public are freely attributed in some quarters to political motives, this government desiring to strengthen itself in the eyes of the public on the eve of general election. The opposition, seeing the tide of popular opinion, is going with it lest the government should take all the credit for the settlement which such a prominent admiral as Lambton bluntly announced as long ago as Tuesday was bound to occur.

BRITISH NAVY ACTIVE.

Warlike Preparations Continue Despite the Pacific Utterances of Premier Balfour.

GIBRALTAR, Oct. 28.—Boom defenses are being rigged at both ends of the harbor. The battleships of the Channel fleet are still in port with steam up and decks cleared.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The first division of the home fleet left the Firth of Forth this morning and is expected to arrive at Isle of Portland tomorrow. Admiralty orders have reached Portsmouth to stop the leave of all officers and men and directing that the torpedo boat destroyer flotilla be kept in readiness to proceed wherever ordered.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 28.—The Ariadne, the flagship of the British North Atlantic fleet, and the cruiser Alert, have taken on a full supply of coal. Two torpedo boats attached to this station were placed in commission today.

WOMEN TO FEEL GRIP OF THE LAW

Informations Made Against Seven Keepers of Disorderly Houses.

GRAFT INVESTIGATION GROWS

Following closely the serving of warrants upon Capt. James Wilson of the Allegheny police, charging him with extortion and aiding and abetting a disreputable house, came another step in the progress of the Allegheny graft cases yesterday, in the shape of informations made against seven women who keep resorts in the First and Fourth ward. Because the warrants were given to the constables late in the evening none of the names of the women were made public except that of Alice Scott of 20 East Lacock street, and Nettie Gordon of 11 West Canal street, who were arrested last night. It was feared that were the names given out the women wanted would leave town or go into hiding and thus spoil the plans of Attorneys John Marron and John C. Haymaker.

All the women are charged with keeping disorderly houses and with selling liquor without a license. They have been questioned by the prosecuting attorneys, but refused to give the information that, it is understood, they possess. The district attorney promised them he would protect them from the Allegheny police if they told the whole truth. Each one declared she had never had any dealings with the Allegheny police and protested her ignorance of any illegal practices on the part of the police officials.

It is now the intention of the district attorney and his associates to let these women feel the potency of the courts in enforcing adherence to the laws. Cases have been prepared against a large number of keepers of disorderly houses on the North Side, and with the evidence in the hands of Attorneys Marron and Haymaker, the latter declare they will send these women to the workhouse. Some of them, it is predicted, will take a different view of the case when they find themselves facing the prospect of a term in the workhouse, and will willingly tell what they know of criminal conditions existing in the lower wards.

Capt. James Wilson is still on duty. He will get a hearing before Alderman Toole next Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Alderman Walter Wadsworth, who is charged with extortion and with keeping a disorderly house, is to be in court next Thursday to answer to the charges against him.

There is to be one more session of the Homestead graft investigation committee, but it is not expected the report it makes will be submitted to the next regular session of councils. The investigators are still looking for some important witnesses.

ENRIGHT WAS EASY.

Allegheny Hotelkeeper Loaned Stranger $50 on a 40-Cent Stone.

William M. Enright, the Allegheny hotel keeper, has been trying for several days to suppress the story of how he was taken in by a smooth crook who spent a day at Enright's house in Federal street.

On Tuesday last a nice-looking young man registered at the Hotel Enright and introduced himself as the proprietor of a hotel in Chicago. He showed printed cards bearing his name and the name of his hotel.

Shortly before midnight he returned after an absence of several hours and told Enright he had been in a poker game, and had lost most of the money he had with him. Then he went to bed. In the presence of Enright he addressed a telegram to his supposed hotel in Chicago, asking that $250 be sent him at once. When the answer came Enright read the following: "Telegram received. Have expressed money to you."

On the strength of this Enright loaned the young man $50. Against the protests of Enright, the stranger left with the former a handsome stone. On Wednesday Enright had the stone appraised and was told by a jeweler that it was worth 40 cents. The young man has not come back.

TWO WOMEN DEAD FROM WILD SHOT

William Heffelfinger Accidentally Shoots Mrs. Harry Kimley, at Crestline, O.

NEWS KILLS HER FRIEND

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CRESTLINE, O., Oct. 28.—Mrs. Margaret Kimley, wife of Harry Kimley of Wellington, O., a traveling man for the William Edwards Company of Cleveland, was shot and instantly killed tonight by William Heffelfinger, a prominent resident of Crestline.

Her friend, Mrs. Carrie Shafer, on learning of the tragedy, fell dead from heart disease.

It is said that Heffelfinger had been drinking heavily and tonight several young men met him in an intoxicated condition and took him home. When the door of his house was reached, he suddenly pulled a revolver and said: "Now, you fellows go." At the same time he fired a shot, which was answered by a scream from across the street. Mrs. Kimley had been sitting at a window in the home of Mrs. Fred Guenther and the shot struck her just back of the ear. She fell to the floor and died in a few minutes.

Mrs. Kimley had intended leaving for Cleveland tonight to join her husband. He has been notified of the tragedy. Her death made public the fact of their secret marriage 18 months ago. Heffelfinger was locked up and will receive a hearing tomorrow morning.

DEATH MAY RESULT FROM QUARREL OVER ELOPEMENT

Father Reprimands His Daughter and Her Husband Crushes His Skull With an Ax.

During a dispute with his daughter, W. C. Richards, aged 40, a farmer of near Braeburn station, about 22 miles from Pittsburgh, was probably fatally injured by his son-in-law at the farm yesterday. Richards was assaulted with an ax and his skull was fractured at the base of the brain. He was sent to the West Penn hospital and it is not thought he can recover. When an effort was made last night to secure an ante-mortem statement, Richards was unconscious.

Richards has had charge of a farm owned by Joseph Wolfe of 1248 Washington avenue, Braddock. When Wolfe went to Braeburn yesterday he learned of the assault on Richards and had him taken to the hospital. The local detective bureau made an effort to reach Wolfe by telephone, but was unsuccessful. The case will be investigated.

Some time ago, it is alleged, Richards' 15-year-old daughter eloped, and since then there has been bad feeling between Richards and his son-in-law. Frequent quarrels are said to have taken place between the men since the elopement, and when Richards attempted to reprimand his daughter, it is alleged her husband secured the ax and assaulted her father.

PITTSBURGH CAR COMPANY HAS INVENTOR ENJOINED

ALTOONA, Oct. 28.—The Standard Steel Car Company of Pittsburgh today instituted an injunction suit in the county courts restraining Jackson Simenton of Altoona from disposing of a patent covering an invention for operating the doors of cars. It is alleged that the defendant had sold the device to the Pittsburgh concern for $16,000. Judge Bell granted a preliminary injunction until next Wednesday.

RADICAL MOVE IN CITY COUNCILS

Steps to Be Taken to Compel Better Service from Traction Monopoly.

REQUEST FOR LEGAL OPINION

The agitation for better street car service will be taken up in councils next week and a determined move in this direction will be made which is likely to be successful unless blocked by the administration. A couple of ordinances, one to prohibit standing on platforms and another to prevent standing between seats in summer cars, will be introduced, but it is not believed they cover the situation and it is proposed to take more radical steps.

A number of councilmen believe councils have ample power to deal with the matter and to compel the traction monopoly to furnish better facilities. A. G. Roenigk and C. W. Helmold of the Twentieth ward are considering a general ordinance to regulate the running of street cars, including the question of capacity of cars, speed, fenders, heating, time of running, transfers and other subjects in which the people of the city are vitally interested just now.

These councilmen, and others, believe that in securing franchises from the city a public service corporation is bound to give the public satisfactory service, and they are of the opinion that the city administration and councils have ample power to compel the street car company to give adequate service.

Will Ask City Solicitor.

It is probable that at the next meeting of councils a motion will be made by Roenigk or Helmold to ask for an opinion from the city solicitor as to the power of the city authorities to compel better service and whether redress can be obtained by the city if this service is not given.

"Mr. Roenigk or myself will introduce the two ordinances which Assistant Controller Morrow has prepared, but these measures do not go far enough," said Mr. Helmold yesterday. "There are a number of other restrictions that ought to be placed on the street car company and more radical changes are absolutely necessary.

"The people are demanding better service and we must get it for them. I do not agree with Director Moore that he has not power to prevent the overcrowding of cars. He has as much right to do this as he has to prevent crowding in theaters. We intend to make a fight in councils for a decided improvement in the traction service, and it will not be our fault if it is not secured. I think it would be a good idea to get an opinion from the city solicitor as to what we can do. We certainly ought to be able to make the traction company give the people satisfactory service or make it give back the exclusive franchises it has."

Director Moore's Position.

Director Moore of the department of public safety stated yesterday that he did not have the power to compel the traction company to give relief from overcrowded cars.

"It would take my whole police force to do this and I do not have the power to interfere," he said.

He made the curious suggestion that the business men ought to regulate the closing of their stores so that some of them would close at one hour and others would close at another hour. He said the same regulation should be applied to the opening of stores in the morning. He argued that this would prevent the terrific rush in the mornings and in the evenings by people going to and from work.

The director, however, did not offer any suggestion how it would be possible to get one man to open in the morning at 7 and close at 5 in the evening and for another man to open at 8 and close at 6. Merchants who heard of this suggestion last evening received it with a great deal of amusement.

RUSSIA IS INCLINED TO MODIFY PASSPORT LAWS

Pittsburgh Jews Learn That Documents Issued by This Country Will Receive Greater Consideration.

A telegram received in Pittsburgh yesterday by Charles H. Josephs, editor of the Jewish Criterion, would tend to indicate that the Russians are inclined to yield in the matter of American passports held by Jews. The telegram is from Henry Goldfogle, a Jewish representative in congress from a New York district. Mr. Goldfogle states he is in receipt of a message from Stewart Samuels, a member of the British parliament, which states the Russian passport law is likely to be modified.

While considerable indefiniteness attaches to this message, it is taken by the Jews of Pittsburgh to mean Russia is inclined to make some concessions. Mr. Samuels' message to Mr. Goldfogle is the result of unremitting effort put forward by the New York congressman to have the Russian passport laws made less arbitrary and of a more impartial character. Mr. Goldfogle has been indefatigable in trying to induce this government to influence Russia to less strict measures. The rule has been that a Jew, no matter how long his residence in the United States, gained no favors in Russia even when armed with the passports of this country. Mr. Goldfogle sought for the recognition of the American passport regardless of religious principles, and the message received yesterday would indicate that his efforts are now going to be crowned with some measure of success.

The message came to Mr. Josephs not as a member of any Jewish society but as editor of the Jewish Criterion, and in that paper the news will today be exploited as a matter of great racial importance. Some more definite information is expected in a few days.

OUTLAWS' BUSY SEASON.

Suburban Residents Are Suffering from Footpads and Burglars.

Thieves are spreading terror in small towns adjacent to Pittsburgh. Residents of these places are powerless to protect themselves against the highwaymen and vandals who are at work, and these gentry seem to be enjoying complete immunity from punishment for their crimes.

Charles Kemp and Charles Krunley were captured while in the act of robbing the home of the Misses Patterson in Edgeworth Wednesday night, and were held for court at a hearing yesterday before Justice Buckley. Before being arrested the men had occasioned great damage. The Misses Patterson were away from home and costly furniture was broken and many valuable heirlooms and relics destroyed. A trunk, made in 1747, was chopped open with an Indian tomahawk. The men were captured in the act.

Anton Morall was assaulted by footpads near Riley station, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, Thursday night. He was knocked senseless and had several teeth knocked out and was otherwise injured. He was not found until daylight, when two men going to work found him still unconscious.

WIRELESS SYSTEM MAY BE ADOPTED

Westinghouse Interests Testing a Means for Communication Between All Works.

MAY REACH ACROSS OCEAN

Connection by wireless telegraphy between the many plants of the Westinghouse interests is contemplated and a series of experiments looking to that end have been started. The two plants chosen for the experiments are those of the old Westinghouse Manufacturing Company at Schenectady, the personal property of George Westinghouse, and the Bryant Electric Company at Bridgeport, Conn.

The system of wireless telegraphy which is being applied there is the American DeForest. Exhaustive tests are proposed, and if they produce as good results as are anticipated the extension of the wireless telegraphy to connect all the Westinghouse works is but a matter of time.

The purpose in this plan is to provide a means of instantaneous communication between the works and avoid the necessity of paying out thousands upon thousand of dollars a year in telegraph and telephone tolls. If the total amount of money paid by the Westinghouse concerns to the great systems of telegraph and telephone communication were known it would make plain the company's eagerness to escape these heavy charges.

Few people realize that in the mention of the Westinghouse concerns there are included 17 separate companies stretching from St. Louis to New York, Bridgeport and Hamilton, Ont. in America, and six companies in foreign lands. While the immediate future does not promise the connection of the European works with the American concerns by this system, it is not beyond the hope of the wireless telegraph engineers that this will become in due time one of the ordinary means of transatlantic communication. The cable tolls saved in this manner would amount to a very large sum.

The works which are proposed to be connected in America include the Westinghouse Airbrake Company and the Westinghouse Traction Brake Company, at Wilmerding; the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, the Westinghouse Machine Company and the Pittsburgh Meter Company at East Pittsburgh; the American Brake Company and the Westinghouse Automatic Air and Steam Coupler Company at St. Louis, the Union Switch and Signal Company at Swissvale, the Sawyer-Man Electric company and the Cooper-Hewitt Electric Company, New York; the Bryant Electric Company and the Perkins Electric Switch Manufacturing Company at Bridgeport, Conn.; the Nernst Lamp Company and the R. D. Nuttall Company, Pittsburgh, and the Canadian Westinghouse Company, Ltd., Hamilton, Ont.

The foreign companies which may later be included in this plan are the Westinghouse Brake Company, Ltd., with works at London and Hanover; the Westinghouse Company, Ltd., St. Petersburg; the British Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, Manchester, England; the Societe Anonyme Westinghouse, Le Havre and Frienville, France, and the Westinghouse Electricitaets-Actiengesellschaft, Berlin.

MASQUERADERS TO HAVE FREE SWAY HALLOWE'EN

Supt. Wallace Arranges for Police to Protect Marchers on Monday Night.

The masqueraders will have full sway on Hallowe'en. Supt. Wallace has completed arrangements for the police to take care of the crowds that night. The funmakers will have possession of the streets and the spectators will have to confine themselves to the sidewalks. It is not expected the downtown streets will be so congested as in former years, as the East End board of trade has prepared to have a special celebration, which will keep many persons in that section of the city.

Supt. Wallace believes in the old-time Hallowe'en celebration. It is the one night in the year, in his mind, when the young folks should be allowed to attire in queer costumes and enjoy themselves. Officers will be instructed to place any person under arrest who molests a marcher.

It has been arranged to have 100 officers stationed in Fifth avenue from Market street to Grant. Twenty policemen will be placed in Smithfield street from Water street to Fifth avenue. Assistant Supt. Kennelly and Inspector Robinson will have charge of the officers.

The Allegheny police will be lenient with the mummers who will make merry on the North Side Monday night. The Hallowe'en parade in Allegheny is always picturesque and in past years there has been little or no disorder to mark the advent of this annual jollification. Supt. Campbell said last night that as long as the merrymakers confined their pranks within the bounds of propriety the police would not molest them.

Negro Used His Razor.

Valentine Arnold, well-known in Allegheny, was seriously cut yesterday by Frank Howard, a negro, of 812 Monitor street. The two met at Second and Middle streets and became engaged in a quarrel. While they were struggling Howard drew a razor across Arnold's thigh, severing an artery. He was removed to the Allegheny General hospital where the physicians say he will recover. Howard was arrested.

Two Especially Fine Offers in Millinery Today.

$15.00 to $18.00 values booked to go at $10.00.
$10.00 to $12.00 values booked to go at $7.50.

The above refers to beautiful Trimmed Hats and Toques, including all black hats and others in in charming color effects.

There must be a constant inflow to keep stocks inviting and new, consequently the outgo must equal the constant receipt of new goods. Therefore such opportunities as the foregoing. By selling large quantities of merchandise we are able to give our customers better values than we could do under different circumstances.

We have about 100 of these hats, which we will dispose of for the lowered prices. They are designed of the newest materials and express some of the best millinery ideas. There are Turbans, Continentals, Face Flares and Large Hats, all suitable for the street and for dress occasions.

NOTE—(1) A millinery expert would notice some little defect, not obvious to the ordinary eye, due to handling. This, however, is very slight.

NOTE—(2) On account of the very low prices no alterations will be made and no exchanges granted.

40c and 50c Ribbons Today 25c Yd.

Today there will be a special table of ribbons of all kinds and colors and various widths at 25c a yard. They are very desirable shades and exactly suited for making girdles, stocks and for art needlework purposes. They are regular 40c and 50c qualities. Some further detail—

Satin Taffeta, 5 and 6 inches wide.
Persian Ribbon, 5 and 6 inches wide.
Novelty Ribbon, 5 and 6 inches wide.
Faille Ribbon, 4½ inches wide.
Fancy Embroidered Ribbon, 4 inches wide.
Black Satin Ribbon, 5½ inches wide.
Black Taffeta Ribbon, 5 inches wide.

Choice from the above 40c and 50c Ribbons 25c a yard.

We invite inspection of our line of new imported ribbons—Warp Prints, Dresden, Roman Striped, Ombra, Persian and Novelties, at 35c a yard and up to $3.50.

A Brief List of Late Books.

The following list is made up of books on which the ink is scarcely dry, so recently are they from their publishers. It is surely very little trouble to keep in tune with the trend of thought when the new books are constantly before one.

At $1.08 in the Book Nook—

Whosoever Shall Offend, by F. Marion Crawford.
Captain of the World, by Gwendolen Overton.
Albert Gate Mystery, by Louis Tracy.
The Closed Book, by William Le Queux.
The Prisoner of Mademoiselle, by Charles D. G. Roberts.
The Brethren, by H. Rider Haggard.
Never-Never Land, by Wilson Barret.
The Masquerader, by Katherine Cecil Thurston.
The Law of the Land, by Emerson Hough.
The Happy Average, by Brand Whitlock.
The Undercurrent, by Robert Grant.
Zelda Damerson, by Meredith Nicholson.
The Lady of Loyalty House, by Justin H. McCarthy.
The Staying Guest, by Caroline Wells.
The Hound From the North, by Ridgewill Cullins.
Christmas Eve on Lonesome, by John Fox, Jr.

These at Various Prices—

Monarch Big Bear of Tallac, by Ernest Thompson Setson, $1.25.
The Mountains, by Edward Stewart White, $1.50.
The Flower of Youth, by Rolfe Gibson, $1.00.
When the King Came, by George Hodges, $1.00.
New Samaria, by S. Weir Mitchell, $1.00.
The First American King, by George Gordon Hastings, $1.00.
True Bills, by George Ade, 75c.
Susan Clegg and Her Friend, Mrs. Lathrop, by Anne Warner, 75c.

Something New in Slippers.

We'll say at the outset that they are just in, and we take it they will appeal most to the younger set, although, of course, the matron may contend the issue.

They are chiefly intended for afternoon wear, as they are in colors—yes, colors to match the gown. A beautiful red, a rich cream and bright but not daring shades of purple and green. In shape they rather resemble the old-time "low-cuts" or the very new pumps. Full Louis XV. heels, and finished with flat ribbon bow ties.

They are different from the ordinary evening slipper in that they are of quite heavy morocco. They are "bench-made" and have turn soles.

Ready for your inspection this morning, ladies.

Advantages of Our Methods in Fitting Glasses.

The volume of business in our Department of Optical Goods has increased to such an extent that we have now two optical specialists who devote all their time to examining the eyes for glasses. ON SPECIAL TABLE—

Nowadays every woman likes to have a nice supply of ruching for the neck. Here's the chance to do so at small expense. Six pieces (each long enough for a collar), of prettiest ruching, nicely boxed for 50c the box. Each of these six collar lengths is different in style.

White and colored ruching by the yard, assorted styles, special at 15c a yard.

Warm Wool Shawls.

If you have an elderly friend in mind (or a young friend, for that matter), to whom you are thinking of presenting a nice wool shawl before the weather gets any colder, take elevator to the second floor and look over our line before buying. So much variety in every sort of shawl, we don't think you'll care to go further.

Shoulder Shawls in gray, black, brown, black and white checks, black and red checks and fancy plaids in blue and green, brown and gray. $1.00 to $3.50.
Woolen Shawls, 72x144, in gray, black, brown and plaids, $4.75 to $8.50.
Woolen Shawls, 72x72, in gray, brown, black and plaids, $2.50 to $5.00.
Worsted Shawls in white, gray, pink, blue, $1.50 to $5.00.
Hand-Knit Shawls in white, gray and black, $3.00 to $2.50.
Silk-Knitted Shawls, in all colors, $2.00 to $7.50.

Note These Prices on Athletic Goods.

As athletic goods are generally bought by name there can be no mistake made on the score of quality, even if you don't pay nearly the regular amount. For example, Morril's goods are the Standard—they need no other recommendation than the name of the maker.

All leather Footballs with pure rubber bladder 75c each to $4.00.
Nose Guards, 75c grade, for 60c.
Morril's Nose Guards, $1.50 grade, 95c.
Shin Guards, 40c, 50c and up to $1.50.
Boys' fine all-wool Sweaters, $1.00.

Our collection of Sweaters and Jerseys cannot fail to interest the athlete—we have all kinds and our prices are very low.

Decorative Pieces in Burnt Wood.

At the Art Needlework Counter we are showing a new line of decorative but practical articles in wood, burnt and tinted. Some of these are very artistic, as the shapes are uncommonly pretty.

Among them such useful trifles as Ash Trays, Pin Trays, Jewel Boxes, Match Boxes, Steins, Bonbons, Hair Receivers, Candlesticks, Glove and Handkerchief Boxes, Picture Frames, etc. Some of them would serve admirably for euchre prizes and little gift articles. 35c to $3.00.

In the same department there is a large assortment of imported novelties, such as Work Boxes, Pin Cushions, and like articles, 25c each.

The Armour Extract of Beef Demonstration

Closes this evening. Throughout the day the demonstrator will be pleased to show visitors the many delightful viands which may be made of Armour's Extracts.

With every purchase of a jar of extract, a handsome triple-plated silver Measuring Spoon will be given away. Visitors will be served with the delicacies made while they wait.

A Little Clean-Up of Umbrellas.

We have a little lot of umbrellas, about thirty in all, just a few of a kind, which we are willing to close out for very small prices, indeed. We need the space they occupy.

Colored Umbrellas with white borders. All pure silks, mostly blue, but some red and greens. Were $2.00 and $2.50. Will close them out at $1.50.
Black Umbrellas for men and women, fast color and a good grade of union taffeta or gloria. Fancy trimmed or natural handles. Will close these out at 95c each, although they are worth much more.

Saturday, October 29, 1904.

It is reported in New York city that the practice of cremation as a substitute for burial in this country is dying out. The estimate is made that there were nearly 10,000 bodies cremated during the last dozen years, but the number is growing less each year. The attitude of the Catholic church in its stand against cremation is thought to be the cause of much of its decline, but the relatives of the dead seem to be so shocked by burning that they rarely allow a second member of the family to be disposed of in the same way. It is possible, however, that when a reaction against the expenses of funerals comes it may revive interest in cremations, which can be conducted more cheaply.

One of the principal complaints of the Pittsburgh Post against President Roosevelt is that he does not enforce all the provisions of the Constitution. Yet this same Post takes umbrage at the proposition to reduce the representation of the southern states in congress on account of the disfranchisement of a large number of citizens. The Constitution provides for precisely such reduction and prescribes its proportion. The disfranchised element must be counted in apportioning representatives, but not in full ratio. This subject is well worth the attention of the "Parker Constitutional clubs," which were a feature of the early stages of the campaign, and it is worth an utterance by Judge Parker himself. Does he stand for enforcement of the Constitution in this matter?

Former Gov. George K. Nash of Ohio, who died suddenly at his home yesterday, was well known and highly esteemed in Pittsburgh. Mr. Nash was of the old Western Reserve stock, a man of high ideals, sterling integrity, uncompromising probity and great vigor. He had been a prominent figure in the Republican party of the Buckeye state for many years before his election as governor. He belonged to the stalwart element. He was chosen as the candidate for governor when Johnson socialism was at high tide in the Democratic organization, to give the voters a man of conservative character to rally around, and they did it in a manner creditable to the state. He was re-elected for a second term. He will be remembered long as one of Ohio's grand old men.

In many respects the behavior of the Japanese sets an example to other nations regarding themselves as civilized. War correspondents testify to the scrupulous honesty of the Japanese soldiers which makes it possible to leave valuables, liquor and eatables freely exposed without risk of theft. An extraordinary instance of the same scrupulous regard for individual property rights is given in dispatches from St. Petersburg, announcing that the Russian general staff is regularly receiving through the intermediary of the French embassy large numbers of carefully fastened packets forwarded by the Japanese military authorities. They contain objects of value of all kinds, such as jewels, cigar cases, purses, watches, gold crosses and sums of money, sometimes even single rouble pieces, found by the Japanese on the bodies of Russian officers and soldiers buried by them after battles.

According to the report of the bureau of equipment in the navy department, the wireless telegraph systems are being extended in the United States. There have been 58 stations established on land and water and the department expects that before long it will be able to signal the noon hour to ships at sea as well as stations on land. The average navigator, however, would not welcome such time announcements as much as information concerning the weather and the movements of other vessels. Long-distance stations have been established between Cuba, Porto Rico and Panama, and one will soon be built on the New England coast. All this must be largely experimental, for the navy will never make much progress in wireless telegraphy until some agreement has been reached for a system uniform with that used by the army and in commercial work.

When J. N. Tyner was acquitted last June of the charge of conspiracy while attorney for the postoffice department, he immediately wrote to President Roosevelt, asking him to retract the reflections he made on the office in connection with the Bristow report on the postoffice irregularities. Mr. Tyner had made a pathetic figure at the trial, for he is incapacitated by old age and disease and cannot walk, so there was much sympathy for him. It seems that President Roosevelt then replied to his request with the statement that the trial was not for the offense criticised in the message and there was no need for a revision of judgment. Now Mr. Tyner replies in an impertinent letter to the president, even offering to submit to trial again in order to clear his name. Mr. Tyner has never explained the incident when his wife, under his direction, ransacked the office from which he had been removed and took from it a collection of papers which might have been of use to the government in the investigations that followed. Having the comfort of acquittal by a jury, he will hardly gain by his further demand for vindication.

The Anglo-Russian Settlement.

It is a distinct advance in the development of international action for the settlement of disputes between nations when such a case as that presented by England's grievance against Russia is to be submitted to The Hague tribunal. It must also be recorded as a triumph of diplomacy that such an ingenious solution was found of the deadlock that had taken place. England would not recede from her demands of punishment against which Russia had raised a point of honor, but the settlement which has been reached covers the point by referring that question also to the international commission to be constituted under the rules of The Hague convention. Meanwhile the Russian admiral and the inculpated squadron remains in port pending the inquiry. Practically, the squadron is under arrest and must answer to the charge against it before it will be discharged from custody and allowed to proceed. French diplomacy is probably to be credited with inducing Russia to accept these terms, which expose her officers to conviction and punishment under the sentence of an international tribunal.

The speech which Premier Balfour delivered at Southampton shows that there has been no weakening on the part of the British government. While there is nothing passionate or inflammatory in the speech it is extremely severe in its measured condemnation of the behavior of the Russian fleet. No plainer talk has ever been heard from an English premier upon an international affair than was used by Mr. Balfour. He said that the torpedo boats spoken of by the Russian admiral were "phantom ships—creatures of pure fancy," and he scouted the idea that a commander capable of such behavior would be allowed to go on his way "unscathed, unchallenged and unpunished." This language reveals the gravity of the crisis and fully explains the gathering of British navies around the present position of the Russian squadron. Had the Russian government refused to submit to terms satisfactory to England the Baltic fleet would have had to fight its way through the British navy to continue its cruise. Fortunately this crisis has passed by, since Russia had agreed with England as to the necessity of an investigation, but Mr. Balfour declared that "the responsible officers would not be permitted to proceed to the far east and the persons found guilty would be adequately punished."

While it is creditable to Russia that she has been willing to submit the conduct of her officers to an international inquiry, the results are likely to be more detrimental to her prestige than if she had dealt with them herself. There must have been gross demoralization before such an egregrious blunder could have been made as to mistake North sea fishing smacks for Japanese torpedo boats, and the revelations of the court of inquiry may bring disgrace upon the whole Russian navy.

Pennsylvania Justice Does Not Halt.

Delay of justice through appeals in criminal cases is regarded as so influential in encouraging the lynching spirit that some time ago a justice of the supreme court of the United States recommended the abolition of the privilege as an absolute right open at will to the prisoner. Although the right of appeal is susceptible of abuse, there could be no complaint as to the law's delay on this account if the practice of the Pennsylvania supreme court were generally followed. That court never delays the final determination of a criminal case. When an appeal is taken in a murder case it is promptly set down for a hearing wherever the court may be in session, and does not wait, like civil cases, to be reached when the turn of that particular county court comes up. When the case comes up the rule of the court is inexorable that it shall be disposed of at the time appointed.

A good instance of this is the case of Miles, Jackson and Obey, the negroes convicted of murdering John Kluzor at Leetsdale. The usual appeal was taken in their case, and on Monday an attempt was made to secure a continuance which would carry the case over to the next term, but the court refused the motion, and as counsel for the convicts were not ready to argue the appeal the case is closed. This practice of our supreme court is altogether commendable, as it effectually prevents the abuse of the right of appeal for purposes of delay. If punishment does not follow swiftly upon the commission of the crime it is not the fault of the court of last resort in Pennsylvania, whose example might well be followed in other states.

A Peach of a Plan.

Director Harry Moore denies he is having an ordinance prepared to prohibit passengers from riding on the platforms of street cars. He doubts the ability of the company and the city to enforce such a regulation. As a former street car man, however, Mr. Moore suggests a remedy for the "rush hours" by abolishing them. In his view of the case the whole trouble arises from the unreason of people who try to go to and from their work at those hours. He proposes that a new schedule should be arranged so that certain places of business shall be opened at 7 o'clock, others half an hour later, and so on. Then they are to close in the evening in similar order, so the crowds will not be thrown on the streets at the same time.

This is a beautiful idea, harmonizing perfectly with the new principle that it is the duty of the public to conform to the convenience of the traction interest. The harmony cannot fail to appeal to the developing artistic taste of the community. Thus it might be arranged that all the banks should open at 6 o'clock in the morning and close at noon. The drygoods and department stores would open at 6:30 and close at 12:30. Lawyers' offices and the courts would open at 7 and the barber shops half an hour later. Hardware stores might be permitted to do business from 8 o'clock until 4; groceries from 8:30 to 4:30, and market stands and meat shops from 9 o'clock to 5. Foundries would open at 9:30 and machine shops at 10. Tailors and milliners could be allowed on the cars from that hour until 11. The office people could be distributed through the afternoon, the first of them coming in on the cars that took the bankers home at noon, brokers being included in the office list. The convenience of this arrangement is apparent at a glance. It would not only relieve the congestion on the street cars, but would do away with the rush to get deposits in bank before the closing hour.

In the evening the first theater might be permitted to open soon after 5 o'clock, when the butchers would be going home. The next one an hour later, and so on. The last one would thus begin its performance at 10 o'clock, an hour or so before the last of the office forces left their desks. This would avoid overcrowding of the theaters also. Then the saloons might open at 11, which would assist in keeping the street cars busy until it was time for the bankers to be on the move again.

It requires no argument to demonstrate that this system would suit the traction interest to a nicety. Cars could be run regularly throughout the day and night at least possible expense and with much less wear and tear than under the present unreasonable system that throws common laborers and school children into the same cars. The schools, of course, would open after the saloons, so the children could go home as return cargo on the cars that brought the bankers in. They would not be diverted from their studies by errands to the baker's shop or the grocery store. The unreasonable public will, of course, kick on some of the details—that is the way of the public. But it cannot be successfully denied that Director Moore's plan is a peach and the only one that will prevent the overcrowding of cars, while the trolley companies considerately decline to crowd the streets with an excess of cars.

The Business Situation.

The excitement prevailing in the stock market this week occupied a large share of public attention, and was supplemented by the North sea incident, to the exclusion of more prosaic subjects. The level of security values reached the highest point of the year during the early part of the week, and the dealings were on a larger scale than at any time since May, 1901. An overdue reaction followed, which was accentuated by the engagement of gold for export, an unusual movement at this season, and by the fall in foreign securities caused by the strained relations between Great Britain and Russia. The breadth of the market during the past two weeks furnished unmistakable evidence that the public was taking a larger interest in speculation, and the subsequent reaction should have the effect of checking rampant speculation which threatened to distract attention from legitimate business.

The engagements of gold for export to Paris exceeded $3,000,000, and the indications are that more will be taken. This movement is one of the puzzling features of the financial situation. Ordinarily at this season we import gold in payment of cotton and breadstuffs shipped to foreign consumers. Only twice within recent years have we reversed the usual order and exported gold in quantity to Europe in October. No adequate explanation for the anomaly has yet been offered by financial authorities, but it may be that the movement merely represents gold in transit from Australia and Japan to Europe. The custom of our government in making telegraphic transfers of gold received at San Francisco to New York expedites and cheapens the cost of shipping the metal, and foreign bankers may be taking advantage of this custom. At all events, the shipments this week have as yet had no adverse effect upon domestic money rates and there is no appearance of stringency in the market.

The market for iron, coal and coke continues active and prices are advancing. The quarterly report of the U. S. Steel Corporation, showing the smallest tonnage of unfilled orders on its books in its history, was a disappointment to the trade, but the statement of Chairman Gary that since the close of the last quarter there has been an increase in October of more than 30 per cent over the business booked during the corresponding period last year is in strict accord with the unofficial reports of improvement in the industry during the past few weeks.

In mercantile circles there is no abatement of the cheerful feeling noticed for some time past. Representatives of large financial and commercial houses in the east who have returned from the west and south bring back reports of unprecedented prosperity prevailing in those sections, and a degree of optimism which augurs well for the future.

Our Democratic friends who talk most about upholding the Constitution, cry out loudest when it is proposed to enforce the clause referring to reduction of representation where there is disfranchisement of citizens.

Another 6,000 new cars have been ordered for the Pennsylvania system, as an indication of the business expected early next year. The Pennsylvania never makes any mistakes in business prognosis, either.

While Director Bigelow was prevented from securing a transfer of the Sixth ward park fund, he has not been compelled to make any plans to improve the park.

Russia is peculiarly sensitive on the subject of foreign interference with its internal affairs. It may be suspected those affairs will not stand close inspection.

President Roosevelt's reply to Gen. Tyner is sharp and to the point, and it is a pity the old man's councillors had not the good judgment to secure his silence.

When passengers are prevented from standing on trolley car platforms there will come a test of endurance between the public and the traction company.

Railroads allow no passengers to stand on platforms. They enforce the rule, because they run cars enough to accommodate passengers inside.

Candidate Parker has made reply to Senator Knox in a tone that approaches D. B. Hill's personalities. Is the man piqued?

While the Daughters of the American Revolution get the damages, they are in consideration of the closing of the streets.

Sweden protests also. The Russians made a target of a Norse freighter. Must have taken it for a Japanese cruiser.

Gen. Stoessel has issued his second farewell proclamation. Probably sees the writing on the sea wall.

Apparently the Russian advance has begun. The Japanese have taken a hill and two guns.

Women's political clubs are quite the thing in this campaign.

Rojestvensky must have got in wrong with the ikons.

Parker thanks Bryan. Just why is hard to tell.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Strangely enough, the completion of the subway has not had the effect of relieving the congestion as much as was expected. Notwithstanding the fact that 75,000 passengers were carried in the subway before 10 o'clock this morning, there was apparently just as great crowding on the "L" trains and most of the surface lines during the early rush hours as heretofore. A few of the surface lines felt the effect, as many people in the habit of taking these cars downtown took the more rapid means of travel, under the impression that there would be plenty of room for all.

Of course the subway is not entirely completed, but since it carried several hundred thousand passengers today, one would suppose that the days of the straphanger were about over—at least until the city grows some more.

The Harlem people have taken to the subway as a duck takes to water. It is really a much more pleasant ride than on the "L." The roadbed, being of solid rock most of the way, relieves the trains of the vibration felt on the "L." The ventilation is good, and the temperature is practically the same at all times. All last night great crowds took subway rides and found that the trains were on perfect schedule. It was as though a whole city had found a new toy, but it will be a business proposition from now on. The promise of Harlem in 15 minutes has been kept, and the people of Harlem have every reason to be glad.

And charity was not forgotten during the jollification. August Belmont announced this morning that the receipts of yesterday up to midnight were to go to the city hospitals. As 111,000 persons paid fares during that time, the company has $5,550 for the benefit of those who were too ill to join in the general rejoicing at this great material advance of the city.

While the Cat's Away.

The New York lad who picks up a stray Maltese cat which has no claws, can, if it be the right cat, trade it for a $100 bill. James H. Parker, a cotton broker, would like to make the trade. The cat happens to be a prize winner, and the absence of claws is not because of age, but to save the furniture in the Parker home. In offering the reward Mr. Parker makes the provision that he must have the cat before his wife returns home. She is very fond of it, and he wants to make amends for his carelessness. The cat disappeared yesterday, and Mrs. Parker is expected home in a few days. Meanwhile the head of the house is very much worried about what will happen if puss is missing when his wife returns from the country.

All Bologna Looks Alike.

How to escape eating non-union bologna is worrying the union men of lower New York. There was a strike of bologna makers a few weeks ago, and when it was declared off there were two kinds of the product in the market—union and non-union. Some of the manufacturers are running open shops, while others signed the scale. Now, the members of the union have strong bologna appetites, and yet they cannot tell how to appease them without running the risk of eating something that is "unfair." Still there has been no noticeable falling off in the demand for bologna to decorate the free lunch counters.

Columbia Celebrates Her Birthday.

Exercises commemorating the 150th anniversary of the founding of Columbia university, King's college, began with a reception this afternoon. The trustees sent out more than 14,000 invitations to living alumni and several thousand others to prominent persons throughout the city and country. The trustees received their guests in the rotunda of the library, and the professors and instructors acted as guides to and in the various departments. Most of the departments served tea. The department of engineering gave a dinner tonight to the alumni of that department.

Other events will follow, but probably the most interesting will be the Yale-Columbia football game Saturday afternoon, to be followed by a smoker in the Columbia University club, to which all graduates and former students of the university are invited.

Fields Must Go to Prison.

William J. Fields, who claimed his arrest for forgery was due to the hounding of the police ever since he left Sing Sing 10 years ago, was today sentenced to prison for five years. That Fields' story was partially true was proven by a number of letters written by former employers, who testified to his honesty while in their service. But another letter was received from the American Bankers' association, saying that Fields was a dangerous character. Judge Newburger took into consideration both sides of the case in passing sentence, giving Fields but half of the maximum sentence. Usually the maximum term is given a former convict, but Fields will get off with five years, less the time he may gain by good behavior.

Sir Charles Wyndham Arrives.

The White Star steamship Baltic, which arrived today, had among her many passengers Sir Charles Wyndham and Miss Mary Moore, his leading lady, who came here for an American tour. Sir Charles, who was an officer in the Nineteenth army corps for two years during the civil war, and who has appeared before in this country, both as actor and manager, declared it was very pleasant to him to get back to this country. His company is to follow on the steamship Oceanic. They will open at the Lyceum November 14 in "David Garrick." Sir Charles will be seen in "Mrs. Gorringe's Necklace," and possibly in "The Case of Rebellious Susan," by Henry Arthur Hill.

Joke Was on Archbishop.

Clergymen of New York are discussing today a rude awakening which came to the archbishop of Canterbury on his tour of the East Side. The archbishop expressed the opinion while walking through one of the dingiest, most squalid streets, that even London's most poverty-stricken districts offer no such sights. Walking into an alleyway whose filth and odors were insufferable, the archbishop remarked earnestly:

"Would that all landlords were like my friend, Mr. Astor. There would then be no such tenements, no such filth. When I go home I shall say something about this. Who owns these tenements?"

"Mr. Astor," one of the party said.

The "Usual Crime."

To be sure, a study of lynching recently made by a Yale graduate shows that of 1,872 negroes who were lynched only 35 per cent were charged with criminal assault, but statistics like these are compiled only by ignorant northerners. The plea of "the usual crime" as an excuse for southern lynchings has long since lost its force, yet southern writers continue to exploit it, although criminal assault is "the usual crime" in hardly more than one case out of three. In the other two cases "the usual crime" may be anything from murder to speaking disrespectfully to a white man.—New York World.

The Quiet Observer.

By ERASMUS WILSON.

When you see the sign, "Keep off the grass," don't you feel all the more like jumping onto it and kicking up the sward to beat the band?

And so, when a good, meaty letter comes in bearing the sign, "Not for publication," the temptation to ignore the request, or command, is so strong that it cannot, sometimes, be resisted.

And why should a letter containing good stuff be suppressed, particularly when it touches on the old-maid topic and kissing and matrimony? These are among the most living and up-to-date topics there are.

Some folks say they are awfully tired of them, and yet it is dollars to doughnuts that these same folks would rather discuss them than any others that could be mentioned.

Wouldn't you?

Possibly you might not like to vote that way on a roll call, yet never, or at least hardly ever, let a chance slip to put in a word when any of these topics are mentioned.

Whether you say what you think, or practice what you preach, only a chosen few may ever know. It is none of the public's business what your practice is; therefore you don't have to disclose your innermost thoughts and feelings concerning kissing, courting and old maids or bachelors.

Following is the letter, with due apologies for using it contrary to instructions:

* * * * *

Dear Q. O.—This letter is not for publication, but only to say that while "Appreciator" voiced the sentiment of many of your readers, no doubt, yet there are some who, like myself, respect your personality and feel that you give the public enough of yourself without making known all the data that "Appreciator" desires.

I should perhaps except one item, and that is, a cut (if a good one) of yourself would grace the head of the Q. O. column.

Otherwise there is nothing I know of that will improve your column so long as you avoid the kissing and matrimonial questions.

Yes, I am an old maid, and proud of the fact, or rather I am contented to be so, because I believe that God has planned my life and if He sends me the duty of making and keeping our home rather than being a household queen, I am not going to fret myself because I can't prefix "Mrs." to my name.

I believe in doing one's duty wherever one is placed, and true happiness is sure to be found. Conscience will promptly show you what that duty is, and it is a trustworthy guide. I did not intend to digress so far, nor to prolong my letter. Please grant pardon and accept my best wishes for the future. MISS N. H.

* * * * *

She may be an old maid all right, but do you quite believe that she is perfectly satisfied that she is one?

Women, like men, were made to mate and to marry, and if they don't they simply miss their calling. Whether they can enjoy having missed it, and settle down to live single all their days is a question for them and not for the public.

And yet this world would seem to be incomplete without old maids and bachelors, don't you think? There is so much to be done which only they seem to be capable of doing.

Who writes so well, so entertainingly, on how to care for babies as the old maid? And what would become of the mothers' congress if it wasn't for the old maids who take an active interest in it?

The old bachelor has his hands full caring for society in general, and society buds in particular. And it is usually wise and safe to entrust them to his watch, care and keeping. Had he a family of his own he could not help his friends and neighbors with theirs. See!

Nor must we forget how many of these single-hearted ones are as they are because of a single purpose in life, which may be to care for some loved one, or to enable someone to live in peace and comfort.

Nor is it right and fair to conclude that none of these have found congenial mates, for no doubt many of them would, and some of them could, marry happily and well, were it not for something about which the public knows nothing, or has been forgotten by all save themselves.

* * * * *

The people flare up vigorously whenever kissing is the subject of conversation or theme of essay. But it is only a flare-up after all, for the best of them like it—that is, they like to read about it. As for liking the thing itself, that's different.

But this is one of the subjects upon which poets and versifiers have the call; also have license to write all they can think of about it.

To hear some folks talking about it you would think none are so poorly off in the matter of taste as to read what is written about it, whereas the facts in the case are that most people enjoy reading about it, including those who protest most loudly that it is an unfit subject.

Possibly some regard it a sort of sacred duty to read everything they find concerning it, just to keep posted, which is well, for how could they combat it if they didn't know? Some may even go so far as to indulge in the habit more or less for the same reason.

Those who are most loud and venomous against kissing, either as a recreation or an expression of fondness, are usually ready to declare that they never, no never, indulged in the vile habit.

Under the most lenient rules of testimony these are not competent witnesses, because they do not know what they are talking about. They may think they do, but how can they really know until they have tried and tested it for themselves?

What do you yourself know about it but what you have learned by experience?

There may be a few who do not know anything about it from experience, and you can't blame them, for they are unkissable; nor can you blame them much for kicking, although it is a plain case of sour grapes.

* * * * *

The matter of courtship is one that should receive more considerate attention than is being given to it in these later years, when there has been so much complaining about the failure of marriages.

Men and women who learn to know each other, and strive to understand each other, rarely make mistakes in marrying.

As a rule the mistakes are made by those who submit to the bonds of wedlock without knowing to what they are becoming wedded. Some are led into it by kisses and loving words, while others are lured to their sad fate by promises of leisure and pleasure, none of which have the necessary lasting qualities of true love.

The test by which love is tried has long been known as courtship, and the more thoroughly and carefully these tests have been applied, the more satisfactory have been the results.

Kissing and caressing do not constitute essential features of courtship. Indeed they are more apt to queer the results than not, because they are not calculated to excite calm deliberation, nor to command best judgment concerning the important matter at issue.

It is worth considering, don't you think?

Around the State

Humors of the Trolley.

Next to the aristocratic dame sat a man in the last stages of soberness. He was very boisterous and was annoying everyone in the car. The bulk of the passengers were men returning from work, or going to work, and a half-dozen ladies who were returning from a long shopping tour, as was evident by the numerous parcels they carried. Finding the majority of the passengers uninteresting, my gaze wandered back to those opposite me. As a rule men who have indulged too freely are not permitted on the street cars, but here was a drunk in the "Oh, be joyful" stage, and very anxious to get on friendly terms with his fellow voyagers. He was annoying the aristocratic-looking dame, that was evident.

As I glanced over at him he was stooping down to tie his shoe, and as he resumed as straight a position as was possible with his "jag," I heard the lady say to her daughter: "Thank goodness, the next corner is our stop. I could not sit beside that wretch another minute," and she signaled to the conductor to let her off.

The car had stopped and she had risen to leave, but to her great astonishment she could not move one of her feet. The boozy chap, in tying his shoe, had tied the lady's shoestring to his own, for hers happened to be loose, and the drunk, being busy talking to the passengers, had not noticed that he was splicing himself to her ladyship.

"Untie that at once, you miserable wretch," shrieked madam, purple with rage.

It took the conductor fully five minutes to untie the knot. To say that the passengers laughed would be putting it mildly. They went into convulsions. As the men pounded each other in the exuberance of mirth, Mr. Boozy capped the climax when he doffed his hat and offered to tie madam's shoestring.—Braddock News.

Yielding to a sudden impulse caused a Cottage hill lady considerable embarrassment on Tuesday afternoon. Her home is on the eastern end of Hoffman avenue and she reached the corner just in time to see her trolley car passing a block ahead of her. Her efforts to attract the attention of the conductor aroused the interest of the crew of the work car that was nearby, and one of the kind-hearted men suggested that she board his car and he would overtake the passenger car for her. She imagined that the ride would be of a square or two distant and, taking the hand of the well-meaning employe, she climbed to the deck of the work car, which started in pursuit of the car ahead. It was not until she had reached the corner of Stout and Harriot avenue, a distance of nearly a mile from her starting point, that the passenger car was overhauled. In the meantime her protestations to the work car men that she would rather get off and walk were taken to mean that she was unwilling to put them to the possible inconvenience, and they refused to stop.—Oil City Derrick.

With the Game Hunters.

James Wilson and Charles R. Higgins of Kennerdell are the best 'coon hunters in the country, according to a report received from that place on Tuesday morning. On Saturday night they went out and treed three raccoons on one tree. Wilson "shinned" up the trunk, threw the 'coons down and the dogs walloped them as fast as they alighted. Higgins caught one single-handed on another tree and brought it in alive, making four for the evening's hunt.—Franklin News.

While pheasant hunting in the mountains a Pottsville party, composed of Max Doerflinger, Walter Madara, George Roads and William, Robert and John Reid, surprised a large black bear. Though they had no ammunition for big game, they fought bruin with their lighter shot, rocks and clubs.

After a savage encounter, lasting more than an hour, during which several of their hounds were badly hurt by the animal, they killed him. The bear weighed 325 pounds. The party also bagged 47 pheasants and 18 squirrels.—Pottsville Cor.

Our little town was thrown into a great state of excitement on Saturday afternoon. The citizens were horrified to see a large crowd of men coming up Main street with a military air about them, one man walking ahead very proud and erect, all carrying guns. The people thought Coxey's army had recruited again. The general ring was given on the 'phone, warning the people up Main street what was coming, but on investigation it was found that the head man was Albert Dectrie with a new shot gun, chaperoning a crowd of young men on a squirrel hunt.—Fertigs Cor. Franklin News.

James Vann Ausdall returned last evening from a hunt on the Moses farm, near the city limits, and brought with him a bag of five pheasants and three gray squirrels. Rabbits are encouragingly plentiful in that section, but the dogs accompanying the hunters do not seem to understand that the season is not yet open. On Monday afternoon a pair of hounds took up the trail of several thousand young ducks at the Crystal Springs farm. The birds were naturally as much alarmed as the rabbits, but the dogs were not after poultry and followed the winding trail of bunny, and "great excitement prevailed." The few disinterested persons who witnessed the incident declared that it was most laughable after it was seen that the dogs had done no harm to the frightened birds.—Oil City Derrick.

Of Passing Interest.

A force of Pennsylvania railroad men last week razed the old grist mill at the lower end of the town of Lilly, and thus one of Cambria county's landmarks, over 100 years old, disappears to make way for railroad improvements.—Johnstown Tribune.

Th cold, stormy weather has caused a general exodus of wild geese and ducks southward, and many large flocks have been seen during the past two days winging their way to their winter homes.—Altoona Tribune.

We learn from the Johnstown Tribune that the bloodhounds secured by Sheriff Lenhart of Cambria county since the sensational robbery of the paymaster near Lilly, have stood several severe tests. "Uncle" Bill McClaren, a famous hunter, acted as "quarry," leading the hounds a devious chase into the woods, the dogs following the trail unerringly. On his return to Ebensburg, McClaren passed through the corridors of the Metropolitan hotel, trodden by many feet, but the dogs never lost the scent, tracking the hunter to the end of the run. It is probable the mere fact that the sheriff has the dogs will have an influence for good in the mountain districts.

John Smeaton thinks he is the most aggrieved man in Williamsport. He was arrested recently for attempted burglary on his own premises, and had to call the household to identify him and keep him from being hustled off to jail. Smeaton had returned at 11 o'clock on the night in question and dropped his key through a crack in the porch. He crawled under the porch and began striking matches to find the key when Patrolman Bair spied him and pulled him out by the legs.

Duty of the Hour.

A clipping from the Pittsburgh Gazette upon the congressional fight, which appears upon this page today, is well worth perusal by the Lackawanna taxpayer regardless of what his politics may be. Having abandoned all hope of electing the presidential ticket, the Democrats are bending every energy to increase their number of congressmen. Every voter who has the welfare of the country at heart should see that President Roosevelt is supported by a handsome majority of protectionists in the house, so that his administration shall not in the least be hampered by opposition that might be raised by a formidable minority.—Scranton Republican.

RENEWS CHARGES AGAINST TYNER

Instead of Vindication, the President Recites Cases of Gross Impropriety.

EVEN DIRECTED A BURGLARY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—By direction of the president, Secretary Loeb today sent to James N. Tyner, the former assistant attorney general for the postoffice department, a letter in reply to Mr. Tyner's letter, dated October 8, and made public last night. The letter is as follows:

White House.
Washington, Oct. 28, 1904.

Sir—The president has received this morning your letter dated October 8, written in answer to my letter of June 24, which you never made public, although you did make public your own letter which it answered. In your present letter you again claim that a wrong has been done you, and ask that it be righted. As you are out of office, the righting of the wrong could only be effected by your reinstatement to office, or a declaration by the president that you were innocent. The president instructs me to say to you that his memorandum to which you take exception was written when three indictments against you had been returned by the grand jury, the report of Mr. Bristow having been submitted to Messrs. Bonaparte and Conrad, and the action taken against you by the department of justice being on the recommendation of Messrs. Bonaparte and Conrad. In his memorandum the president referred to your office as follows:

"The investigation discloses a condition of gross corruption in the office of the assistant attorney general for postoffice department . . . . In the case of Assistant Attorney General Tyner (the misconduct) has gone on for a number of years, but it is impossible to say exactly when it began . . . . The three chief offenders in the government service were Tyner, Machen and Beavers. Friends of Tyner have advanced the theory that in his case the chief offender was really his nephew by marriage, Barrett, who was his assistant in his office for a part of the term and that Tyner's offenses were due to his failing bodily and mental powers. The facts set forth in Mr. Bristow's report do not tend to substantiate the validity of these excuses for Tyner, while they show literally astounding misconduct in Barrett . . . . In the office of the assistant attorney general for the postoffice department, under Tyner and Barrett, far greater wrong was inflicted upon the public than could be measured by a pecuniary standard, for in this office the corruption of the government officials took the form of favoring get-rich-quick concerns and similar swindling schemes; in other words, the criminals, whom it was the sworn duty of these government officials to prosecute, paid them for permission to fleece the public unmolested."

Justifies Severe Condemnation.

Of the criminal charges on which you were tried you have been declared innocent by a jury in a court of law, and the verdict is final as regards all citizens, including the president. There is, however, a wide difference between misconduct which is criminal and declared such by the courts, and misconduct which, though it does not render the wrong-doer liable to the criminal law, yet requires his immediate separation from the government service and justifies his severe condemnation by the general community on moral grounds. You were acquitted of conspiring with Barrett to do certain criminal deeds. You were not acquitted of doing the deeds.

That these get-rich-quick concerns which employed Mr. Barrett were improperly favored in your office seems to admit of no doubt. In the case of the Arnold turf concern, where Mr. Barrett received $6,000, a committee of the Missouri senate, which investigated the matter in March, 1903, reported as follows, after commenting upon a report of the postoffice inspectors adverse to the concern in question:

"That the ruling of the department was not in accordance with his recommendation; that from the evidence it appears that the department at Washington by some process or other unknown to your committee, overruled the recommendation of the inspector, dismissed the cases pending against these companies and they were allowed to proceed with their process of absorbing the people's money. Had the department at Washington acted promptly and properly upon the recommendation of the inspector, millions of dollars would have been saved the people of the state of Missouri and other states."

It appears that Mr. Barrett, your nephew by marriage and formerly your assistant, immediately upon leaving office under you, made his specialty of practicing before the department of which you were head in this class of cases and with a success which has seemingly enabled him to make many thousands of dollars in two years. His work prevented the issuance of or securing the cancellation of the so-called fraud orders against these concerns. Since Attorney General Robb was made attorney general for the postoffice department all these fraud orders, the issuance of which Mr. Barrett proved, or the cancellation of which he secured, have been issued, and in no case has one of them been made void by the courts. Some of the concerns had failed even before Attorney General Robb took office. The contrast between what was done under your administration and under his and the conduct of Mr. Barrett, in the president's judgment, warrant the emphatic statement that Mr. Barrett should never again be allowed to practice before the department and that your removal was positively demanded in the interest of honest and efficient government.

Takes Up Burglary Charge.

There are certain matters which could not come before the jury which, nevertheless, it was and is necessary for the president to consider when you request him to take any action looking to the rehabilitation of your character. One of these is the burglary committed by Mrs. Barrett, Mr. Barrett's mother, and by Mrs. Tyner at your direction. Mrs. Tyner came to the postoffice department, entered your private room in the office, and then admitted Mrs. Barrett and a safe expert, and the three then rifled the safe. The department of justice has never been able to know exactly what documents were at that time abstracted from the safe. The president has the right to assume that they would not have been abstracted in this manner had they not been of a character such as would gravely incriminate you and Mr. Barrett.

As regards this and all the other actions the president was at one time inclined to excuse you on the ground of your failing powers, but as you made common cause with Mr. Barrett, it was difficult to see how this excuse could be put forward. Moreover, certain other actions of yours were brought to the president's attention, which seemed to show such gross lack of the sense of official propriety on your part as to not warrant him in making a presumption in your failure. For instance, on March 29, 1902, you, writing on the paper of the office to the assistant attorney general for the postoffice department to the postmaster at Portage, Wis., asking that your daughter be retained in the Portage postoffice, wrote, in part, as follows:

"But I don't want my daughter to remain at Portage except with your full acquiescence. I can secure a transfer for her to, probably, any other office I may select. In fact, one or two such transfers are arranged for, and are held in abeyance. If she goes elsewhere the money that pays her salary will go to the office to which she shall be transferred. If she remains at Portage I shall add slightly to the salary, and, of course, secure an addition to the allowance for salaries at the office to pay the increase. The allowance to pay her present compensation is made specifically for her by name, as would any addition to the same.

Grossly Improper Request.

"I thought it proper to write you thus frankly before you take the oath of office. Up to close of department hours yesterday (Saturday) no official notice of your confirmation by the senate had been received. Therefore there is ample time to receive your reply hereto, which I have the honor to request may be given promptly.

"Hoping to know you personally in a short time, and to be able to do you official favors."

This request was a grossly improper one for a man in your position to make of a postmaster, and your letter certainly implies that favors may be given or withheld in the discretion of the man making the request. The postmaster, by the way, answered in a very frank and honorable style, declining to commit himself, and closing his letter as follows:

"I received the appointment without having made any pledges or promises, and I desire that I shall so take the oath of office."

Writing subsequently, the postmaster wrote you as follows in reference to your daughter:

"The amount of her salary and the duties performed by her must be known to every other employe in the office here; to avoid jealousies and public censure each must receive absolutely fair treatment without any favoritism. The salary which you demand for her is proportionately much larger than the other employes receive. It seems to me, therefore, that it will be better for your daughter and the service, under the circumstances, if she were transferred to the Chicago office."

Accordingly Miss Tyner was transferred and the position which she held at Portage was forthwith abolished and no appointment to the vacancy made. It appears clear, therefore, that you were keeping your daughter in the postal service simply for the sake of giving her the salary, and that when she did not occupy the position it was not deemed necessary to fill it at all, and you actually called the attention of the postmaster at Portage to this fact in order to induce him to retain your daughter, pointing out to him that, as actually happened, he would lose the appropriation for the position unless he acted as you desired. On March 22, 1902, you wrote the postmaster at Chicago, Ill., saying:

"I desire to ask the favor of you to appoint as a clerk in your office a kinswoman of mine * * * on the condition that I will furnish you the allowance necessary to pay her salary, specifying it as such allowance."

Wanted Place for Another Woman.

She was then transferred to Chicago.

On April 8 of the same year you wrote to the postmaster at Ware, Mass., requesting that he appoint one Cora Watson as a clerk in his office on condition that he was provided with an allowance to pay her salary. In this letter you, the law official of the postoffice department, deliberately instructed the postmaster to violate the law by appointing Cora Watson in the Ware postoffice, where her services were not needed, subsequent to the office having been classified. The furtiveness of your action is shown by this statement in your letter to the postmaster:

"You can do as you wish about giving out the impression that she is there as a representative of the postoffice department to assist in the establishment of free delivery. It is only frank, however, to say that she is not a postoffice expert."

It was not a bona fide appointment, but one designed improperly to get Miss Watson in the classified service. When the postmaster objected you assumed an offended tone in your letter to him of April 14, asking him why he wished so much "ceremony" and why he was so "timid" in the manner, assuring him that the appointment was proper and correct and warranted by law because you were the law advisor, not only of the postoffice department, but of the entire postal service; and yet you could not possibly have been ignorant that the transaction was an illegal one.

For the reasons above set forth the president regrets to have to state to you that he cannot comply with your request. The question of your guilt on the criminal charge on which you were tried having been passed upon by a jury, the president of course acquiesces in its finding, but the evidence seems to him overwhelming that you were guilty either of moral obliquity in the performance of your duty or of the grossest inefficiency.

Very truly yours,
WILLIAM LOEB, JR.,
Secretary to the President.

TYNER SAYS PRESIDENT MISSTATED THE FACTS

Former Postoffice Official Declares That He Was Not Given a "Square Deal."

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Gen. James N. Tyner tonight issued a statement to the public in which he affirmed that the president had misstated facts in the letter made public today. He declared that the statement that he had favored Mr. Barrett's clients was untrue and that the records showed that in about 20 instances where Mr. Barrett had presented plans of business for ruling, they were in most cases passed on by his (Tyner's) assistant, and subsequently approved by the attorney general.

The allegation that his wife had committed a "burglary" at the postoffice department, Gen. Tyner said, was "as unmanly as it is unjustified." Mrs. Tyner's visit, he said, was in office hours and was perfectly open, and she took nothing from the safe except his private papers and a batch of semi-official papers which he returned at once, and also sent the private papers to the postoffice department for examination, although they consisted of nothing except letters and gifts to his wife. He denounced as indefensible the suggestion that some incriminating papers were in the safe. In conclusion, the statement says:

Half of the president's letter is devoted to extracts from correspondence which certain postmasters relative to two appointments and comments thereon. These appointments were entirely in accordance with the law and civil service rules and my letters speak for themselves. My daughter for many years has been employed in the postal service, and both these appointees performed faithful service. I never in the least sought to force their appointment nor were the appointments made for the purpose of transfer; both remained at the offices where originally appointed for a long time.

The record of my case, so far as I am concerned, is closed. I am satisfied therewith. I was to the end faithful to the trust confided to me by my government and rendered the best service I was capable. The president has not justified his accusations against me, while I have faced a trial before a jury of my peers and been vindicated. Whatever may be the president's opinion as to the propriety of any of my acts was never in issue. I know that every act of mine was perfectly proper. The president has not seen fit to do right, to give a "square deal." It is to his detriment, not mine.

Close Call for French Ministry.

PARIS, Oct. 28.—After an exceedingly stormy debate in the chamber of deputies the government tonight escaped defeat by four votes only, and rumors are already current that Gen. Andre, the minister of war, whose administration was once the subject of the discussion, contemplates resignation.

SETH LOW A GUEST ON FOUNDER'S DAY

John Morley Has Not as Yet Announced the Title of His Address.

A NEW TRUSTEE WAS ELECTED

Seth Low, formerly president of Columbia university and recently mayor of New York, Nicholas Murray Butler, the present head of Columbia, and other distinguished guests, will sit on the platform at the Founders' day exercises at the Carnegie institute next Thursday with John Morley. Final arrangements for the program were made at a meeting of the board of trustees yesterday morning. George T. Oliver was elected a member of the board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John G. Holmes.

Mr. Morley has not as yet supplied the title of his address, but it is known that his discourse will deal with international liberalism, its power and destiny in the world's affairs, what it has done toward enlarging the political and intellectual liberties of man everywhere and what it is expected to do in promoting the progress and peace of the world.

The address on "Art Progress in America," which will be delivered by Edmund Aman-Jean, the French portrait painter who was a member of the art jury, will not be translated on the platform by Mme. Aman-Jean, as was at first proposed. Mme. Aman-Jean declared that a large proportion of the audience would understand her husband's address in the original tongue and that it would deprive many persons of the intellectual pleasure of making their own interpretation if she were to attempt to do it for them. An English translation of M. Aman-Jean's address will be supplied to the newspapers.

The tickets for reserved seats have nearly all been issued. The demand for admission this year was unprecedented, and Mr. Morley will be honored by one of the most distinguished audiences that ever gathered in Pittsburgh. Emil Paur will also have a seat upon the platform.

A meeting of the trustees will be held at the institute at 2 o'clock this afternoon to examine the successful plans for the new technical schools which were prepared by Palmer & Hornbostel. After the trustees have seen the plans they will be called together at an early date to pass upon the contract with the architects.

Attorney Hogg Laid to Rest.

UNIONTOWN, PA., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Funeral services over the body of Attorney W. A. Hogg were held this morning at St. Peter's Episcopal church, in charge of the Rev. D. L. Ferris of Calvary church, Pittsburgh. The Fayette County Bar association attended in a body. The pall bearers were Supreme Court Justice S. L. Mestrezat, Judge R. E. Umbel, Judge E. H. Reppert, ex-Judge Nathaniel Ewing, J. C. Work, D. W. McDonald, W. J. Johnson and George T. Griffin. The body was taken to Pittsburgh for interment in Allegheny cemetery, and the funeral party went in a special car attached to the Baltimore & Ohio train leaving Uniontown at 10:07 a. m.

Small Boys Sent Home.

Earl Bartley, Wesley Mellon and John Byerly, aged about 11, were at the East End police station yesterday morning, charged with entering and robbing the home of Mrs. Caroline Coleman of 7117 Race street. Owing to their youth they were turned over to their parents and taken home. Mrs. Coleman lost two rings and a dollar or two in change.

CONTEST IS WARM IN SEVENTEENTH

Lively Times Are Expected at Tonight's Primaries to Choose Leslie's Successor.

CITY CHAIRMAN FOR LENNOX

Republicans in the Seventeenth ward are looking forward to a lively contest at the primary election this evening. A candidate will be nominated for the seat in select council vacated by A. H. Leslie, now superintendent of the workhouse.

The candidates are Snowden G. Lennox, a real estate dealer, and E. M. Grove, an official of the McConway & Torley company. Lennox is backed by Max G. Leslie, chairman of the Republican city committee. Both men were named at the Republican suggestion meeting held last Saturday.

It was reported that J. Denny O'Neil, the county recorder, despairing of any hope of winning the Republican nomination for recorder next June, is thinking of trying to secure the nomination for mayor of McKeesport. Mr. O'Neil said yesterday he did not know that he would like to be McKeesport's mayor, but that at any rate he would try to get the Republican nomination for his present office.

"Joe" Vitchestain's Young Men's Republican club of Allegheny county is billed to hold a meeting in the common council chamber this afternoon.

The Republican county committee will have a meeting on the Saturday afternoon preceding the election, and as Senator P. C. Knox will be here on that day to address a meeting to be held in Old City hall he will be invited to attend the committee meeting to meet the members.

Nearly 2,500 persons filled White's opera house at McKeesport last evening to hear John Dalzell, State Senator John S. Fisher of Indiana county; W. H. Coleman, and S. B. Oliver of McKeesport.

James Francis Burke, William M. Benham and Albert J. Edwards were the speakers at a mass meeting of Republicans at the Woolslayer school house in the Sixteenth ward. Dr. A. J. Barchfeld, Josiah Cohen, John W. Moreland and others spoke in the Allentown Turner hall. Republican meetings were held in Thompson's run school house, Mifflin township, in Grange hall, Hite station, and in Hansen's hall, Miller and East streets, Allegheny.

The James Francis Burke club, the Eleventh ward marching club and other uniformed organizations will parade this evening prior to a meeting in the Margaretta street school house. Meetings will be held in Eank hall, Duquesne; Zimmerman's hall, Thirty-fifth ward, and Semmen's auditorium, Turtle Creek, and Hoehl hall, Pitcairn.

Marching Club in a Riot.

Aspinwall was the scene of a political riot last evening. Some days ago an Aspinwall Boys' Republican club marched to Sharpsburg and got rough treatment. Last evening a Sharpsburg club marched to Aspinwall and the compliment was returned. A battle started and the fight lasted for almost a half hour before the mob was dispersed by the police. Two Sharpsburg boys were arrested and later released.

THE DEATH ROLL

Abner W. Bedell.

Abner Washington Bedell, aged 83, of West Elizabeth, is dead at his home from pneumonia. He was a son of Andrew Bedell, one of the earliest settlers of the Monongahela valley. In 1884 he retired from active life. Mr. Bedell was a lifelong Democrat. He was a member of Stephen Bayard lodge, F. and A. M. He was married 58 years ago to Miss Rebecca Abner, who with the following children survives him: Mrs. Amanda Lytle, Finleyville; Mrs. John Newton, West Elizabeth; Mrs. Mary Cochran of Cochrans Mills; Mrs. Agnes Shepler, California, Pa., and Mrs. Emma Moffett of Waynesburg, Pa. He is also survived by a brother, William Bedell of Jefferson township, and two sisters, Mrs. Amanda McKown, Elizabeth, and Mrs. Sarah Rhodes, Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Rachel Nixon Murphy.

Mrs. Rachel Nixon Murphy, aged 77, widow of Samuel Murphy, died yesterday morning at her home, 1128 River avenue, Allegheny, where she went as a bride 57 years ago. She was a native of Indiana county and removed to Allegheny shortly after her marriage. She was a member of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, Allegheny, and is survived by six children—Samuel H., Charles E., Edward S., A. L., Ellsworth Murphy, building inspector of Allegheny, and Mrs. J. A. McConnell; also by a brother, Samuel Nixon of Salina, Pa., and a sister, Mrs. Lear of Blairsville, Pa. Funeral services will be held at her late home at 2 p. m. tomorrow.

Mrs. Harry B. Ruch.

Mrs. Mary Lyons Ruch, wife of Harry B. Ruch, died at her home, 6632 Dalzell place, early yesterday morning. Mrs. Ruch, who was the daughter of Catherine and the late Andrew Lyons, was married on July 13 of last year. She is survived by her husband, mother and the following brothers and sisters: W. B., J. R., J. L., L. W., S. C. W. Lyons, Pittsburgh; Eugene, Warren, Pa.; James A., Fairmount, W. Va.; Mrs. Henry Butterfield, Pittsburgh, and Mrs. W. E. Kier, Aspinwall.

Cornelius Shields.

Cornelius Shields, general manager of the Lake Superior Corporation, died suddenly at Sault Ste Marie, Mich., yesterday. Previous to the collapse of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company Mr. Shields had been its general manager for about six months. He went to Sault Ste Marie from New York, where he was manager for the Dominion Iron and Steel Company. After the reorganization of the Lake Superior Company Mr. Shields was made general manager. He is survived by his widow and six children.

John Martin.

John Martin, aged 68, is dead at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Knoll, of 410 Penney avenue, McKeesport, from heart trouble. He was born in Germany and came to this country in 1865. He was McKeesport's pioneer baker. He was a member of the German Evangelical Protestant church.

INDUSTRIAL PROGRESS IS FRUIT OF REPUBLICANISM

Senator Fairbanks Warns an Immense Audience at St. Louis Against Adopting Policies Which Retard National Progress.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 28.—Senator Charles W. Fairbanks arrived here tonight and addressed an immense audience. Senator Fairbanks spoke in part as follows:

We find assembled at the Louisiana Purchase exposition the fruits of the genius, the energy and the enterprise of all nations. We learn here of the progress of the human race in the manifold avenues of human activity. It is fitting, indeed, that a great historic event, so far-reaching in its effect upon the welfare of the United States, should be celebrated by the peoples of all countries.

The exposition records the highest point reached in the world's progress. It marks the highest development of the people of the United States in all the vast field of their endeavor. Great as have been our past achievements, greater victories await us in the future, if we but hold fast to the great policies under which we made such marvelous progress. The policies of the Republican party stimulate the activities of our people, and much of the advance in manufactures, and much of the industrial progress which we witness in this great exposition are the fruit of Republican policies.

We find about us upon every hand evidences of prosperity, progress and development. We should beware that we adopt no policies which will arrest them. The nations of the world whose representatives are gathered here have no distrust of the United States. The present Republican administration is an assurance to all nations that their rights shall be respected. Our diplomacy was never more exalted than it is today. It never made more for international peace than it is making now. It is respected by all.

Our commercial and our social interests reach out into all quarters of the earth. We wish to extend our markets and we are expanding them under Republican administration more rapidly than ever in all our history.

PARKER SAYS KNOX KNEW OF BIG CONTRIBUTIONS

Candidate Make the Former Attorney General the Subject of a Speech.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

ESOPUS, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Judge Parker addressed today a delegation composed largely of farmers from Orange and Rockland counties, N. Y. The delegations arrived at Rosemount by boat. Judge Parker said:

No more satisfactory evidence of the widespread public interest in the attempt to control the election by moneys of great corporations and trusts need be looked for than that furnished by the president and his late attorney general, Knox. Knox was bidden to the presence of the president for a consultation. About what? About the iniquity of the large contributions? Contributions being made by gigantic corporations and trusts? Not at all. But rather to devise means by which the force of the statement of this commonly accepted fact could be parried. The outcome was an interview by Senator Knox. Care was taken to preface the interview with the statement that it met the approval of the president. It may be treated, therefore, as an administrative statement.

Now this long statement of Senator Knox has nothing whatever to do with the question uppermost in the public mind. Shall the creations of government, many of which pursue illegal methods, control our elections—control them by moneys belonging to their stockholders—moneys not given in the open, and charged upon the books as moneys paid for political purposes, but hidden away by false bookkeeping?

Senator Knox has been at some pains hitherto to prove that with all his learning he does not know all about the common law. It hardly seems possible, however, that he does not know the rule that allegations of the complaint not denied by the answer are thereby admitted. He does not deny—nor could he—that these contributions were made. If he could have done so, of course, he would. If he can do so now, he is invited to.

OAKLAND CITIZENS TO FIGHT ORE DUST AGAIN

About $1,000 Added to Fund. Effort to Prove Violation of Injunction.

Close to $1,000 additional was added to the fund for prosecuting the Oakland ore dust nuisance case against the Jones & Laughlin Steel Company at a meeting last evening and the committee, which has represented the Fourteenth ward citizens, was instructed to take the matter into court. As there is in existence an injunction against the operation of the furnaces in such a way as to allow the dust to settle upon Oakland property, the action will be to prove the steel company in contempt of court.

Last evening's meeting was held at the Holmes school, Oakland, and was attended by about 300 persons, most of whom were property holders. The meeting was called to order by Chairman E. R. Sullivan, who told the story of the successful litigation against the company in which he and Mrs. Sullivan were the plaintiffs. He announced that the injunction gave protection to the whole district.

Treasurer A. C. Shaw made his financial report. It showed that $3,488 83 had been received and that actual expenses had been $2,625 42, leaving a balance of about $900. The expected litigation will cost about $2,500, it was said, and of this amount $1,000 was immediately obtained from those in the audience. The rest is expected in a few days. Attorneys Patterson, Acheson & Sterrett will be retained to prove the company in contempt of court.

Speeches against the dust nuisance were made by John Dimling, James J. Booth, M. J. Ehrenfeld, C. H. Chance, W. G. Negley, Esq., and S. Groves.

Mr. Groves, who is a mechanical engineer and an authority on furnace construction, said it is possible to stop the nuisance and quoted Julian Kennedy on the subject.

The members of the committee in charge of the matter are E. R. Sullivan, W. W. Giffin, John Lowry, Robert Thompson and A. C. Shaw.

A TALE OF A BULL.

Taurine Terror Runs Amuck and Defies Quaker Pursuers for Two Hours.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28.—(Special.)—For two hours this morning all the northern part of the city was in a turmoil of excitement over the running amuck of a frenzied bull. Squads of police from two districts were sent out to assist in his capture, and much ammunition was wasted. Losing all faith in police revolvers, Charles Steelburger, a drover, procured a Winchester rifle, and began to pump lead at the animal. Emil Stechman, like everybody else, had been aroused by the racket, and looked out of the window. A mis-directed bullet punctured his cheek, and the subsequent proceedings interested him no more.

After two hours of hard work, the bull was captured.

Tube Plants' Inspection Ends.

With an inspection of the Riverside plant at Benwood, W. Va., today the officials of the National Tube Company will complete their semi-annual visit to the company's works, and will return to Pittsburgh. The inspection has shown, it is said, that the plants are in a high state of efficiency, despite the activity in that line, which has been in marked contrast with most other lines of steel manufacture.

BRYANITES DON'T WANT MR. CLEVELAND TO TALK

Cooper Union Speech Canceled Because of Opposition to Ex-President.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Political circles were alive today with gossip relative to the refusal of former President Grover Cleveland to keep his appointment for a speech at Cooper Union next Wednesday night. In cancelling the date Mr. Cleveland gave no reason except that he must make a speech in Newark next week, and could not also speak in New York.

It is said, however, that the real reason for the former president's change of mind is that there has been criticism of his participation in the campaign by the Bryan Democrats. The latter are most bitter toward Mr. Cleveland, and they charge him with being too favorable to the trusts during his administration.

The Bryanites have objected to the appearance of Mr. Cleveland on the stump for the reason that they consider his trust record is such as to counteract the anti-trust speeches of Judge Parker. The fact remains that Judge Parker himself will take Mr. Cleveland's place at the Cooper Union meeting.

WILL IGNORE THE THRUST MADE BY JUDGE PARKER

President Roosevelt Nor Chairman Cortelyou Will Make No Campaign Statements.

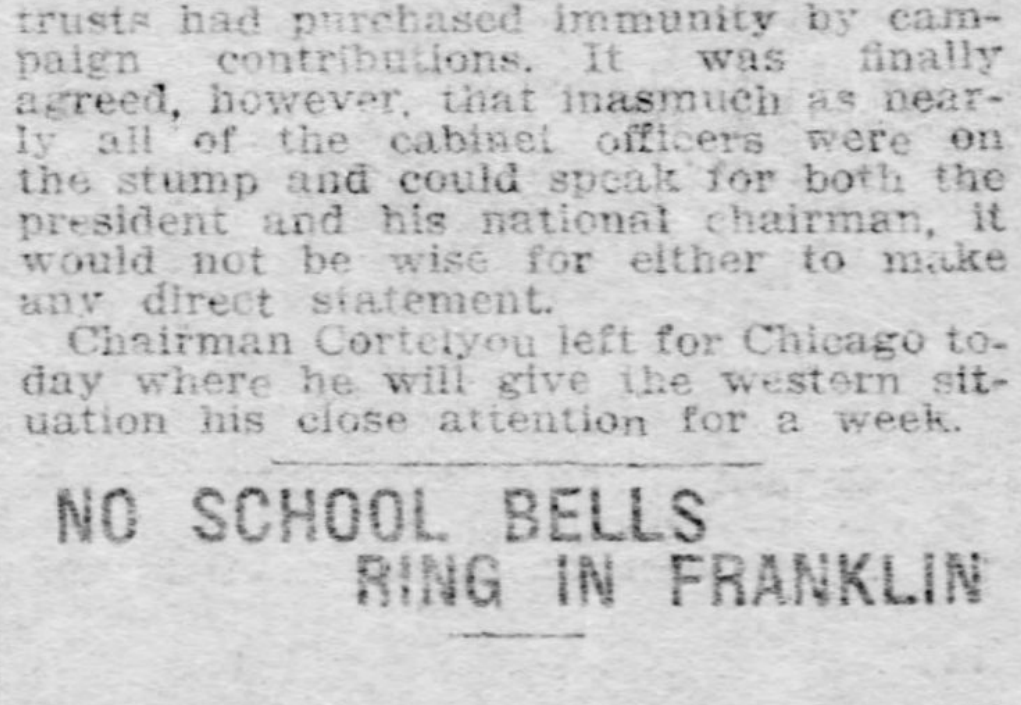
[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—As a result of a long conference last night and today between President Roosevelt and George B. Cortelyou, chairman of the Republican national committee, it has finally been decided that both shall remain silent on all political questions until the end of the campaign. Reports have been repeatedly made that he intended to write an open letter and all of these were denied in a semi-official manner at the White House today.

The president has, however, desired that Mr. Cortelyou should make some statement, especially in reply to the direct charges of Judge Parker that the trusts had purchased immunity by campaign contributions. It was finally agreed, however, that inasmuch as nearly all of the cabinet officers were on the stump and could speak for both the president and his national chairman, it would not be wise for either to make any direct statement.

Chairman Cortelyou left for Chicago today where he will give the western situation his close attention for a week.

NO SCHOOL BELLS RING IN FRANKLIN



SUPERINTENDENT KINSLEY.

FRANKLIN, Oct. 28.—(Special.)—At a recent meeting of the school board, Supt. Kinsley recommended that the ringing of the bells summoning the pupils to school be discontinued. His recommendation was accepted. The superintendent said the pupils waited until the five-minute bell rang before starting to school, and as a result arrived there after it had taken up. At one building in the city where there was no bell there was much less tardiness than at the others.

FILIPINOS NOT CITIZENS OF UNITED STATES

Decision Is Repeated Straight by Telephone from Attorney General's Office.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 28.—The registrars of voters here today twice refused to admit to suffrage J. E. Lagdameo, a Filipino student at the Yale forestry school. The second time he was accompanied by Alexander Troup, who demanded the reason for the refusal to permit the student to register.

The registrars said as Lagdameo was not native born it was necessary for him to become naturalized before he could vote. Lagdameo claimed that as the United States owns the Philippines, he was a citizen of this country.

The matter was brought to the attention of Mayor Studley, who called up the Republican national committee rooms in New York for information. He was referred to the attorney general's office in Washington. Assistant Attorney General Robb made this statement by telephone:

"The supreme court of the United States has held that a Filipino is not a citizen of the United States. Therefore, if the laws of Connecticut requires a voter to be a citizen, he must be naturalized."

WANT MORE TRAINS.

Greater Accommodations Asked of the Lake Erie.

Three hundred business men who come into Pittsburgh daily from the Monongahela valley and many others who have frequent occasion to use the Monongahela division of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, have signed a petition which has been presented to the officials of the company, asking that they put on another train to leave the city at 5:00 or 5:30 p. m., eastern time, returning some time between 11:00 a. m. and 12:00 noon the following day.

The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie Railroad Company is running only five trains each way daily over the Monongahela division, and persons who cannot arrange to take the train arriving in the city at 9:00 a. m. cannot get in before 1:50 p. m., and if they cannot go out in the evening at 4:30, they must wait until 6:20 p. m., which is the last train to go out that day.

The petition has been signed among others by Mayor Falkenstein of McKeesport, Burgess George T. Atkins of Elizabeth, Burgess A. B. Shuster of Monessen, Attorney James M. Nevin, J. Walter Hay, Thomas B. Barnes, Attorney Charles Lewis and Attorney Charles Hamilton.

MOTHER AND SON WERE FOUND ASPHYXIATED

Mrs. Anna Dix and Boy, Joseph, Were Found Dead Together in South Side Home.

Anna Dix, aged 48, of 2832 Mary street, South Side, and her son, Joseph, aged 15, were asphyxiated at their home yesterday morning from gas that escaped from the cooking stove. They were found by Anthony Dix, husband and father of the victims. The police consider the case mysterious, maintaining enough gas could not have escaped to have killed the mother and son.

The boy worked in Jones & Laughlins mills. Yesterday morning he returned home just as his father was leaving for work. The boy ate his breakfast and lay on the lounge to sleep. This is all the direct evidence the coroner has of the case. When the father came home at noon he found his wife lying on the floor and the son on the lounge.

Mrs. Adelaide Miller, who lives on the second floor of the house, said she noticed a strong odor of gas in her room about 10 o'clock. An hour later she left the house and saw that Mrs. Dix had her blinds drawn, but gave the matter no attention.

A post mortem examination was made of the body of Roxey Robinson, the colored woman who died in a mining village back of Castle Shannon, Thursday night. It was found that heart disease caused death. It was first thought the woman was poisoned.

John Stocks, aged 42, of Duquesne, died at the West Penn hospital yesterday from injuries received at the Duquesne Steel works October 20.

Frank Trot, aged 15, employed as a waterboy by the T. A. Gillespie Co., contractors, died at the West Penn hospital yesterday from injuries received by falling 40 feet into a pit. The pit was being made for the pumping engines of the Wilkinsburg Water Company. The boy lived at 3013 Cedar street.

The unknown man who fell into the flywheel pit at the Carnegie steel works, Allegheny, October 19, died early this morning. His back was broken.

INSANE MINER TRIES TO KILL BLIND WIFE

Woman's Screams Bring Neighbors, Who Overpower Maniac—May Die of Her Injuries.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, PA., Oct. 28.—Matthew Mattatall, a miner at Granville, near Coal Center, this county, became violently insane last night and attempted to kil his wife who is blind. He seized her by the arms and threw her violently to the floor and then attacked her with a chair. Failing to end her life in this manner he seized her by the throat and attempted to choke her to death. The frantic cries of the woman brought neighbors and the maniac was overpowered. He was bound and placed in the lockup.

This morning he was pronounced insane by physicians and this evening was brought to Washington and placed in the county home at Arden. He is 62 years old. His wife who is 60 years old, is in a critical condition.

MADE BET AT 6 TO 1 ON ROOSEVELT'S ELECTION

Member of New York Stock Exchange Placed $12,000 Against $2,000.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A big bet, at odds of 6 to 1 on Roosevelt, was closed in Wall street today. This is the first time since the campaign began that the odds have reached these long figures. The wager was closed between A. A. Housman & Co. of the New York stock exchange and Park C. Woods, a curb broker. Housman & Co. put up $12,000 on Roosevelt to $2,000 asked by Woods on Parker.

Parker betting men continued in scant supply. Some small lots were offered at odds of 1 to 3, but plenty of Roosevelt money was offered in big sums at 5 to 1, those who offered not caring to bother with the chicken feed Parker money.

In the curb market the backers of Higgins were asking even money today, but the Herrick men were only willing to bet 9 to 10.

PARKER IS HOPEFUL.

Says He Believes He Will Be Elected if His Supporters Do Their Best for Him.

ESOPUS, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Judge Parker today made his first public prediction as to the outcome of the election. In his speech to delegations of farmers he interpolated the following:

"I want to assure you that if we work hard enough, if we each do our part, we can win this fight. I have not felt like saying so until lately, but we are growing so rapidly that if our people do their best I do believe victory will be ours."

Waiting to Light Their Old Fire.

MONESSEN, PA., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Everything is in readiness here for the monster Republican rally tomorrow night. There will be a parade of the mill workers, coal miners and merchants in which 5,000 men are expected to take part. Following the parade W. I. Schaffer of Chester, Pa., and District Attorney Jesse E. B. Cunningham, of Greensburg, will address a meeting in the large building of the Carnegie Steel Hoop mill, where Superintendent A. B. Scott has had erected a large stage.

Consul Removed from Office.

FAIRMONT, W. VA., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—J. W. Marianna, consul for the Italian government in West Virginia, with offices at Fairmont, has been removed from office by the ambassador at Washington at the request of local Republicans, who declare that he opposed the policy of President Roosevelt and the Republican administration in an address at Monongah.

Chambers May Return to America.

The rumor has been started that James A. Chambers, formerly president of the American Window Glass Company, has been asked to return to that position. Mr. Chambers refuses to discuss window glass matters and other officials of the company could not be reached. The stockholders of the company, outside of a few who have been very active recently, have resented strongly the ousting of the president from his position, and they still insist that Mr. Chambers' knowledge of the glass business was the largest asset that the American company possessed.

Fallston Pottery Changes Hands.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—A deal was made today by which a local company became the owner of the Keswick pottery at Fallston, Pa. The plant has been idle for 18 months. At the head of the local company are John W. Hall and Thomas Worcester, experienced pottery men. The new owners will start work Monday with 1,000 operators from East Liverpool.

Asthma Can Be Cured

The statement of Mr. J. F. Homan, 20 E. Adams St., Chicago, proves that the worst cases of Asthma in the world are not only relieved, but are readily cured by Dr. Schiffmann's Asthma Cure. He says: "Asthma kept me in terrible misery for ten years until I used your Asthma Cure. After the first trial I was a changed man. I went to sleep that night and awoke next day much relieved and I have gotten entirely over the Asthma. It is now nine years since I was cured."

Mr. W. Sererus, Cavalier, N. D., says: "I was troubled with asthma for 20 years, about 8 years ago I started to use your Asthma Cure, and have not had an attack for six years."

We Offer $1,000

For a Disease Germ That Liquozone Can't Kill.

On every bottle of Liquozone we offer $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill. We do this to assure you that Liquozone does kill germs.

And it is the only way known to kill germs in the body without killing the tissues, too. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. Medicine is almost helpless in any germ disease. It is this fact which gives Liquozone its worth to humanity; a worth so great that, after testing the product for two years, through physicians and hospitals, we paid $100,000 for the American rights. And we have spent over one million dollars, in one year, to buy the first bottle and give it free to each sick one who would try it.

Acts Like Oxygen.

Liquozone is not made by compounding drugs, nor is there any alcohol in it. Its virtues are derived solely from gas—largely oxygen gas—by a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time. This process has, for more than 20 years, been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research.

The result is a liquid that does what oxygen does. It is a nerve food and blood food—the most helpful thing in the world to you. Its effects are exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying. Yet it is an absolutely certain germicide. The reason is that germs are vegetables; and Liquozone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetal matter.

Liquozone goes into the stomach, into the bowels and into the blood, to go wherever the blood goes. No germ can escape it and none can resist it. The results are inevitable, for a germ disease must end when the germs are killed. Then Liquozone, acting as a wonderful tonic, quickly restores a condition of perfect health. Diseases which have resisted medicine for years yield at once to Liquozone, and it cures diseases which medicine never cures. Half the people you meet—wherever you are—can tell you of cures that were made by it.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone attacks the germs, wherever they are. And when the germs which cause a disease are destroyed, the disease must end, and forever. That is inevitable.

ONE FULL QUART OF WHISKEY FREE

We are the Largest Mail Order Whiskey House in the South. All the North Carolina Whiskey we sell is good; there's no bad. People here wouldn't adulterate if they knew how—they are too honest! We sell more genuine old whiskey and less water than any known competitor.

"CASPER'S 11 YEAR OLD" WHISKEY IS A LIQUID JOY!

It's made by honest people here in the mountains of North Carolina, in old style copper stills, just as it was made by our grandfathers. First-rate whiskey is sold at $5.00 to $6.00 per gallon, but it's not any better than ours! It must please, or we will buy it back. We have a capital of $500,000 and our word is good. To introduce this old, honest whiskey, we offer Four Full Quarts—two sample bottles, one 15, one 18 year old—a cork screw and a drinking glass—all for $2.95. If $5.90 is sent we will double the above and put in free One Full Quart Extra. We ship in plain boxes, and Prepay all Express. Buyers west of Texas, Kansas, Nebraska and Dakotas must add 20c per quart extra.

Strongest in the World.

A great life assurance company is the soundest, most conservatively managed financial institution in the world—

It has to be—

It does business in half a hundred different States and many foreign countries—and is subject to inspection at any moment by any one of these State or National Governments—

Hence, its affairs must always be in unquestionable condition—

This is true of all great life assurance companies—It is especially true of the greatest of all—

HON. GEORGE KILBORN NASH,
Former Governor of Ohio.

GEORGE K. NASH DIES SUDDENLY

Former Governor of Ohio Drops Dead in Bathroom of Stepdaughter's Home.

FEATURES OF HIS CAREER

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

COLUMBUS. Oct. 28.—Former Gov. George K. Nash dropped dead this morning in the bath room at the home of his stepdaughter, Mrs. Worthington E. Babcock, in Jefferson avenue. Gov. Nash had been in ill health for over a year, having been stricken with heart trouble and other complications while governor of Ohio.

After Gov. Herrick assumed the duties of the office, Gov. Nash became worse, and at one time the doctors resorted to the most heroic remedies to keep him alive. To the surprise of his physicians the former governor gradually rallied and recovered to such an extent that he was able to walk down to his office and attend to business. He remained very weak, however, but continued to attend to his law business, having been at his office yesterday.

The funeral will be held next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Broad Street Presbyterean church, the Rev. S. P. Palmer officiating. The services will be public. The burial at Greenlawn cemetery will be private.

Gov. Herrick tonight issued a proclamation in which he pays a high tribute to the life, character and public services of former Governor Nash, and directs that as a mark of respect the flag on the State capitol be floated at half-mast until after the obsequies.

Story of Nash's Career.

The story of the career of George Kilborn Nash follows the lines of many of the famous men his state has borne—early life spent on a farm, the meager education of a district school, broken by the sectional strife that threatened to rend the union, the broken ties taken up again, a struggle for education and preparation for the work of life, admission to the bar and then a career in politics. It is the story of Garfield, Hayes, McKinley—a number of men Ohio has produced.

Mr. Nash was born in York, Medina county, O., on August 14, 1842. His early life was spent on his father's farm and his education was such as the district schools afforded. At the age of 22 he entered Oberlin college, but abandoned his studies in response to the call for troops during the civil war and enlisted in the One Hundred and Fiftieth regiment, Ohio volunteer infantry.

Admitted to Bar.

In 1865 he began the study of law, was admitted to the bar in 1867, and went to Columbus, O., for the practice of his profession.

Gov. Nash's first venture in politics was in 1867 when, by reason of his friendship with Don Piatt, then a member of the legislature, he was elected enrolling clerk of the house of representatives. Two years later he was appointed chief clerk in the secretary of state's office. In 1870 he was nominated on the Republican ticket for prosecuting attorney of Franklin county, then Democratic by 1,500 votes. Young Nash, alone of the Republican candidates, was elected and again, two years later, was elected by an increased plurality, although all the other Republican candidates were defeated. During his service as prosecuting attorney he instituted many reforms in the interest of economy. In 1877 the Republican state convention nominated Nash for attorney general, on the ticket with W. H. West of Bellefontaine, candidate for the governorship. The Republican ticket was defeated, but Nash led all the other candidates by from 2,323 to 9,718 votes. In 1879, with the late Charles Foster at the head of the ticket, Nash was elected attorney general and served two terms.

His Argument Widely Accepted.

In April, 1885, Gov. Foster appointed him a member of the supreme court commission and the principles laid down by him in his argument of the famous case brought to prevent the construction of two parallel lines of railroad, the Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati & Indianapolis and the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, have been widely accepted and followed in other states. The supreme court commission was co-ordinate with and had the same jurisdiction as the supreme court of Ohio and provided as a means to assist that court in expediting decisions in the large amount of cases that had accumulated on the supreme court docket.

Gov. Nash served four times as chairman of the state executive committee and managed the famous Garfield campaign. It has always been conceded that Garfield owed his success in Ohio to the shrewd conduct of his campaign by Chairman Nash. In 1892 he was a delegate to the Republican national convention at Minneapolis, supporting Mr. McKinley for the nomination.

Twice Elected Governor.

Nash was elected governor of the state in 1899 by a plurality of approximately 50,000, over John R. McLean. Two years later he was re-elected over Col. James Kilbourne, by a plurality 20,000 larger. His health was broken down during his second term, but he never failed to give his state more hours each day than the average laborer gives his employer.

Judge Nash had always taken a deep and active interest in all matters that contributed to the advancement and growth of his city and state. He was a self-made man, and well equipped in the knowledge of his profession, and as a citizen, lawyer and jurist, commanded the respect of all.

Agents of Sunny Side Society Are Charged With Soliciting Money Fraudulently.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—In a raid on the offices of a charitable organization known as the Sunny Side society, the police today arrested Violet F. Shorbondy, the Chicago representative of the organization. The woman was charged with obtaining money by false representations.

The police are now searching for 15 women assistants who are said to have sold the society's publication, "Sunny Side," and to have solicited alms in the downtown district. The society claims to work among the poor children of the slums of great cities.

ADMISSION FEE TO HOME INCREASED

United Presbyterian Women's Association Takes Important Action at Annual Meeting.

NEW OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR

The United Presbyterian Women's association yesterday held its 26th annual meeting in the Fourth United Presbyterian church, Allegheny. Important features were the election of officers and managers for the three institutions conducted under the auspices and supported by the association, rasing the admission fee to the Home for the Aged, and deciding certain details regarding the construction of the proposed new wing to the home.

At the close of devotional exercises the women went to attend the funeral of W. P. Price, who was a contributor to the work of the association, his wife having served on the board of managers of the Memorial hospital. On their return at 11 o'clock they continued the work planned for the day.

The report for the Home for the Aged showed nine men and 45 women in the institution. On the recommendation of the board of managers the association raised the entrance fee from $200 to $300 for individuals and made it $500 for couples. Bids have not been taken yet for the erection of the new wing to the home, which will cost from $20,000 to $25,000. It will be of brick, 39x78 feet in dimensions, and will have a piazza 40 feet in length, but not connecting with the piazza on the main building.

Caring for Little Ones.

During the past year 106 children have been cared for in the Orphans' Home and at present there are 46 in the institution and several waiting for admission. The managers of the Memorial hospital reported the laying of the corner stone of the new hospital in Wilkinsburg on Tuesday. It is expected the hospital will be finished next spring and it is estimated it will cost between $130,000 and $140,000.

The treasurer, Mrs. M. J. Steele, in her annual report showed a balance in the treasury of $4,792 88. There was a balance a year ago of $2,374 49; the receipts were $11,444 90 and the disbursements $9,026 49. The financial report for the Orphans' Home showed a balance a year ago of $1,118 08; receipts, $7,274 41; disbursements, $7,801 54, leaving a balance now of $583 95. The report for the Memorial hospital showed a balance November 1, 1903, of $509 15; receipts during the year, $3,549 37; disbursements, $3,652 26, leaving a balance of $406 26. The yearly report for the Home for the Aged gave a balance November 1, 1903, of $774 11; receipts, $7,526 63; disbursements, $7,327 71; balance on hand October 28, 1904, $973 03.

The association yesterday decided to hold a reception within the next few weeks. The elections resulted as follows:

OFFICIAL—ALLEGHENY.

Office of City Clerks.
City of Allegheny, Pa., October 21, 1904.

Notice is hereby given that the following ordinance was presented at a meeting of common council of the city of Allegheny, on the 20th day of October, 1904, and was referred to committee on public works.

ROBERT DILWORTH, City Clerk.

AN ORDINANCE—Authorizing and ordering the grading of Falck avenue, Eleventh ward, from west side of California avenue to west side of Wyoming street, and providing for assessment and collection of the cost and expense thereof.

Section 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the select and common councils of the city of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, That the grading of Falck avenue, Eleventh ward, from west side of California avenue to west side of Wyoming street, is hereby authorized and ordered, and the director of the department of public works is hereby instructed to prepare specifications therefor, and the mayor and the said director are authorized to advertise for proposals for doing said work in accordance with such specifications, and award the contract therefor, according to the provisions of the acts of assembly in such cases made and provided.

The cost and expense of said improvement to be assessed and collected in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania pertaining thereto and regulating the same.

Sec. 2. That so much of any ordinance as may conflict with or be supplied by the foregoing, be and the same is hereby repealed.

(No. 305.)

AN ORDINANCE—Authorizing and ordering the regrading and repaving of South Canal street, Fourth ward, from Chestnut street to Sycamore street, and providing for the payment of the cost thereof.

Section 1—Be it ordained and enacted by the select and common councils of the city of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, That the re-grading and repaving of South Canal street, Fourth ward, from Chestnut street to Sycamore street, is hereby authorized and ordered, and the director of the department of public works is hereby instructed to prepare specifications therefor, and the mayor and the said director are authorized to advertise for proposals for doing said work in accordance with such specifications, and award the contract therefore according to the provisions of the Acts of Assembly in such cases made and provided.

Section 2—When said re-grading and re-paving is completed, the cost and expense thereof shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of "Street Improvement Bonds."

Section 3—That so much of any ordinance as may conflict with or be supplied by the foregoing, be and the same is hereby repealed.

FIRE DESTROYS PLANING MILL

River Coal Company's Plant at Brown Station Burned This Morning.

IMROVISED FIRE BOAT

Fire destroyed the planing mill and badly damaged the lumber yards and docks of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company at Brown station early this morning. The plant is on the Monongahela river bank, almost opposite Homestead, and was formerly owned by Capt. Samuel S. Brown. The loss caused by the flames is estimated at about $30,000.

The fire was discovered shortly before 1 o'clock, and aid was asked of the Pittsburgh bureau of fire. Engine company No. 13 of Hazelwood was notified to go to the scene, but the firemen were unable to get far beyond the Glenwood bridge. The firemen also discovered there was no fire plug within 300 yards of the blaze. The volunteer fire companies of Braddock were also called upon, and their apparatus was taken to the scene of the fire on flat cars by the Pittsburgh Railways Company.

The local fire bureau, on being notified of the failure of the Hazelwood company to reach the scene of the fire, communicated with the River Coal Company and arrangements were made to take the Hazelwood apparatus to the scene by water. At 2:30 o'clock, when the planing mill had about been consumed and the flames had spread to the lumber yard, the towboat Twilight was secured at its landing at South Ninth street. It started up the Monongahela river and was reported passing through lock No. 1 shortly before 3 o'clock.

The Twilight officers were instructed to go to the Hazelwood float at the foot of Hazelwood avenue and take the fire apparatus of the Hazelwood company on board.

Officials of the River Coal Company were called from their homes by telephone and all went to the fire. It was reported from Brown station that there was little hope of saving any part of the lumber yards or docks. Arrangements were made to pump water from the river.

WILL MINE CANNEL COAL.

Alleghenians Are Interested in a Mercer County Mine That Produces This Fuel.

A charter was granted at Dover, Del., yesterday to the Crystal Lock Coal and Clay Company of Allegheny, which is developing a tract of 300 acres in Mercer county, near Sandy Lake, belonging to the Sarah B. Clark estate. In addition to a vein of soft coal, obtained by drifting at a depth of 50 feet, there is a vein of cannel coal, from six to eight feet thick, 30 feet deeper. It is proposed to work this as soon as possible, as cannel coal is a rarity in this section. A six-foot vein of fine clay lies between the two veins of coal.

The president of the company is Dr. T. C. Van Kirk of Allegheny, and E. R. McTyre of Sandy Lake is secretary. The other incorporators are A. H. Cook and W. H. Randolph of Allegheny, and W. P. Ware of Washington, Pa. The company's capital stock is $100,000. Work has been in progress for some time on the land and the operation of the mine is expected to start next month.

WANT STATION TO REMAIN.

Brushton Residents Are Formally Protesting Against Proposed Plan of P. R. R.

About 25 or 30 of the leading business men of Brushton at a meeting at the Bank of Brushton last evening arranged for a public meeting to protest against the proposed action of the Pennsylvania railroad discontinuing the station at that place. The meeting will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Bennett street school house, and it is expected to prove a representative turnout of all citizens of the Thirty-seventh ward.

Petitions have already been circulated to be sent to the officials of the road asking that the station be continued. Dean Clark, cashier of the Bank of Brushton, was chairman of last evening's meeting and F. R. Coe secretary.

Are After the Butchers.

Agents of the pure food commission went through the Allegheny market yesterday afternoon buying samples of sausage from all meat dealers. It is their purpose to prosecute all those using preservatives in their goods. The butchers have agreed to fight prosecutions, as they declare any foreign matter used by them is not injurious.

Y. M. C. A. ANNIVERSARY.

Oliver McClintock, First Pittsburgh President of Local Branch, Will Preside at Celebration.

The fiftieth anniversary of the Young Men's Christian association will be celebrated on Sunday, November 13. In the morning exercises by local members will take place in the Shadyside Presbyterian church. Oliver McClintock, who was the first president of the present organization after its inception in 1866, will preside. Addresses will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Samuel T. Lowrie of Philadelphia and the Rev. William E. Hunt of Coshocton, O., both of whom were prominent in Y. M. C. A. work in the early days of its existence. They were classmates at the Western Theological seminary 50 years ago. H. Kirke Porter, who was president of the organization from 1866 until 1887, also will deliver an address. The Rev. Dr. M. B. Riddle will offer prayer.

Oliver McClintock.

The night meeting will be held at the Nixon theater, and William T. Lyon, president of the association, will preside. An address will be delivered by James H. Eckels of Chicago, who was comptroller of currency during President Cleveland's second administration.

Y. M. C. A. ENTERTAINED.

First of the Winter Series of Entertainments Given in Old City Hall to Large Audience.

The first of the annual series of entertainments provided by the Young Men's Christian association was given in Old City hall last night by the Campanari company, who furnished a classic and artistic program, well rendered, and highly appreciated by a very large audience that occupied the full seating capacity of the hall.

The program consisted of baritone solos by Signor Campanari, soprano solos by Mme. Ruby Cutter Savage, and violin solos by Miss Dorothy Hoyle. Ward Stephens, pianist, acted as accompanist and also offered pianoforte solo selections.

The entertainments will continue on the last Friday night of each month, concluding on March 24. The next entertainment will be Friday night, November 25, when Bishop C. C. McCabe will lecture on "The Bright Side of Life in Libby Prison."

Archbishop Elder Dying.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 28.—Archbishop William Henry Elder was taken suddenly sick today, and has been sinking so rapidly that the communion and last sacraments were administered shortly before midnight. It is thought that the archbishop, who is in his 86th year, will not survive the night. Prayers in the Catholic churches today have been asked.

Blames Husband for Fire.

Mrs. Annie Dunn of 2536 Fifth avenue had her husband arrested yesterday. Shortly after 10 o'clock engine company No. 22 was called to the Dunn house to extinguish a blaze, which caused about $20 damage. Mrs. Dunn alleges her husband, who owns the house, went home while intoxicated and upset a lamp in the parlor and the fire resulted.

Bold Hold-Up in Homestead.

John Yenko, a Homestead Slav, reported to the police of that borough that he had been held up and robbed of $12 in an alley near the Union depot by two men. Yenko was found covered with blood by an officer. He stated he was going to the Union depot when he was knocked down and robbed.

BISHOP TURNER DODGED ISSUE

Left Town Last Evening and Did Not Meet Bethel Congregation at the Church.

SPLIT IN CHURCH HAS COME

Bishop H. M. Turner dodged the issue last night and left a great crowd of disappointed negroes standing about the Bethel church, Wylie avenue and Elm street, awaiting the opening of the doors that the bishop might meet them in a congregational meeting. The fight has just begun.

Four hundred members of the Bethel congregation will leave that church today and tomorrow will hold services in a vacant building in Kirkpatrick street, or else in the old Cumberland Presbyterian church in Wylie avenue. The Rev. I. S. Lee will act as their pastor. The result of this will be the practical disruption of Bethel church and a demand for a council of bishops to hear the charges which the friends of Mr. Lee are making against Bishop W. P. Derrick of this district.

The new church organization will elect Mr. Lee as its pastor and he states that he will be suspended from the African Methodist Episcopal church. He may continue to serve as pastor of the new congregation and the members of it will still be recognized as members of the denomination. Mr. Lee may serve them until the next general conference of the church, four years hence, but it is believed this matter will be settled long before that.

Bishop Turner had arranged to meet with the members of the church last evening in the Wylie Avenue building. The Rev. W. S. Lowry, by command of Bishop Derrick, announced there would be no meeting, and when the crowd gathered last evening it found the doors locked. Thursday evening Bishop Turner met with the new pastor, Bishop Derrick and members of the official board. The new regime refused to listen to Bishop Turner's suggestions in the interest of harmony and peace, and he took his hat and left the meeting.

Those acquainted with the laws of the church say that Bishop Turner, in leaving town so unexpectedly, did the thing which is best calculated to bring the matter to a speedy conclusion. The breaking away of the largest church in the Third Episcopal district will force the other bishops to take a hand in the matter and bring about an investigation, which will be as much into the affairs of the church as it will be into the present trouble.

The Rev. Mr. Lee claims the funds of the church have been mismanaged and for 40 years there has not been an audit of the books or of the great Avery fund, from which the church derives several thousand dollars a year of its income. One of the features which will be looked into is the management of the Lincoln Cemetery association. The church owned 85 shares of the 225 shares of this association. The city paid the association $15,000 for cutting Bedford avenue through the cemetery property, and then a whole block of the property fronting Bedford avenue was sold. In spite of this, Mr. Lee says, in the 40 years the church has held its 85 shares of stock not a cent of income has ever found its way into the church treasury.

It is claimed that investigation into these matters and the demand for an audit of the affairs of the cemetery company, is what started the trouble for Mr. Lee. These matters will all be threshed out before the expected council of bishops.

NOT AGAINST BROOKS LAW.

Pennsylvania State Hotel Association Misrepresented by a Liquor Dealers' Weekly.

CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, PA., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—The Pennsylvania State Hotel association was in session here today at the Hotel Rider and adjourned to meet next year at Philadelphia. One of the most important subjects under discussion was the misrepresentation of the aims and objects of the association on the part of a liquor dealers' weekly. The association wishes to go on record as in no way opposed to the Brooks law and neither does it favor an excise commission.

A committee of five was appointed to extend to the wife and family of P. A. Johns of Uniontown resolutions upon the accident that befell Mr. Johns yesterday at Youngstown. The secretary's salary was fixed this afternoon.

Warships Finish Coaling.

VIGO, SPAIN, Oct. 28.—The Russian warships here finished coaling today, but no preparations for their departure are visible. It is reported that Admiral Rojestvensky has received an important cipher message from St. Petersburg.

ELFIE FAY WILL BE MEMBER OF NEW TRAVESTY COMPANY

ELFIE FAY.

Elfie Fay, who has had a prominent place in the cast of many successful musical attractions and extravaganzas, has been engaged by Manager Harry Davis as comedienne in his new travesty company, which will open at the Avenue theater on Monday, November 7. She will come to Pittsburgh next week to begin rehearsals for her debut in the new organization.

MANY INTERESTING TOPICS.

Pittsburgh Congregational Church Association Held Several Sessions at Rochester.

ROCHESTER, PA., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—The Pittsburgh association of Congregational churches and ministers met at the First Congregational church here last night and today. The Rev. J. Ferguson Jones, Ph.D., of Ebensburg, officiated as moderator. Today devotional exercises were led by E. D. Cawley of Allegheny. After the business of the convention was transacted a prayer and praise service was conducted by D. Lloyd Jones of Pittsburgh. At the afternoon session the Rev. Lloyd Jenkins of Ebensburg led devotional exercises. A paper was read by the Rev. B. G. Newton of Pittsburgh, on "The Demands for New Methods in Sunday School Work," followed by a general discussion. Addresses were made by the Rev. Thomas Addenbrook of Braddock, on "If I Were a Preacher," and by the Rev. Marsh of Pittsburgh, on "If I Were a Layman." The Rev. W. C. Jones of Homestead had charge of the devotional exercises at the closing session this evening. The Rev. W. F. Shade of Braddock made an address on the "Coming Church." The sermon was preached by the Rev. L. H. Ruge of Allegheny.

TAFT TELLS OF COST.

Secretary of War Explains How Judge Parker Got His Figures on the Philippines.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Secretary Taft, in speaking at a Republican rally of this season tonight, referred to the fact that two residents of this city had been identified with the work of the government in the Philippines, Gen. Otis, who was connected with the work in its formative stages, and Bishop Hendrick, who presides over one of the most important dioceses in the islands.

He went into the cost of the American occupation of the Philippines in detail, first explaining how Edward Atkinson had obtained the figures which have been used by Judge Parker. "The total cost of the islands to this government," he said, "is $204,000,000 and the cost at the present time is between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 a year."

VESSEL NEEDED NO TUG.

Big Ore Carrier Reached Dock at Lorain Without Any Outside Assistance.

LORAIN, O., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Drawing 18 feet 3 inches water, the monster steamer Augustus B. Wolvin, laden with 10,000 tons of ore, performed the remarkable feat of going to the blast furnace docks today, 4½ miles from the mouth of the harbor, without the aid of a tug.

There is a report that a $7,000 wager exists between Capt. Ray and the Great Lakes Towing Company concerning the Wolvin reaching the blast furnace docks without the aid of tugs. Capt. Ray denies its existence.

TWO CHURCHES TO BE DEDICATED

Corner Stone Laying, Anniversaries and Other Celebrations Scheduled for Tomorrow.

EAST END TEMPERANCE RALLY

Elaborate dedicatory services will be observed tomorrow morning, afternoon and evening in connection with the dedication of the Hungarian Reformed church of Munhall, Tenth avenue and Dickson street. The morning and evening service will be in Hungarian, under the direction of the pastor, the Rev. Alexander Harsanyi, and in which 35 societies will participate. In the afternoon the service will be in English, under the direction of the Rev. Dr. John H. Prugh, assisted by the Revs. D. A. Souders of Irwin and A. Collison of Homestead.

Johnson Avenue Baptist church of Hazelwood will be dedicated tomorrow. The Rev. Dr. A. J. Maxwell of McKeesport will preach the dedicatory sermon in the morning. In the afternoon a platform service will be conducted by visiting clergymen, while the evening service will be conducted by the Rev. J. T. Davis of McKeesport.

The cornerstone of West View Mission A. M. E. Zion church, West View avenue, Allegheny, will be laid tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Colored Odd Fellows will officiate.

The third annual entertainment of the Orphans' Relief association will be held tomorrow evening in St. Paul's orphan asylum, Idlewood.

The tenth anniversary of the Lutheran Mission and Church Extension society of Western Pennsylvania will be observed tomorrow evening in the First English Lutheran church, Grant street.

Reformation day will be observed in all Lutheran congregations tomorrow.

Special services will be held tomorrow evening in the Bellevue Christian church, when the pastor, the Rev. Alfred W. Place, will deliver an address on the recent Christian church convention held in St. Louis, and will illustrate his talk with stereopticon views taken during the convention. The new church organ will be dedicated at the same time and a special musical program given by Organist L. Stanley Moorehead.

Prison Sunday will be observed in many churches tomorrow. Recently the Prison society issued circulars to clergymen of all denominations, asking them to set aside the last Sunday in October in which to talk to their congregations on the prevention of crime and the methods of dealing with discharged criminals.

Francis Murphy, the temperance apostle, will conduct an anniversary meeting in the First Methodist Protestant church, Aiken avenue and Howe street, tomorrow evening. This meeting is to commemorate the first gospel temperance work of Mr. Murphy, which was conducted in the presence of the same congregation on November 26, 1876, when the church was located on lower Fifth avenue. The Rev. Dr. J. J. Murray, who is at present acting as temporary pastor of the congregation, was pastor during the original meeting. Following the service Mr. Murphy goes to Johnstown, Pa., to visit his sons, and from there returns to his present field in Los Angeles, Cal.

The Rev. Dr. James Mechem, the newly-appointed presiding elder of the Pittsburgh district of the Methodist Episcopal church, will occupy the pulpit of the West End Methodist Episcopal church tomorrow evening.

The Rev. Dr. Aiken, a returned missionary from Siam, will speak in the Sixth Presbyterian church, Forbes and Murray streets, tomorrow evening.

The Bible class of the congregation Rodeph Shalom will hold its first meeting of the winter season in the Eighth street temple this morning at 11 o'clock.

The Rev. Dr. David Gregg, president of the Western Theological seminary, will speak to young men in the East Liberty branch of the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon.

"A musical art gallery" is the designation given for a new plan to introduce the writers and the music of noted hymns preceding the service in the Bijou theater tomorrow.

The nineteenth annual rally of the young people's branch of the missionary societies of Allegheny and Pittsburgh will be observed this morning and afternoon in the East Liberty Presbyterian church.

Special services have been arranged for the Church of the Ascension, Shadyside, tomorrow. The choir will be augmented by the presence of Madame Keil, who will sing with Miss Ruth Hay, Mendelssohn's duet, "I waited for the Lord," as the offertory number. Throughout the morning service Mr. Napier will be assisted in the accompaniments by the following instrumentalists: Messrs. Borland and Handzlick, cornets; W. Minto, trombone; Jean de Backer, baritone, and Max Vater, tympani. The evening service will comprise Wheeldon's Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis in A; "By the Waters of Babylon," Coleridge-Taylor, and Costa's "I Will Extol Thee," sung by Madame Keil.

Brilliant Cut-Off Will Be Put Into Service Today

Superintendent S. C. Long of the Pennsylvania railroad issued a circular yesterday announcing that the Brilliant cut-off will be put into service today at noon. All the local officials and some high officials will be present to witness the inauguration of the new line. For the present passenger trains will not use the cut-off. The north and south tracks will be used for through trains, while the two inside tracks will be used as sidings. This arrangement will prevail until passenger service has been established, when the outside tracks will be given to the latter trains. No passenger trains will be run over the line until the fall schedule goes into effect. While the majority of the West Penn trains will be run that way there will be some service retained between Aspinwall and Allegheny to accommodate the business from intermediate points.

Pittsburgh Secured Convention.

C. W. Richey of the Pennsylvania railroad was elected an executive member of the Association of Railway Superintendents of Bridges and Buildings, at the convention which has just closed in Chicago. The local delegates to the meeting succeeded in getting the next convention for Pittsburgh. President C. A. Lichty of the Chicago & Northwestern will appoint a committee to make the necessary arrangements for next year's gathering. At the convention several subjects were discussed. Among them were: Construction and maintenance of docks and wharves, relative value of concrete and timber piles, concrete building construction, including platforms, anchors for plows and derricks, methods of repairing roofs of various kinds, methods of watering stock in transit, protection of water tanks and water pipes from frost. Several standing committees were appointed as follows: Pile and frame trestle bridges, steel bridges, buildings, docks and wharves, water supply, fire protection, fences, crossings and cattle guards, preservation for wood and metal, coal stations and cinder pits and records and accounts.

B. & O. to Change Route.

According to a report from Ravenna, O., with the completion of the new Cleveland & Pittsburgh and Baltimore & Ohio lines a junction is to be established at Ravenna whereby through Cleveland-New York trains will be run over the east, via Ravenna and Youngstown over the Baltimore & Ohio and through Cleveland-Baltimore service established over the latter road via Ravenna and the Cleveland & Pittsburgh. The new lines are nearly completed and will be put into service January 1.

Inspecting B. & O. Improvements.

C. S. Sims, general manager of the Baltimore & Ohio, passed through Pittsburgh yesterday on his way west. He was joined here by General Superintendent W. C. Loree and several other officials from the operating and engineering departments. The officials are inspecting the progress of the improvement being made to the Pittsburgh & Western.

Railroad Notes.

The party of Grand Trunk officials who visited the local terminals yesterday left late in the afternoon for Chicago.

The Pittsburgh-St. Louis car run over the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie and the Big Four will be abolished tomorrow. The car was put into service on account of the world's fair.

C. L. Hilleary has resigned as director of transportation of the world's fair to become assistant general passenger agent of the Big Four.

W. F. Keisel, Jr., assistant mechanical engineer of the Pennsylvania railroad, has been granted a patent for a door operating gear for coal and coke cars.

IRON MASTERS' TOUR.

They Visit Points of Interest in Philadelphia and Lionize Andrew Carnegie.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28.—(Special.)—The visiting iron and steel masters inspected the great industrial institutions of Philadelphia today. Tonight the foreign members lionized Andrew Carnegie at a reception in the Academy of the Fine Arts. The day was opened by receiving the formal welcome by Mayor Weaver. Sir James Kitson responded.

One party of sightseers visited Cramps, the New York Shipbuilding Company's plant and League Island navy yard. Another party visited the Baldwin locomotive works and the mint.

The largest party, which included Sir James Kitson and Sir Walter Foster, visited Independence hall, the commercial museums, the University of Pennsylvania and Drexel institute.

Shallenberger Addresses Meeting.

BEAVER FALLS, Oct. 28.—(Special.)—The first mass meeting of the campaign here was held tonight in the Lyceum theater, and proved the most enthusiastic ever held in this place. It was preceded by a street parade, headed by the M. S. Quay club, of Rochester. The speakers were the Hon. W. S. Shallenberger, third assistant postmaster general; Charles O'Brien and Attorney Thomas E. Murphy of Johnstown.

Hotel Keeper Fell Dead.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Wilhelm Schmid, for 24 years proprietor of the Hotel Excelsior, dropped dead from heart disease late last night as he sat in his parlor playing solitaire. He had returned a month ago from a European trip. He belonged to the Elks, Ancient Order United Workmen, Knights of Pythias, Royal Arcanum and St. John's English Lutheran church. He leaves the following children: William Charles, Harry, Fred, Mrs. Robert Barlet and the Misses Rose and Elizabeth, all of this city.

Train Wreckers Were Foiled.

COSHOCTON, O., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—An attempt to wreck a Wheeling & Lake Erie passenger train was frustrated just in time this afternoon. S. L. Lanning was walking down the track and discovered a cold chisel driven in tight between the rails. He flagged the train and succeeded in pulling the obstruction out. The chisel bore the initials "H. N." The railway police are investigating.

Riddled His Own Heart With Shot.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Huber Heasley, a well known Lawrence county farmer, committed suicide this morning at his home in Fayette, blowing out his heart and entire side with a charge of buckshot. He was 55 years old and his suicide is supposed to have resulted from ill health. Heasley was a prominent Democrat.

WILL DELIVER MUSIC, LIKE GAS, THROUGH PIPES

Western Inventor Proposes to Supply Customers With Their Favorite Tunes.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

PORTLAND, ORE., Oct. 28.—Music out of a pipe, to be turned on or off like gas, is the plan of a company which has asked for a concession from the Lewis and Clark exposition. The company is represented by N. O. Abbott, a Seattle attorney. According to the story told the exposition officials by Abbott, the inventor, whose identity remains unknown, plans to place an orchestra in the central station. Tubes fitted with the inventor's secret apparatus will run from the station to the offices, stores or residences of the customers.

The program is to be carried out daily. A customer notes that at a certain time his favorite piece of music will be played; he turns a key and a burst of music from reed and string instruments fills the room. The subscriber gets the music he wants sweeter and more natural in sound than when produced by a phonograph.

LEMARE'S FINE OFFERING.

Splendid Program Arranged for This Evening's Free Organ Recital.

The 691st and 692d in the series of free organ recitals by Edwin H. Lemare, in Carnegie Music hall, will be given this evening and tomorrow afternoon. From the musician's standpoint, Mr. Lemare's purpose to give the entire set of Rheinberger sonatas will be appreciated; this evening the program includes the twelfth Rheinberger sonata and two short numbers by Tschaikowsky, recently transcribed for organ by Mr. Lemare. The opening number is a recent contribution to organ literature by Faulkes, a well-known organ composer.

In the second part of the recital Mr. Lemare will improvise as usual, and after that will play the beautiful prelude of "Parsifal." The program in full is as follows:

Allegro Sinfonico............Faulkes
(a) Meditation, (b) Nocturne in C Sharp Minor............Tschaikowsky
Sonata No. 12, Opus 154............Rheinberger
I. Phantasie. II. Pastorale. III. Introduction and Fugue.
Improvisation.
Vorspiel, "Parsifal"............Wagner

Inspected Allegheny Sanitation.

Allegheny sanitary conditions were studied yesterday by Adolphe Smith, the London Lancet representative who is visiting Pittsburgh. After a talk with the city officials, he visited Herrs island and watched the methods used there. Last evening he lectured on the Dreyfus case before the Alliance Francaise at the Twentieth Century club. This afternoon he will visit the Homestead steel works. Mr. Smith leaves for St. Louis tomorrow afternoon.

Finest clothing 20.00 to 35.00

THE highest degree of perfection yet attained by ready-to-wear clothing is typified by these garments. The necessity of going to a tailor and paying an extravagant price has been done away with. No tailor can improve on these suits and topcoats, no matter how high a price he may charge you.

KAUFMANN'S
"THE BIG STORE"

Two trouser specials

Men's English corduroy pants in brown, black and mouse color, guaranteed not to break—also all wool cassimere and cheviot pants, in plain blues, black and fancy mixtures—regular $2.50 values... 1.48

Men's pants of fancy worsteds and cheviots—a splendid line of stylishly cut, perfect fitting trousers—all sizes to fit men of all proportions—regular $4.00 and $4.50 values at... 3.00

Kaufmann clothing talked about all over town

BECAUSE it's superior to that found in other stores at the same price—because it meets the most exacting requirements of men who know what constitutes high-class clothing—because it fits and looks as well as the product of the best custom tailor.

Our 8.50 Line

Goodness is stamped all over the suits and overcoats at $8.50. Turn on the searchlight of investigation—you'll not find ANY skimping or inferior tailoring. They are equal to the $12 and $13.50 suits and overcoats you'll find in most stores. The suits come in fancy mixed cheviots, rough blue cheviots, fancy worsteds, neat cassimere effects, black thibets, plain brown cheviots, etc., cut in the latest single and double breasted styles. The overcoats include those jaunty 30 and 32 in. short box coats and the more conservative 36 to 42 in. fly front coats; also half silk lined yoke raincoats.

Our 15.00 Line

The suits and overcoats at $15 show unmistakable signs of painstaking effort by weaver, cutter and tailor. You will in vain look for a single imperfection in these garments. And the immensity of the assortment affords you greatest possible scope for selection. No matter whether you be tall and thin, short and stout, long-armed and small-chested, or short-armed and broad-chested, you can find a suit or overcoat in this line to perfectly conform with your figure. Everything about these garments will satisfy the particular dresser. And they will not be equalled from a quality standpoint in any other store for less than $20 to $22.

COLLEGE ELEVENS WILL HAVE HARD TESTS---OTHER SPORTS

NO WRANGLING OVER PLAYERS

Standing of Normal Eleven Will Not Be Questioned and No Delays Will Be Allowed.

CONTEST BETWEEN ROOTERS

The second big football game of the season will be played at Exposition park today. One week ago State and W. & J. had their fight, and today the struggle will be between Western university and California State Normal school. The game affords the university team an opportunity to show that it belongs in the same class with State, and will have a fighting chance with that team on Thanksgiving day.

There will not be any controversy on the field before the game today about the eligibility of players. All danger of any unpleasant wrangling and tiresome delay was averted when Chancellor McCormick of the university sent for Coach Mosse yesterday and said that he was satisfied with the statement from California that all of its players were students. The officials have been selected, and both teams have been notified to be ready for the kick-off at 3 o'clock.

Coach Mosse made arrangements yesterday to take his football squad to the Duquesne theater tonight. The players will be the guests of R. M. Gulick. Two boxes have been reserved for them.

California will be on hand with a small army of rooters. Railroad arrangements have been made for a larger crowd than accompanied W. and J. last week. The excursionists from the Monongahela valley will have a band that has been engaged for the double purpose of encouraging the Normals and drowning the rooting of the W. U. P. students. The Wups will also have a band. It is the turn of the engineering department to furnish the music. The line-up will be as follows:

W. U. P.		California Normal.
Perry	L.E.	Jenkins
Waddill	L.T.	Hall
Zeig	L.G.	Stark
McKean	C.	Gray
Edgar	R.G.	Fry
Marshall	R.T.	Martin
East	R.E.	Colson
Rugh	Q.B.	Harmon
Thompson	L.H.	Smith
Schmidt	R.H.	McCleary
Mehl	F.B.	Farr

Officials—Mr. Orth of Lehigh and Mr. Fry of P. A. C.

NORMAL PLAYERS ANGRY.

Don't Like Charges of Being Professionals—Spys Were Caught.

CALIFORNIA, PA., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Whatever may be the temper of the W. U. P. team when it clashes with the Normals there is no gainsaying that the latter will go into the fray with moods vitriolic. They are sore at the reports of professionals on their team. Strangers were caught sizing up the secret practice from the roof of a half hidden freight car. They were chased but escaped. The team will arrive in Pittsburgh at 9 a. m. No work save running through signals was given the players today.

AMERICAN STYLE BARRED.

This Was the Handicap That Brought Defeat to Frankie Neil.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Frankie Neil, who lost the bantamweight title to Joe Bowker in the ring of the National Sporting club, London, England, October 17, returned to New York today with his father. Neil has a conditional promise from Bowker for a return fight, to take place in this country. Neil had no kick to register against the treatment he received on the other side, except that the American style of fighting was barred and that he could not do himself justice under the English rules.

The little fighter is going at once to his home at San Francisco, where he will rest up while waiting for another chance at Bowker.

"JOE" WALCOTT CHARGED WITH MANSLAUGHTER

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—"Joe" Walcott, the negro pugilist, was held for the grand jury today in $2,500 on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of another negro, Nelson Hall, recently. The pugilist's revolver is said to have been accidentally discharged and a ball entered Hall's breast, causing instant death.

PITTSBURGH BEAT ALLEGHENY; WORRELL GETS TOUCHDOWN

The Pittsburgh High school eleven won a long-drawn out game from the Allegheny High school yesterday afternon at the Colosseum 5 to 0. Dune. Worrell of Pittsburgh ran around Allegheny's right end for 40 yards and a touchdown. Pittsburgh claimed Allegheny had outside players in its line-up, but nevertheless played the game, which was interrupted at times by kicks.

Marietta Defeats Otterbein.

MARIETTA, O., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Marietta college defeated Otterbein university today 22 to 0 in one of the cleanest and prettiest exhibition games of the season. Line-up:

Marietta—22.		Otterbein—0.
Gilman	L.E.	Climer
Stone	L.T.	Woostel
Miller-Gates	L.G.	Roselet
Humphrey	C.	Bennett
Strong-Gates	R.G.	Bailey
Mautz	R.T.	Van Sickle
Simon	R.E.	Ash
Chadwick-Fuller	Q.B.	Bates
Moses	L.H.	McDonald-Smith
Tipton	R.H.	Funk
Highley-Dorr	F.B.	Flick

Touchdowns—Stone 2, Mautz, Tipton. Goals—Chadwick 2. Referee—Edwards, O. M. U. Umpire—Sweeney of Marietta. Timekeepers—Evans of Marietta, Starkey of Otterbein. Time of halves—20 and 25 minutes.

W. & J. Has a Crippled Team.

WASHINGTON, PA., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—On the eve of the gridiron battle with Geneva college, the Washington team is in a bad condition. With two men out of the game and several others crippled, the prospects are not bright. Paul Stuart, left guard, has an injured leg and he left today for his home at Cheswick. He may not play again this season. An injury received in the State game developed blood poison, and he is not able to walk. Sutter has been ordered to stay off the field for a week.

Students to Play Athletic Clubs.

The Shadyside Academy eleven will play the heavy team at Scottdale today. Manager Borntraeger arranged the game for the purpose of giving his team hard work in preparation for Kiski. Kiski will also have a hot argument this afternoon, playing the Connellsville A. C. at Connellsville.

Canton High School Loses.

AKRON, O., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Canton High school defeated Akron High school here today by a score of 6 to 5.

AMONG THE PASSERS.

GANS HAS TROUBLE MAKING THE WEIGHT

Colored Champion Likely to Lose His Deposit—Sports Are Holding Their Money.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—Betting on the Gans-Britt fight, which is to take place Monday night, is still at a standstill and the poolroom people can't understand it. It begins to look very much as if Gans will have to put a hurricane finish on his training in order to save Al Herford's $2,500. For the past two days he has weighed 136½ pounds, and that after a hard day's work.

There is no disguising the fact that the negro is beginning to worry about that $2,500 ringside. The fact that he went on the road twice yesterday seems to bear the statement out. After jogging a total of 20 miles during the day, Gans' weight was still 136½. During the exceedingly warm spell last week Gans got as low as 134½, but when the cool, foggy weather set in the black man began to pick up the pounds again. Thus, in spite of his hard work, he sticks to 136½.

Of course this killing finish to the training must have its effect upon the champion. Al Herford opened up today with a statement as to Gans' condition which may be taken as significant. "I have no intention of keeping the public in the dark as to Gans' weight and condition," said Herford. "I want the people to know just how matters stand. There is no use saying that Joe will not have a hard time making his weight, because he will. He has not done 133 for a long time, and it worries him."

RAILWAY CLUB MEETS.

Elected Its Officers and Heard Reports Which Were Very Gratifying.

About 300 members of the Railway club of Pittsburgh met last evening at the Monongahela house, it being the first of the winter series of monthly meetings. The reports of the president and secretary were read, which shows the club to be in a flourishing condition. Election of officers took place, resulting as follows: President, L. H. Turner, superintendent of motive power of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie; vice president, F. T. Hyndman, master mechanic of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh; treasurer, J. D. McIlvaine of the Railroad Supplies company, and secretary, J. D. Conway, chief clerk in the motive power department of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie.

Following the business session refreshments were served and an entertainment given. The feature of the program was the turn by Glen Lewis, a 5-year-old boy. He sang several songs and danced very gracefully.

LEITER WINS SUIT.

Gets Decision Which Awards Him Nearly $7,000 from a Brokerage Firm.

Joseph Leiter, who was partially successful in cornering the wheat market some time ago, passed through Pittsburgh last evening on the Pennsylvania limited, $6,567 richer than when he went east a few days ago. He was awarded this amount in a suit against Thomas & Post, stock brokers, to recover the value of 500 shares of International Power company, which utilizes the Niagara Falls.

Mr. Leiter is heavily interested in coal lands in Illinois. The last time he was in Pittsburgh he was securing miners to take the place of those striking. He said last night the mine was running full, independent of the members of the United Mine Workers. He says little coke is being made, on account of the decrease in the demand. He intends building several hundred ovens next spring, and so equipping them as to utilize the biproducts.

MEETING IS IMPORTANT.

Architects and Management of the Carnegie Schools Confer Today.

Considerable progress towards completing the plans for the home of the Carnegie Technical schools is expected to result from the meeting of the architects, Messrs. Palmer and Hornbostel, with Director Hamerschlag and members of the "Tech" committee. The meeting will take place this morning at the office of the director.

Some important announcements are expected to follow this conference, as the architects propose to make an immediate start on the work and the plans of the management of the school have been definitely arranged.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS HELD A PLEASING MEETING

NEW KENSINGTON, PA., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—The Allegheny Valley group of the Epworth league, comprising the towns between Pittsburgh and Kittanning, met this evening in the Methodist Episcopal church here. The Rev. G. M. Miller, pastor of the Tarentum Methodist Episcopal church, made the address of the evening. "Christian Stewardship" was the subject of a paper by the Rev. H. S. Piper, pastor of the New Kensington church. Miss Etta McConaha, of Tarentum, conducted a class in missionary work.

Curfew Needed in McKeesport.

McKeesport clergymen are amazed at the large number of children sent to the juvenile court from that city during the last year, and efforts are to be made to cut down the number. A curfew law will be urged by the McKeesport Ministerial association. The growing tendency of children to be out late is held responsible for much of the waywardness.

BRADDOCK BEATEN BY WILKINSBURG

Messner and Thounhurst Each Get Touchdowns—Score Is 12 to 0.

RESULTS OF OTHER GAMES

Pittsburgh H. S.	5—Allegheny H. S.	0
Wilkinsburg H. S.	12—Braddock H. S.	0
W. & J. Academy	6—East Liberty Acad.	0
Allegheny Prep.	30—Sewickley H. S.	0
Homestead H. S.	17—McKeesport H. S.	0
Union H. S.	5—Swissvale H. S.	0

The Wilkinsburg High school eleven won an interesting game from the Braddock High school yesterday afternoon at Braddock, 12 to 0. The teams were evenly matched in weight, but Wilkinsburg had the better team work.

Messner scored the first touchdown for Wilkinsburg in the first half after a series of line bucks and end runs. He kicked goal. In the second half Thounhurst got behind good interference and ran 50 yards for the second touchdown. Messner again kicked goal.

Shelby put up a good game for Braddock. He divided honors with Morrison, the Wilkinsburg fullback, at hitting the line. The lineup:

Wilkinsburg—12.		Braddock—0.
Moore	L.E.	Wolf
Beam	L.T.	McCully
Melson	L.G.	Collins
Richards	C.	Curtis
Marshall	R.G.	Haas
Haven	R.T.	Harvey
Brubaker	R.E.	Mills
Fleeger-Bein	Q.B.	Benn
Messner	L.H.	Fanker
Thounhurst	R.H.	Shelby
Morrison	F.B.	McGinley

Touchdowns—Messner, Thounhurst. Goals from touchdowns—Messner, 2. Referee—Negle of Yale. Umpire—James of Braddock. Time of halves—20 and 15 minutes.

EAST LIBERTY IS DEFEATED.

Wash-Jeff Academy Scores Touchdown In the First Half of a Very Hard Game.

WASHINGTON, PA., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—In one of the hardest games of football ever played in Washington East Liberty Academy of Pittsburgh was defeated by Washington and Jefferson Academy this afternoon 6 to 0. Neither team seemingly had the best of it except toward the close of the first half, when W. and J. A. succeeded in pushing Reed across the East Liberty line for a touchdown and kicking a goal. In the second half East Liberty outplayed the local preps. Lineup:

W. and J. A.—6.		E. L. A.—0.
Taylor	L.E.	Halferty
Reed	L.T.	Hammer
Deems	L.G.	McCandless
Donnan	C.	Kann

Game at Friendship Park.

A good game is expected this afternoon, when the East End Lyceum and Kittanning teams come together at Friendship park. Kittanning has the strongest team that ever represented that place. East End is making preparations for a large crowd at Friendship park on election day, when the Geneva college team will play the Lyceum.

YALE TO CHANGE STYLE OF PLAYING

Cornell's Chances for Victory Over Princeton Today Are Gloomy.

FROM THE OTHER COLLEGES

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 28.—Yale will probably play a much more open and interesting style of game against Columbia tomorrow than is usual with Yale teams. The day's practice was indicative of the plan of campaign, because there was almost continuous punting. Yale has this year at least two first-class kickers in Hoyt and Veeder and both will go into the game, one in each half.

Yale's eleven will leave for New York at 9:35 o'clock tomorrow morning, accompanied by hundreds of students. The eleven will line up as follows, the back field being changed in the second half as indicated: Shevlin, left end; Bloomer, left tackle; Kinney, left guard; Roraback, center; Tripp, right guard; Hogan, right tackle; Neal, right end; Rockwell (Hutchinson), quarterback; Hoyt (Veeder), left halfback; S. Morse, (Stevenson), right halfback; Owsley (McCoy), fullback.

Yale and Columbia have agreed upon officials as follows: Referee, Matthew and McClung, Lehigh; umpire, Paul A. Dashiell, Annapolis; linesman, Joseph C. McCracken, U. of P.

Yale and Princeton have compromised on Evarts Wrenn of Harvard as umpire for their annual football game. Princeton would not yield to Yale in the latter's preference for Paul A. Dashiell. Matthew A. McClung of Lehigh will be referee.

Cornell.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 28.—(Special.)—On the eve of the game with Princeton, the prospects for a Cornell victory are exceedingly dark. The many changes in the lineup during the past few days greatly interfered in team work, and the coaches are still undecided tonight as to the final makeup. There is no certainty that Costello will be able to play right tackle. If not Halliday will fill that position with either Davis or Cox at fullback, in which event the punting department will be very weak.

Princeton will outweigh Cornell by an average of three pounds. The practice was again held behind closed gates this afternoon, but only light signal work was indulged in.

The case of Birmingham, who it was feared could not play tomorrow was decided by the university faculty tonight. He will have his old position at right half back.

ASSOCIATION LEAGUE.

It Will Be Composed of Six Teams and the Playing Schedule Was Adopted.

The Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania Association Football league was organized at an all-night session at the Seventh Avenue hotel. The league season will be opened November 5, with six teams in the field. The schedule has been arranged so that each team will play five games home and five abroad. George Hancock of East Liverpool was elected president, Harry Love of East Liverpool, secretary, and James Delaney of East Pittsburgh, treasurer.

The schedule adopted is as follows: November 5, Roscoe vs. East Pittsburgh at Roscoe; Morgan A. C. vs. Braddock at Braddock; McDonald vs. East Liverpool at East Liverpool. November 12, Roscoe vs. Morgan A. C. at Morgan; East Liverpool vs. East Pittsburgh at East Pittsburgh; Braddock vs McDonald at McDonald. November 19, Braddock vs. Roscoe at Roscoe; Morgan vs. East Liverpool at East Liverpool; McDonald vs. East Pittsburgh at East Pittsburgh. November 24, Roscoe vs. East Pittsburgh at East Pittsburgh; Morgan A. C. vs. McDonald at McDonald; East Liverpool vs. Braddock at East Liverpool. November 26, open dates. December 3, East Liverpool vs. Roscoe at Roscoe; East Pittsburgh vs. Morgan A. C. at Morgan; McDonald vs. Braddock at Braddock. December 10, East Pittsburgh vs. Morgan at East Pittsburgh; Roscoe vs. McDonald at McDonald; East Liverpool vs. Braddock at Braddock. December 17, Roscoe vs. Braddock at Braddock; East Liverpool vs. East Pittsburgh at East Liverpool; McDonald vs. Morgan A. C. at Morgan. December 24, Morgan vs. Roscoe at Roscoe; East Liverpool vs. McDonald at McDonald; East Pittsburgh vs. Braddock at East Pittsburgh. December 31, Roscoe vs. East Liverpool at East Liverpool; Braddock vs. Morgan at Morgan; East Pittsburgh vs. McDonald at McDonald. January 2, McDonald vs. Roscoe at Roscoe; East Liverpool vs. Morgan at Morgan; East Pittsburgh vs. Braddock at Braddock.

LAST CLUB RUN TODAY.

Automobilists Will Make the Trip to Zelienpole and Return.

With a 78-mile run to Zelienople and return the last club run of the Automobile club of Pittsburgh for the season will be held today. Thomas R. Hartley, chairman of the committee on tours, will act as pilot in the pilot car.

The start will be made at 9 o'clock this morning from the club house, Baum and Beatty streets. Those who will participate are: Julian Kennedy, E. J. Kent, T. F. Straub, George E. Rawle, David M. Kirk, C. Edward Keck, O. E. Vestal, S. A. Stewart, President W. C. Temple, Reed W. Bailey, Dr. W. C. Cook, H. C. Ebert, Edward Kneeland, W. F. Lewis, George L. Hallman and Richard Pollard.

WOMAN CHAMPION BEATEN.

Miss Bishop Met Her Match in Miss Mackay at New Haven.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Oct. 28.—Miss Pauline Mackay of Oakley defeated Miss Georgianna Bishop, the national champion, at the open golf tournament on the Country club links today in the final match by a score of 1 up, 19 holes.

It was Miss Mackay's short game, especially in running down puts, that brought her a victory. Few important matches among women have been closer or have had more halved holes, 10 of the 18 going that way today. When the seventeenth hole had been played Miss Mackay was one up. Miss Bishop took the next hole through her opponent's nervousness, but lost the match because Miss Mackay immediately regained her nerve.

Bowser Is Training.

Commencing last night and continuing until the evening of the bout, Mull Bowser of Natrona, the 145-pound champion fighter of this section, will occupy the training quarters of the Birmingham A. C., South Side. Bowser arrived in the city Wednesday evening and last night commenced training. The populer fighter is fast getting into excellent trim for his match with Frank Morgan, the well-known fighter of this city, which is scheduled to take place November 11 in this vicinity.

The Hans Wagner Waltz.

The Hans Wagner waltz and two-step is out, having made its first appearance yesterday. The front page contains a striking picture of the league's champion batsman.

COURSING MATCH IS HELD NEAR THE CITY LIMITS

First-Class Hounds Chase Frantic Hares. Fairy Queen Wins Two Courses.

The first big coursing match of the season was held yesterday afternoon on the Butler farm, near the city limits. Sixteen dogs were in the stake and the sport was of a high-class quality. Tim Scanlon, who was master of ceremonies, had provided 10 jack rabbits, shipped him from Wichita, Kansas. The hares were of the wildest variety and they got over the farm land as speedily as on their native prairies.

The first course was won by Frank Butler's dog, Ben Battles, who killed his prey after a short chase. Ted, owned by Thomas Cox, was the winner of the second course, and the third course, which was one of the most exciting of the afternoon was won by Tim Scanlon's Fairy Queen.

The fourth and last course, however, was the best. The hare was a large one and the wildest of the lot. He led the dogs a merry chase for a while, but on returning to his objective point Fairy Queen picked him up.

Fairy Queen is a 3-year-old bitch, a product of California. She sold for $400 when a year and a half old. Scanlon thinks she is the best bitch of her age in Western Pennsylvania. Ben Battles, Butler's dog, is also a first-class animal. After the coursing all the dogs were lined up for a race, but the contest was not a satisfactory one.

Both Scanlon and Butler desire to see which had the better dog. A match race, however, will be arranged to take place soon for a purse of $100. Some of the best hounds in this part of the country took part in the course yesterday.

AMATEUR FOOTBALL GOSSIP.

Seibert of Shadyside has joined the Iron City team.

Trinity Hall vs. Bellevue Y. M. C. A. at Bellevue.

SOCIETY

ONE of the most original and charming affairs of the season was the Hallowe'en cotillion given in the Country club last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Linford Smith. The guests of honor, who received with the host and hostess, were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard W. Lewis, a bride and bridegroom of last spring. The spacious rooms of the club house in Squirrel Hill presented a unique sight in their characteristic Hallowe'en decorations. The large dome lights in the dining room, where the guests danced, were covered with Jack-o-lanterns from which red peppers and apples were suspended on colored ribbons. Over the smaller sidelights were placed hideous grinning masks and the large pillars were surrounded with shocks of corn from which the yellow ears gleamed rich and golden. At the opening of the cotillion the guests were all masked, but shortly after the dancing began the masks were taken off. One of the prettiest cotillion figures was the "horse show figure," where four drivers, two men and two girls, chose their horses and put them through the paces. Ribbons, stretched from pillar to pillar, were the hurdles and the judges selected for the evening awarded the prizes, a large tin cup to which was attached long streamers of the club colors, blue and yellow. A "fish pond figure" also created a great deal of amusement. In this the girls were hidden behind a large sheet and the men, with rods and lines, and with pins shaped as hooks, fished for their partners. Numerous other figures, in which the men picked up apples with wooden spoons, girls selected their partners by the aid of mirrors, the men threw dice, the losing man lighting his opponent and partner through the figure with a huge Jack-o-lantern, were danced. The favors were all hung on high wicker screens at one end of the room, the orchestra being stationed behind the screens. In distributing the favors the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Lee S. Smith, Mrs. Wenman A. Lewis, Mrs. George Wolf, Mrs. R. D. Bryce, Mrs. H. O. Hukill and Mrs. George L. McCoy. Among the favors were heads of lettuce formed of cow bells covered with green tissue paper, nut shells with little trinkets inside, Jack-o-lantern blotters, long horns filled with flowers and covered with gay tissue paper, while for the last figure there were horns filled with confetti which was showered through the open mouth of a false face, covering the large end of the horn. The holiday idea was also carried out in the refreshments, the ices being served in small Jack-o-lanterns.

Pennsylvania Students Celebrate.

All the students at the Pennsylvania College for Women were the guests of the faculty last evening on the occasion of the annual Hallowe'en frolic, which this year took the form of a phantom dance in Dilworth hall. Cornshocks, skeletons, Jack-o-lanterns and strings of apples formed effective decorations. The entertainment was in charge of a general committee composed of Mrs. R. G. Armstrong, Miss Green and Miss Brownlee, with the following sub-committees: Reception, Miss Eastman, Miss Clarke, Miss Skilton, Miss Fulton, Miss Hosack and Miss Weaver; decoration, Miss Merriam, Miss Baldwin, Miss Holman, Miss Hahn, Miss Campbell; refreshment, Miss Duff, Miss Brownson, Madame de Vallay; entertainment and music, Mrs. Armstrong, Miss Green and Miss Lewis. Miss Edna McKee of Allegheny, Miss Mary Ellen Armstrong of Oakmont and Miss Carrie Pim of this city were guests at the college for the evening.

Boys and Girls Are Entertained.

Forty boys and girls were entertained with a very delightful Hallowe'en party given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Van Gorder of South Negley avenue. The guest of honor was their daughter, Miss Dorothy Van Gorder, who celebrated the eleventh anniversary of her birthday yesterday. Among the guests were Miss Mildred Griffin, Miss Sarah Kuhn, Miss Margaret Parker, Miss Louise Haymaker, Miss Louise Risher, Miss Margaret Thompson, Miss Katherine Thompson, Miss Anna Hogg, Walter Flood, Thatcher Spain, Miles Merwin, Miss Margaret Merwin, Robert Lyon, Robert White, Joseph Wilson, Lawrence Wilson, Miss Pauline Wilson, Atchinson Hench, Walter Thompson and William L. McEwan, Jr.

Twenty-Fifth Wedding Anniversary.

In their home in Blairsville, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Lewis George celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage last evening. They were married in Blairsville and have made that place their home ever since. Harry L. George, their oldest son, formerly cashier of the Bolivar National bank, but now assisting J. B. Cunningham, United States bank examiner of Pittsburgh, was home for the occasion. Other out-of-town people were: J. N. Langham of Harrisburg, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Whiteman and their daughter Louise of Latrobe, Miss Jennie St. Clair of Homer City, and Robert S. George of Coral, Pa.

Willis-White.

Oliver Lee White of Kirkpatrick street, Allegheny, connected with the National tube works, and Miss Ethel Seiss Willis of West Park, McKees Rocks, were married at the home of the bride Thursday evening. The wedding was a quiet home affair, only the members of the bride and bridegroom's families being present. After an eastern trip the couple will be at home to their friends in Eleventh street, West Park, McKees Rocks.

Wedding in Crafton.

Cards have been issued by Dr. and Mrs. W. Ross Foster of Belvidere street, Crafton, announcing the marriage of their niece, Miss Anne Elliott Foster, to Berord Brittain of Crafton. The at-home cards are for 18 Mildred street, Crafton, where they will live after January 1. The bride is a granddaughter of George Pearson of Homewood avenue, East End. Her mother's second husband was the late George von Bonnhorst of Ingram.

Engagement Announced at Dinner.

The engagement of Miss Jane Moorhouse of Philadelphia and Lewis R. Downing of Downingtown, Pa., was announced at a dinner given last Monday by Miss Moorhouse's cousin, Miss Margaret Carsten of Euclid avenue. Miss Moorhouse formerly resided in this city, being a daughter of the late John L. Moorhouse, and is well known here. Mr. Downing is at present located in Pittsburgh and is connected with the Pittsburgh Construction Company.

Returning Home.

Miss Alice Wood Tindle is expected home today from the east, where she has been since the wedding of Miss Knox and J. R. Tindle two weeks ago. Her sister, Mrs. Edward Hamma Small, and Dr. Small, who left on Monday for the St. Louis fair, will be back tomorrow.

Mrs. H. M. Curry of Homewood avenue and her family have returned from Magnolia, where they spent the summer season.

Oxnard-Beech.

Miss Edith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Oxnard of Edgewood, and Frank B. Beech of Pittsburgh were married on Thursday at the rectory of St. James' church, Wilkinsburg, by the Rev. Father Enright. The young couple left for St. Louis in the evening. Upon their return they will make their home in Pittsburgh.

Glasgow Girl in Pittsburgh.

Miss Elsie Johnston of Glasgow, Scotland, is the house guest of her aunt, Mrs. William Boyd of Morewood avenue, Shadyside. Miss Johnston arrived in the city on Thursday and expects to remain for several weeks. She came to Pittsburgh by way of Canada, where she has been since September.

Engaged to an Eastern Girl.

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Loring of Harvard street, Dorchester, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Grace Loring, to William Austin Bassett of Pittsburgh.

AMONG THE CLUBS

Preparing for the Benefit.

Unusual interest is being taken in the arrangements for the matinee which Miss Viola Allen will give December 14 in the Nixon theater for the benefit of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Free Kindergarten association. Miss Allen is said to have found one of her greatest successes in the revival of Shakespeare's "A Winter's Tale," and there is much anticipation over her coming appearance in this city. The benefit matinee for the kindergarten association will be a fashionable one and boxes are being taken by some of the patronesses, the entire list of patronesses to be announced soon. Among the box holders will be Mrs. James I. Buchanan, Mrs. S. Jarvis Adams, Mrs. William Larimer Mellon and Mrs. Jacob Kaufmann. The special entertainment committee for this event consists of Mrs. S. Jarvis Adams, chairman; Mrs. William H. Allen, Mrs. Marcellin C. Adams, Miss Mary E. Bakewell, Mrs. George F. Baird, Mrs. Frank G. Bryce, Mrs. Helen Rock Carroll, Mrs. Harry W. Fulton, Mrs. A. V. Holmes, Mrs. Edmund B. Kiernan, Mrs. Alexander C. Latimer, Mrs. J. Leonard Levy, Mrs. Joseph W. Marsh, Mrs. Eugene L. Mattern, Mrs. William McCracken, Jr., Miss Eleanor Watson, Mrs. A. Leo Weil. The program committee includes Mrs. Josiah Cohen, Mrs. Albert Blumberg, Mrs. H. L. Corwin, Mrs. Carrie S. Coleman, Mrs. Malcolm W. Everson, Mrs. Charles W. Gerwig, Mrs. Frank T. Hogg, Mrs. Albert Horne, Mrs. Thomas Liggett, Mrs. J. Palmer O'Neil, Mrs. George W. Stewart, Mrs. Columbus J. Wilson. Press committee, Mrs. James I. Buchanan, Mrs. M. E. Van Wagonen, Mrs. William H. Stiviter, Mrs. Alexander Rook, Mrs. H. B. Birch, Miss Sara G. Barbour, Miss Adelaide Nevin, Miss Anna R. Stratton, Mrs. Arthur Burgoyne, Miss Marion Bonsall, Miss Catherine Patterson, Miss Emma Stephenson, Mrs. Sperry and Charles Armour.

Euchre for New Hospital.

Mrs. Andrew C. Robertson of South Linden avenue, Point Breeze, will issue 500 invitations early next week for a benefit euchre to be given in the Bellefield club house. The proceeds will be used toward furnishing the new Eye, Ear and Throat hospital, which the managers expect to have ready for occupancy in December. The members of the board of managers will act as patrons and patronesses, and include Mrs. William Scott, president; Mrs. H. C. Beggs, Mrs. Albert Dilworth, Mrs. Charles Arbuthnot, Dr. Chevalier Jackson, who has just been elected treasurer; Mrs. Hugh P. Allen, Mrs. Ralph Baggaley, Mrs. John B. Chapman, Mrs. F. A. Childs, Mrs. William Flinn, Mrs. Durbin Horne, Mrs. George H. Hallman, Mrs. William Maclay Hall, Jr., Mrs. John Brown Heron, Miss Sarah Killikelly, Mrs. Albert J. Monthly Kindergarten Meeting.

The board of managers of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Free Kindergarten association met yesterday morning in the Kindergarten college in Fifth avenue, Oakland. Mrs. William McCracken, Jr., one of the vice presidents, presided. Arrangements were made for the annual meeting of the association which will be held the last Saturday in November. At that time the annual election of officers will be held and reports will be presented. Yesterday morning reports were presented by a couple of the kindergarten teachers, Miss Anna Lentz of the Fourth ward, Allegheny, and Miss Marion Everson from the Orphans asylum in Ridge avenue, Allegheny. The association has established 64 kindergartens, 10 more than the number reported a year ago. It is expected that another will be opened in Knoxville very soon, but it probably will be conducted at the homes of the children for a while at least. Last Wednesday afternoon there was a meeting of mothers in Knoxville which was addressed by Miss Georgia Allison, supervisor of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny kindergartens.

Delmar Company's Test Well Holding Up at 280 Barrels

In the new development on Bartholomew run, west of Mannington, Marion county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 3 on the C. S. Pitzer farm into the top of the sand and has a show for a good producer. The well made one 5-barrel flow when drilling was suspended to move back the boiler. This well is located east of the Delmar Oil Company's test on the Hays farm, which is still holding up at 280 barrels a day. Neeley & Shakley have completed their No. 3 on the P. C. McDonnell farm and have a 30-barrel producer in the Gordon. In the old Fairview district, Marion county, the South Penn company has drilled its No. 2 on the A. Harvey farm 8 feet into the fourth sand and the well produced 72 barrels the first 24 hours. The same company has drilled its No. 10 on the D. Jones farm 93 feet into the Big Injun and the hole has filled up 1,400 feet with fluid.

On Kinchlow creek, near the Harrison county line, the South Penn company has drilled its test on the Serepta Nutter farm through the fifth sand and will have a 15-barrel pumper.

On the east side of the Folsom district, in Harrison county, the South Penn company has drilled its No. 8 on the M. P. Dye farm into the Gordon but has encountered no oil or gas. In the same district, No. 3 on the Easton Robinson farm has been drilled 20 feet into the stray and has found no oil or gas.

South of Littleton, Wetzel county, Courtney & McDermott have a show for a fair producer at their test on the George Thomas farm. The hole has filled up 2,500 feet with fluid. In the same district, the South Penn Oil Company has completed its No. 9 on the George W. Soles farm and has a show for a 35-barrel producer in the Gordon. In the Pine Grove extension the South Penn company has drilled its No. 5 on the R. J. Postalwait farm into the stray and the hole has filled up 1,500 feet with fluid.

In the Smithfield district the South Penn company has drilled its No. 13 on the Isaac Hogue farm into the Gordon and the hole has filled up 800 feet with fluid. In the same district Greenlee & Co. have given their No. 4 on the Prichard-Fleming farm a shot in the Big Injun, but it failed to respond.

In the Hebron district, Tyler county, the Carter Oil Company has drilled its No. 4 on the M. Denning farm through the Cow Run sand and has a show for a 10-barrel pumper.

In the Yellow Creek district, in Calhoun county, the South Penn Oil Company's Nos. 1 and 3 on the H. I. Jackson farm and Leonard, Carr & Gilmore's No. 1 on the Richard-Bush farm, are holding up at 250 and 115 barrels, respectively. In the Milton district, Cabell county, the Harshbarger Oil Company gave its Kilgore heirs' a shot and increased its production to 75 barrels a day.

In the same district Dillon, Hess & Co. have completed No. 7 on the Lillie Ripley farm and have a 5-barrel pumper in the Buell Run sand. Ripley Bros. have completed No. 8 on a part of the same farm and have a 5-barrel pumper in the same formation. The Buell Run and Marshall Farm Oil companies have completed No. 3 on the T. Marshall farm and have a 5-barrel pumper in the Buell Run sand. In the same district, G. W. Sawyer & Co. are fishing at their test on the P. Ullman farm and I. A. Vaugh is delayed from the same cause at his test on the G. Hall farm.

In the Benwood district the Carter Oil Company is down 500 feet at a test on the William Fulton farm. In the Jackson Ridge field, Monroe county, the Woodsfield Oil Company and Roye Bros. & Co. are drilling tests on the Rouse heirs' farm.

SHIPBUILDING COMPANY TO HAVE HOLDING CONCERN

An Independent Corporation Will Be Formed Bearing the Title "Bethlehem."

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The Bethlehem Steel Company will not be the holding company of the reorganized United States Shipbuilding Company. It will retain its present corporate organization, and an independent corporation will be formed for the holding company.

The holding company, it is understood, will bear the title "Bethlehem," but whether it will be called the Bethlehem Ship Company is not yet determined.

The holding company will be incorporated with a capital stock of $30,000,000 as heretofore arranged, which will be divided equally between common and preferred stock. The bonded debt will be $8,000,000, of which nearly two-thirds will be held by Charles M. Schwab, who will also own $6,000,000 preferred stock and $9,000,000 common stock.

PERSONALS.

TREMENDOUS BARGAINS.

There is not one person in a hundred who appreciates how much a little advertising can be made to do for him. The man who wants to sell a house, hire a servant, find a lost dog, or do any of a hundred other similar things, usually finds before he is through that a "want ad." in a reliable paper is the simplest, easiest and cheapest way of accomplishing his purpose. Those men who have been fortunate enough to place their "want ad." in THE GAZETTE have always found its prices real bargains when judged by the results obtained. It has over 72,000 families on its lists to whom it can appeal for you—that is, you speak to over a quarter million people when you use its columns. No wonder you are certain of results. Look below at some of the bargains offered you.

PITTSBURGH smoke and soot make painting necessary to keep places handsome and neat. Merchants of other cities are glad to meet such an outlay and do business here. All kinds of painting done promptly and well by

NEW YORK STOCKS MADE A STRONG RALLY

Everything on the List Closed Higher and Wall Street Is Again Conservatively Bullish. Local Securities Firmer.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

There was a strong rally in the New York stock market yesterday, and everything on the list closed higher for the day. Before the opening of the New York exchange private and public cables were reporting developments in the London and continental markets. The latter opened weak and declined, but there was a substantial recovery of nearly ½ per cent in English consols, which, next to the bank rate, is the best barometer of financial sentiment abroad, and by the time Wall street had the opportunity to begin trading, orders from London came pouring in for American securities. The change in sentiment was due to the more peaceful aspect of affairs involving England and Russia, and traders who had sold the market short in the expectation that the outcome of the diplomatic notes would be different, rushed to cover.

Initial prices were in most instances the lowest of the day, and the only time any hesitation appeared was during the first hour. The dealings were on a much smaller scale during the early part of the session, but with the resumption of heavy purchases of stocks like Union Pacific and Ontario & Western, the volume of general business increased and the total sales for the day were not much below the daily average for the week.

The strongest group of stocks during the middle portion of the day were the anthracite coalers, in which some sensational movements were witnessed. Delaware, Lackawanna & Western opened at 299, and with no interruption the price advanced to 320, the highest ever quoted on the present capitalization. The object of running a stock like this, which is very closely held, up 21 points within a few hours, is difficult to fathom. It has often been selected, however, in a bull market for a sharp upward movement, because it requires little buying to effect an advance and the rise, besides attracting attention, is usually interpreted as reflecting high-class investment—or at least that is the object of manipulators. There was a rumor that the company was contemplating the declaration of a large special dividend, but no one gave this much attention. Delaware & Hudson rose from 179 to 185¼, and this had a stimulating effect upon all the members of the group. Reading was conspicuous in the recovery, selling up to 75½, and Ontario & Western on large transactions rallied to 45⅞. Regarding the latter it was reported that the deal with the New York & New Haven had been practically closed and on a basis that would make Ontario & Western worth between 48 and 50.

The strength of the Harriman group, particularly Union Pacific, which advanced to 111⅝, had as much effect as anything in changing sentiment to the bull side of the market. The Pennsylvania group was also strong, and all the grangers advanced sharply. Numerous low-priced stocks, which it was thought on Thursday had had their "boom," became active and recovered to near the highest of the year.

The recovery in the Steel stocks was less pronounced than in the railroads, but they also scored substantial gains. U. S. Steel common recovered to 20¾, and in the late dealings the preferred advanced to 81⅝, closing at the top. Amalgamated Copper was helped by the further advance in the price of the metal and rose to 68. American Smelting was also active and higher.

The most prominent feature of the closing hour was the burst of activity and strength displayed by Sugar, which on enormous sales rose to 142½, the highest price for three years. Final sales showed gains of ½ to 2½ per cent for the leading railroad stocks, and ¾ to 2¼ per cent for the industrials, Sugar showing a net gain of 5¼ per cent.

Call loan rates remained unchanged at 2 to 2¼ per cent. There were no additional engagements of gold for export by today's steamer, but today's bank statement is likely to show a decrease in cash reserves, unless there is a large decrease in loans.

On the Pittsburgh stock exchange U. S. Steel stocks furnished a third of the total business, and the market here kept pace with the advance in the east. Crucible Steel was inactive, but while the common declined a fraction to 6⅝, the preferred rallied from 40⅝ to 41⅝ and closed firm. Pressed Steel Car common sold at 31½, a recovery of 1¼ per cent. Coal stocks were dull but firm. The Westinghouse issues were dull but strong, Electric advancing a dollar a share to 85 and Air Brake closing at 134 bid. Bank and trust company stocks were moderately active and closed firm.

FEATURES OF THE DAY

IN PITTSBURGH.

Bank exchanges increased $557,000 over the same day last year.

Demand for bond and trust stocks continues to improve and prices are firmer.

United States Steel stocks furnished a third of the business on the stock exchange.

Crucible common sold at 6⅝ and the preferred advanced to 41⅝.

Pittsburgh Coal common closed at 16½ bid and the preferred at 71⅛ bid.

Electric rallied to 85 and Airbrake closed at 134 bid.

IN WALL STREET.

Strong rally in stocks, the whole market closing near the best.

Trading was active, the sales reaching $1,405,200 shares stock and $6,205,000 bonds.

Lackawanna jumped 21 points to 320, the highest ever quoted.

Delaware & Hudson and Reading also made big gains.

On enormous sales Sugar crossed 142, the highest in three years.

United States Steel common recovered to 20¾ and the preferred to 81⅝.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Out of a half score of letters wired by as many Wall street commission houses to their Pittsburgh correspondents yesterday after the close of the market all with one exception were conservatively bullish on the stock market. In nearly every instance the reaction of Wednesday and Thursday was ascribed to the foreign political situation, and the recovery yesterday was ascribed to the more peaceful aspect of affairs abroad. The argument for a continuation of the advance was that the iron trade is improving, the railroads are doing well, some important movements which will end in the absorption of more or less obscure roads are in progress, and the money market remains easy, despite the unusual spectacle of gold exports in October. One prominent Wall street man whose opportunities for sizing up sentiment among professional traders on the New York stock exchange are excellent, stated that after a canvass which included professionals and the representatives of some of the largest commission houses in the street, he found them unanimously of the opinion that the market had had its reaction and was now in good shape for a continuation of the rise, barring unforeseen events abroad or a slip-up in the election. The majority of these traders appeared to favor Union Pacific and Pennsylvania among the high-priced stocks, Missouri Pacific, Southern Pacific and Reading among the medium-priced stocks, and the Eries and Chesapeake & Ohio among the low-priced issues. The exception was a house which has been consistently bullish all through the movement, but which now expresses the opinion that the rise has gone far enough, and that stocks will be a sale on the sharp rallies, rather than a purchase on reactions.

The improved demand for local bank and company shares noted for some days past was again in evidence at the call and prices were firmer. The present rule of the exchange, which limits official quotations to bids and offers for not less than 50 shares, shuts out quotations for a large number of stocks with a market value ranging from $300 to $1,000 a share, while the fact that a large number of banks and trust company stocks have never been listed deprives stockholders of official quotations on this group and has the effect of restricting dealings.

Pittsburgh Plate Glass was lower, closing at 123 bid, 125 asked. The market for the stock is narrow, and it would be as impossible to buy as to sell a thousand shares without affecting the price several points.

The directors of the Cosmopolitan National bank at a meeting have decided to recommend an increase in the capital stock of the bank from $200,000 to $500,000 for the purpose of giving the bank more funds for its growing business.

The Pittsburgh Oil and Gas Company has made application to list its securities on the Pittsburgh stock exchange.

Directors of the National Carbon Company have declared a regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on preferred stock.

The September earnings of Chesapeake & Ohio increased $146,183 gross and $132,993 net. The directors of the company have declared an annual dividend of 1 per cent.

The September gross earnings of Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh increased $31,292, and net earnings increased $9,443.

The Atchison statement for September reported an increase in net earnings of $109,039.

Another advance of ⅛c per pound in copper yesterday stimulated the rise in Amalgamated.

There was withdrawn from the Bank of England yesterday $5,000,000 gold for shipment to Germany.

One of the rumors current yesterday was that Union Pacific would pay an extra dividend of 4 per cent out of the profits of the Oregon Short Line deal.

In the early dealings Union Pacific maintained well its recent prominence in the market, the impelling factor being the definite decision on the part of the Oregon Short Line directors to avail themselves of the privilege under the mortgage to retire the participating bonds at 102½. In spite of all official disclaimers, the speculative element sees in this a certain indication that the Northern Securities settlement is being worked out to extend the community of interest in the transcontinental railroad field. Official disclaimers of the reported absorption for control by Union Pacific of Chicago Great Western stock were treated with the same scepticism.

After the close of the market yesterday a semi-official denial was made of the report that control of Delaware & Hudson had passed to New York Central interests.

A New York-Pittsburgh house, whose head was a former iron man, yesterday sent out a prediction that the net earnings of United States Steel in 1905 will exceed $90,000,000. The earnings for 1904 will be about $70,000,000.

The renewed strength of United States Steel preferred was as effective as anything in the day's market in restoring speculative confidence, as the heaviness of the steel securities may be said to have shared with the war scare as a cause of the week's break in the market.

The situation in the money market was a contributory cause to the facility with which stocks recovered. The considerable receipts on balance from the interior on the regular express movement was gratifying to the speculative element. Chicago advices pointed to this as a lull in the interior demand rather than an end of the movement. The loss by the sub-treasury operations and Thursday's gold export was thus reduced to small proportions. The decrease in the foreign tension afforded some relief here to the exchange market and no further engagements were made of gold for export today, as had been anticipated. Money on call was offered down during the day from 2½ per cent to below 2 per cent.

The Bond Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Government bonds closed steady. The general bond market was firm in tone, with the principal dealings in Consolidated Tobacco 4s and the new Tobacco issues, Green Bay & Western A and B debentures, Oregon Short Line 4s, Union Pacific convertible 4s and Steel sinking fund 5s. ARBITRATION PROPOSAL INFLUENCED MARKET

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The Herald this (Saturday) morning says:

Under the influence of the better turn of affairs in the Anglo-Russian dispute, the security markets, both home and abroad, underwent recovery yesterday. Improvement in London was minimized, however, by a further advance in discounts following the unexpected withdrawal of $5,000,000 gold from the Bank of England by Berlin. This action found some reflection here in a late advance in demand sterling exchange, which closed very firm at $4 86.85. No further gold engagements were announced from New York, however, but bankers expressed the opinion that congratulations over the cancellation of certain lucrative shipments were likely to prove premature.

The factor chiefly influential in the recovery was unquestionably the assent of Russia to the British proposition of submitting the North sea incident to arbitration. The news of the day elsewhere was not of an important character and was of mixed variety, not sufficiently influential, however, to much affect prices, except in issues specifically concerned. Of such was the favorable developments in Union Pacific. The difficulty found in confining the information that the New Haven road had bought out a large majority of Ontario & Western stock, and that the majority was not considered written transactions doubting explanation advance in that issue where a contrary movement might have been expected. Many issues, however, moved without news or rumor, recovering or advancing, at mere rumor, assisted by the force of aggressive manufacturers.

The recovery in the Steel Corporation issues was extensive, and brought the price at the close fractionally higher than on the day preceding and alarming news from Europe. It was believed, however, that there was a very large short interest in the preferred stock, and that issue responded very quickly to the better news, mainly on short covering.

Estimates were made during the day that the corporation would earn $80,000,000 this calendar year, thus leaving a small surplus. There is plainly less manipulation in the steel shares than has been seen for several weeks, and its market gives evidence of substantial profit-taking. Officials report a continuance of the better trade demand. Usually trade slackens at this time for winter consumption.

THE THREE RIVERS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, Oct. 28.—The stage of the river at 6 o'clock this evening was 4.1 feet and falling. Weather clear and pleasant. Today's departures were: Katie Mac, Portsmouth, and Lizzie Bay, Louisville. The river has been falling very fast here and the marks on the government gauge for the 24 hours from 8 a. m. Thursday until this morning showed that the stream had gone down 3 feet.

STEUBENVILLE—River 3 feet 10 inches and stationary. Clear and cool.

LOUISVILLE—River stationary, 2 feet 8 inches in canal; 6 inches on falls, 3 feet 8 inches below locks. Clear and pleasant.

WHEELING—River 4 feet 8 inches and falling. Clear and cool. Down, Bessie Smith, Parkersburg, noon.

PARKERSBURG—River 2.7 feet and falling. Clear and cool. Bessie Smith at 4 a. m. for Wheeling.

GALLIPOLIS—River 2 feet 4 inches and falling. Clear and cool.

OIL CITY—River 2 feet and stationary. Clear and warmer.

WARREN—River 1 foot 6 inches. Fair and cool.

MORGANTOWN—River 5 feet 6 inches and stationary. Cloudy and warmer.

POINT PLEASANT—River 1 foot 4 inches and stationary. Clear and cool. Up, Mermaid.

FIRST BOAT UP FOR MONTHS.

Enterprise Gets Through With a Tow of Empty Barges.

The stage of water at Davis Island dam at 9 o'clock last night was 3.6 feet and the river was rising slowly.

The first boat to get up the river for over three months was the Enterprise, which arrived yesterday from Freedom with a tow of 14 empty barges. The little rise noted several days ago just allowed her water enough to get over the sills at the locks. When she arrived here the Jim Brown took the tow and carried it on up the Monongahela. These empty boats will make several days work for some miners along the river.

The Sam Brown came up from Cumberland Thursday with a tow of empties and got as far as Morris landing on this water. She was compelled to lay up there to await higher water.

THE MONEY MARKET.

The local money market is unchanged at 5@6 per cent on call and time loans. Clearing house comparisons:

Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Operators on the stock exchange today generally were gloomy while awaiting developments. Sagging predominated but prices closed steadier. Consols opened with a better tone, reacted and recovered. Home rails improved fractionally.

Foreigners felt the tension less than other departments. Russians were steady and Japanese were harder. Imperial Japanese government 6s of 1904 were quoted at 94.

Americans opened irregular and generally better, hardened later, became inactive and closed steady.

Money was in strong demand in the market today, and much was borrowed from the Bank of England. The accounts were firm, partly owing to the political uncertainty.

Consols for money, 87 13-16d; consols for account, 87 13-16d; bar silver steady, 26 13-16d a ounce; money, 2½@3 per cent. The rate of discount in the open market for short bills is 2¾ per cent; the rate of discount in the open market for three months' bills is 2⅞@3 per cent.

PARIS, Oct. 28.—Prices on the bourse today opened heavy, but trading was calm and stocks became stronger on the reports that the British were disposed to moderate their conditions against Russia. The closing prices were firm, internationals showing a general advance. Russian imperial 4s were quoted at 93.75 and Russian bonds of 1904 at 514. The private rate of discount was 2⅝@2¾ per cent. Three per cent rentes, 97 francs 80 centimes for the account. Exchange on London, 25 francs 11 centimes for checks.

BERLIN, Oct. 28.—Business on the bourse today was hesitating. Americans were weaker upon New York advices. Exchange on London, 20 marks 35 pfgs. for checks. Discount rates—Short bills, 3½ per cent; three months' bills, 4 per cent.

Banks and the Treasury.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—(Special.)—In redemption of checks drawn by depositors of gold at the San Francisco and Seattle assay offices today's official records show that the sub-treasury paid out yesterday $115,871. Of this amount $26,132 had been deposited at San Francisco and $109,739 at Seattle. Total thus paid since Friday $378,286, against $265,280 for the same period a week ago. Total payment by government to New York banks for the day $2,876,000. Payment by banks to government $3,765,000. Balance on the day's transactions, $889,000 paid by banks to government. Total net payment by banks to government since Friday $2,989,000, against $178,000, paid by government to banks for the corresponding period a week ago, and $7,849,000 paid by government to banks a year ago. Included in the foregoing summary is $170,000 deposited by banks with the sub-treasury for payment at interior points. Total thus deposited since Friday, $670,000, against $700,000 for the same period a week ago.

PIG IRON WARRANTS.

The consumption of iron increases by jumps.

For five years, 1874 to 1879, it was on the 2,000,000-ton plane.

For six years, 1880 to 1885, it was on the 4,000,000-ton plane.

For eight years, 1890 to 1897, it was on the 9,000,000-ton plane.

For two years, 1902 and 1903, it was on the 18,000,000-ton plane, and will probably continue on this plane for three to five years.

Edward Atkinson predicts that consumption will be on the 40,000,000-ton plane by 1910 or 1913, and we believe he is right.

If the United States should store up a big stock of iron between now and 1910, it will all be consumed.

HOUSES IN COURT CHANGE OWNERS

O. S. Hershman Completes Site at Oliver Avenue and Cherry Alley for $32,000.

TWO GOOD EAST END SALES

The largest deal reported yesterday was the sale of three small properties facing in Reineman's court, near Oliver avenue, and almost across the latter street from the Hotel Duquesne. The seller was Thomas J. Keenan, who bought the property two years or more ago, and the first buyer was Robert B. Lyon. He in turn has sold the properties to O. S. Hershman for $32,000. The lots are 15x18 feet each and are improved with small brick houses. The lots are between two other plots owned by Mr. Hershman and were the key to the situation from a building standpoint. By purchasing Mr. Keenan's property Mr. Hershman gets a plot facing 110 feet in Oliver avenue and 110 feet in Cherry alley. When his first purchase was made about two years ago it was rumored that the plot was to be used for a site for a big printing plant, but no further plans have been announced along this line.

J. H. Baum has purchased from Samuel G. Baldensperger 50x156 feet, on the east side of Negley avenue, near Hays street, Nineteenth ward, for $18,000. The lot is improved with a handsome reception hall house.

Another East End sale reported yesterday was that of the James H. Hammett property on the east side of Atlantic avenue, Twentieth ward, for $14,000. The lot is 40x140 feet and is improved with a good house.

Looking for Old Tactics.

The announcement that Frederick Ingersoll had purchased the George H. Singer property at Point Breeze for an amusement site caused no little unrest among the residents of that aristocratic locality yesterday. It has been known for some time that the property was on the market, and it is said that it has been offered within the last two weeks at $225,000. Mr. Ingersoll is understood to have paid a little over $200,000 for the plot, which contains 4.5 acres and is at the intersection of Fifth and Penn avenues. The frequency with which Point Breeze residents have been startled into heading off amusement enterprises or other seemingly detrimental projects in their locality gave rise to the belief yesterday that the present deal was intended for a bluff to cause the wealthy residents to "come up" with a good round sum and buy the property before the amusement proposition took definite form. This was the course taken when the Aaron French property at Penn and Linden avenues was bought for a baseball park, and when the Howe lot, directly across Hastings street from the Singer holdings, was secured last summer for a site for the new Homeopathic hospital. The former property is now safely sold out in residence sites, and although the latter is still in the hands of the hospital authorities, their option on the Schmidt lot in Center avenue has been extended to December 1, so that it is likely the Point Breeze lot will be abandoned for the latter. Mr. Ingersoll said yesterday that his purchase of the Singer property was made for amusement purposes solely and that he has associated with him some of the best known business men in the two cities. The company, for which a charter will shortly be asked by Attorney A. M. Neeper, will be known as the Point Breeze Amusement Company and will have a capital of $100,000. One-half of this amount has already been paid in, Mr. Ingersoll says, so that there will be no delay in starting work.

Will Make Realty Deals Easier.

The recent decision which makes collectible the damages assessed against property owners along Brighton road for the improvements to that street from Washington avenue, Allegheny, to the borough line of Bellevue, will do much toward establishing a safe and more satisfactory realty market in that territory. The improvement was started during the old administration and the street, 60 feet wide, has been asphalted three miles. Property owners raised objections to the legality of the claims and contract and payment has been withheld until now. This necessitated in the sale of every property the binding of the new owner to pay the damages if they were collectible, and thus left an uncertainty as to what he was really paying for his property. A similar state of affairs prevailed for a long time along Perrysville avenue and the East street boulevard, but those damages have also been declared collectible. Both the Brighton road district and the district adjacent to Perrysville avenue are building up very rapidly with a good class of houses, at least 50 being under way now in the Eleventh ward.

Through the Real Estate Savings and Trust Company of Allegheny a Pittsburgh manufacturing concern has bought from the Parkersburg Iron and Steel Company five acres of ground just over the northern line of Parkersburg, W. Va., for $5,000, or $1,000 an acre. The property fronts 400 feet on the Ohio Valley railroad. The purchasers will at once build a plant to cost $50,000 and employ nearly 200 men.

Bellevue: J. H. Dawson sold for T. P. Langham to Jason Atwell 50x150 feet, in Dawson avenue, Bellevue, for $2,150.

Collins avenue: Sarah McHendry sold to F. W. Ruskauff an improved lot 30x110 feet, on the east side of Collins avenue, near Stanton avenue, Nineteenth ward, for $8,000.

Pacific avenue: William C. Hunter sold to Mary McMahon an improved lot 20x130 feet, on the west side of Pacific avenue, Twentieth ward, for $4,500.

Race street: The Pittsburgh Trust Company sold to W. R. Crim 25x93 feet, in Race street, Twenty-first ward, for $1,100.

John street: Samuel M. O. Grant sold to William J. Griffiths an improved lot 24x100 feet, in John street, Thirteenth ward, for $4,000.

Elsinore square: S. P. E. Price sold to Mrs. Ellen Douglass an improved lot 20x80 feet, at 3213 Elsinore square, Fourteenth ward, for $5,500, and to E. G. Jenkins a similar property at 3215 Elsinore square, for the same price.

Carroll street: The Real Estate Savings and Trust Company of Allegheny sold for the Marie Marshall estate to Joseph Rooney 17½x57 feet on the north side of Carroll street, Allegheny, for $1,450, and for the Iron City Building and Loan association to George Henderson 1637 Perrysville avenue, a frame dwelling on 20x100 feet, for $1,500.

Latest Building News.

Architect Edward Stotz is taking bids on the addition to the Fifth avenue high school building. One story will be added, making the building four stories high. Fourteen more rooms will thus be provided, one of them being a dark room.

Architect A. E. Linkenheimer has awarded the contract to William Kerr & Sons for the erection of a three-story brick apartment house for J. N. Straub at Frankstown and Braddock avenues, Twenty-first ward, to cost $40,000. The building will contain two large store rooms and 10 suites of rooms.

The bureau of building inspection issued permits yesterday to E. S. Wright for the erection of a brick dwelling in Aiken avenue, to cost $10,000; and to A. P. Bixler for two frame dwelling in Bigham street, $6,000.

FRIDAY A GOOD DAY IN THE LOCAL MARKETS

Prices Stiffening Up and Advances Being Looked for in Several Lines.

The usual lively trade for Friday was experienced in all lines in the local markets yesterday. Grocery men are evidently closely watching the flour and coffee markets, as sales in these lines were heavy in anticipation of a rise.

Coffee is particularly strong, local dealers having been anticipating an advance for the past 10 days or two weeks. In the east the market has raised several points and advices from the coffee fields give indications of a short crop and a great demand. Flour remained steady, although western millers are now above Pittsburgh prices. This fact is expected to lend further strength to the local market and to argue for a further advance in the near future.

In produce lines everything was firm. Fresh eggs are remarkably scarce and dealers have difficulty in getting enough to fill orders. Quotations of anything fresh at less than 24 cents are looked upon with suspicion, as much storage stock, recandled, is being shoved on the market as fresh goods. The price is even expected to advance above 24 cents in a few days and would be there now were it not for the immense stocks of storage and held eggs which are being forced upon the market. Dealers who make a specialty of handling strictly fresh stock are expecting the price to go to 30 cents within a few weeks.

Poultry is a trifle weak, although prices have not shaded off any. The demand for this stock has not been heavy, but is expected to pick up rapidly after the first of next month. Poultry will probably be very high in Pittsburgh this year, as there were immense losses to poultry raisers in the early part of the season, due to wet weather, and the supply will no doubt be short. Turkeys promise an exceedingly short supply and 25-cent turkey for Thanksgiving is not out of consideration.

Potatoes are still rolling into the local market, the receipts yesterday equaling 169 cars. They are of good quality and there is a heavy demand for them, which has served to keep up prices. Peaches are about done. The few which are now coming in are from Michigan and some dealers have quit handling them altogether. None arrived yesterday and the produce men say there is no money to be made in them now. Another week will practically see the end of the peach season for 1904. Grapes are in excellent demand and are still coming in fast enough to supply the market. There are now 42 cars of them in stock. The onion crop this year is one of the best for a number of years, both as regards quality and quantity.

Receipts of fruit and produce in the local yards yesterday were as follows: Apples, 5 cars, making 44 cars; beets, 1 car; bananas, 2 cars, making 5 cars; onions, 5 cars, making 21 cars; cabbage, 3 cars, making 46 cars; cranberries, 1 car; grapes, 6 cars, making 42 cars; lemons, 2 cars, making 5 cars; pears, 3 cars, making 8 cars; potatoes, 13 cars, making 169 cars; sweet potatoes, 4 cars, making 11 cars; miscellaneous, 4 cars, making 11 cars.

HAY AND GRAIN RECEIPTS.

Receipts of hay, grain and feed in the local yards yesterday were as follows: Baltimore & Ohio, 5 cars oats, 11 cars hay, 1 car straw, 2 cars feed; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 6 cars hay, 1 car feed, 1 car rye, 1 car oats; Pennsylvania lines, 39 cars hay, 6 cars corn, 3 cars straw, 24 cars oats, 2 cars corn and oats, 6 cars feed, 2 cars rye.

In spite of heavy receipts of hay yesterday and the day before, the market held firm at the prices of the past week. The demand for No. 1 timothy is still heavy and scarcely enough gets in to fill orders. Oats stiffened up greatly yesterday and the range in prices was shortened from a quarter to a half cent all along the line. Rye again made an advance and is now 92c and 92½c, the highest the grain has sold for several years. Yellow shelled corn is also quoted higher and the demand is still a little in excess of the supply. A good day's business was done yesterday and hay and grain dealers generally were well pleased with the outlook.

FINANCIAL AND TRADE NOTES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—All grades of refined sugar were advanced 5 cents a hundred pounds today.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—National bank notes received today for redemption, $765,562; government receipts from internal revenue, $715,498; customs, $616,737; miscellaneous, $102,853; expenditures, $2,230,000.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—As a result largely of the improvement in the Anglo-Russian situation abroad, several provisional gold export engagements here have been cancelled. Exchange continues very strong, however, and shipments to Europe next week are extremely probable.

WAR CLOUDS DISPERSE; SO DO WHEAT HOLDINGS

Liberal Liquidation Follows Report of Pacific Settlement of Anglo-Russian Trouble.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Dispersal of European war clouds resulted in liberal liquidation of wheat today. In consequence prices showed a material decline, December wheat being off ⅝@¾c at the close. May was down half a cent. Corn is precisely 1 cent lower than yesterday's final figures. Oats are off ⅜c and provisions a shade to 12½c.

From beginning to end a weak undertone pervaded the wheat market, the course of prices being palpably influenced by the reassuring news regarding the final outcome of the Russian Baltic fleet incident. A sharp decline in wheat prices at Liverpool emphasized the bearish feeling. The weakness in foreign grain markets was reflected here at the opening, the December option showing a loss of ½@⅝c to ⅞@1c at $1 13⅜@1 13⅝; May was down ⅜@½c at $1 12⅜@1 12½. After touching $1 13⅞, December gradually declined to $1 13, there being heavy liquidation by numerous small holders. Shortly after the opening May sold at $1 12⅝. The price then steadily declined until $1 11½ was reached. The fact that northwestern stocks will show an increase of about 2,000,000 bushels for the week lent color to a report that Minneapolis millers were selling May wheat on all rallies. A report by a St. Louis trade journal also gave considerable encouragement to the bears, the claim being made that weather conditions in the southwest generally are favorable to the growing crop. Some recovery was made late in the day on covering by shorts. There was also some buying for investment account on a report from Argentina stating that rains were needed in some colonies in order to raise half a crop. The market closed easily, with December at $1 13⅜. Final quotations on May were at $1 12⅜. Clearances of flour were 16,400 barrels. Primary receipts were 1,280,600 bushels, compared with 1,207,400 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 839 cars, against 845 cars last week and 924 cars a year ago.

Weakness of wheat had a depressing influence on the corn market. In addition excellent weather for the maturing of the new crop and liberal shipments from Argentina, aided in causing a net decline of an even cent. The absence of any special demand for shorts prevented any material recovery. December opened ⅛@⅜c lower at 49¾@50c, sold off to 48¾@48⅞c, and closed at 49⅛c. Local receipts were 103 cars.

The dominating influence on the oats market was the weakness of corn, resulting from persistent realizing. Trading was light and mostly of local character. December opened ⅛c lower at 29⅜c, sold off to 28⅞c, and closed at 29⅛c. Local receipts were 103 cars.

Provisions were easier as a result of local selling, due to heavy receipts of hogs and to weakness of grains. At the close January pork was off a shade at $12 42½. Lard was down 12½c at $7 05. Ribs were 5c lower at $6 45.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow—Wheat, 88 cars; corn, 82 cars; oats, 116 cars; hogs, 13,000 head.

The Wool Market.

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—So remarkable has become the demand for wool in the Boston wool market, that many traders have been driven to seek the clip in the Argentine republic. Another development has been the confirmation of the report that contracts are being closed for the clips of 1905 in the United States and in England, Ireland and New Zealand. In the opinion of many Boston merchants these conditions point to a big shortage in wool.

The Commercial Bulletin will tomorrow say: A very bullish feeling prevades the market. The demand from manufacturers is not as active as it was, but there is a good deal of speculation, especially in scoured wools, among dealers and to a limited extent in greasy wools. Contracting in Utah and Idaho for the 1905 clip has been conducted as liberally as the growers permit. Utah growers have refused to contract under 20 cents, but some have accepted 16 to 18 cents. An English broker has been in Boston this week trying to place 3,000 bales of next year's clip at today's prices. Buenos Ayres is active and excited, latest quotations on Argentine crossbreds showing a landed cost in Boston of 5 to 7 cents above a year ago.

The shipments of wool from Boston to date from December 31, 1903, according to the same authority, are 193,458,008 pounds, against 193,421,248 pounds at the same time last year. The receipts to date are 277,201,322 pounds, against 254,090,230 pounds for the same period last year.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at an advance of 5@10 points in response to better European cables than expected and a private cable from Havre stating that confidence was returning and prices had an advancing tendency. Trading here was quiet, but there was very little for sale and buyers were forced to raise their bids in some instances. The market closed steady at a net advance of 10 points, with sales of 16,000 bags, including December at 6.75@6.80c; March at 7.00@7.05c; May, at 7.20@7.25c; July at 7.40@7.45c; September at 7.50@7.55c. Spot Rio steady: No. 7 invoice, 8⅝c; mild quiet.

Refined sugar firm; No. 4, 4.65c; No. 7, 4.60c; No. 8, 4.50c; No. 9, 4.45c; No. 10, 4.40c; No. 11, 4.30c; No. 12, 4.25c; No. 13, 4.20c; No. 14, 4.25c; confectioners A, 4.90c; mold A, 5.40c; cut loaf, 5.75c; crushed, 5.75c; powdered, 5.15c; granulated, 5.05c; cubes, 5.30c.

LEADING INDUSTRIES MAKE STEADY GAINS

Both Exports and Imports Show Large Increase Over Same Period Last Year.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

Mild weather early in the week checked the distribution of seasonable goods, but had a permanent value in facilitating the harvesting of cotton and late grain. Subsequently the temperature fell, restoring retail trade in wearing apparel, fuel and similar products to greater activity than was experienced a year ago. Building operations are active, strengthening the markets for lumber and materials.

Manufacturing plants are making steady gains, particularly in the leading industries, and it is significant that reluctance to do business has shifted from buyers to sellers, eliminating largely the concessions in prices that prevented stability. Labor is unusually well employed, judging by the official compilation of the unions. Railway freight blockades cause some complaint, which is remarkable in view of the restricted grain movement, and earnings in the three weeks of October were 9.2 per cent larger than in 1903. Foreign commerce at this port for the last week exceeded the same period a year ago by $1,580,779 in value of exports and $1,014,861 in imports.

In the iron and steel industry, new cars and ships are requiring very large tonnage of plates, and practically every department except steel rails has aroused from the dull and depressed condition long prevalent. Improvement is emphasized by the large orders for pig iron, which have caused a moderate advance in prices of Bessemer and gray forge, as well as foundry, and there is less readiness to accept long-term contracts at current rates. Coke is strong for the double reason that an increased demand comes simultaneously with reduced output because of a short water supply.

Textile manufacturing returns are again irregular, owing to the fact that expectations of increased activity in cotton goods were not realized. Eminently satisfactory reports come from the woolen industry, several lines being quoted higher, and the outlook is most favorable, except for the limited offerings of raw material.

Demand for domestic hides in western markets continues sufficient to absorb all offerings, fully maintaining quotations, and in some instances causing advances. After a long period of dulness there has occurred a general advance of a small fraction in foreign dry hides. Footwear orders for spring delivery continue to come forward, western wholesalers having begun to place tardy contracts, while eastern and southern jobbers added to their purchases. Conditions throughout this industry are better than at any previous time this year. Failures this week numbered 233 in the United States, against 253 last year, and 28 in Canada, compared with 15 a year ago.

Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

Wheat, including flour, exports for the week ending October 27 aggregate 1,479,618 bushels, against 1,068,462 last week, 4,094,873 this week last year, 5,937,620 in 1902 and 6,672,888 in 1901. From July 1 to date the exports aggregate 22,451,961 bushels, against 53,901,047 last year, 89,824,937 in 1902 and 102,203,847 in 1901. Corn exports for the week aggregate 449,151 bushels, against 797,898 last week, 1,392,214 a year ago, 153,205 in 1902 and 606,159 in 1901. From July 1 to date the exports of corn aggregate 10,294,908 bushels, against 18,442,769 in 1903, 1,781,951 in 1902 and 15,245,342 in 1901.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

The completion of the railroad from Tonopah to Rhodes enables the Tonopah Mining Company to ship its ores much more economically. Previously all ores had to be transported by wagon teams to Sodaville, a distance of 66 miles from the mines, and the expense was necessarily excessive. Even under these conditions, as stated in the company's report for the last fiscal year, the mine shipped 4,066 tons of ore, from which it had returns of $558,224; with the railroad its daily shipments to the American Smelting and Refining Company smelters, at Salt Lake City, will be greatly increased. Its present shipments are entirely from its ore dumps, as the mine has not been worked since last February, owing to the fact that its ore supply on the dumps was so extensive that it was necessary to get it out of the way.

Advices from Phoenix are that the Rawhide mine of the Montreal and Boston Company is being prepared for a daily shipment of 6,000 tons of ore a day within 30 days. The Rawhide mine is one of the most promising of the Montreal and Boston properties—a large quarrying proposition practically untouched. It was formerly of the Dominion Copper Company group. The Canadian Pacific railway has just closed a contract for the building of a spur to the Rawhide property. With shipments from the Rawhide, another furnace at the Montreal and Boston Smelter will be blown in and it should not be over 30 days before the Montreal and Boston is treating between 600 and 800 tons of ore a day from its various properties.

The big Philadelphia smelter, located at Pueblo, is to be started soon.

According to the report of the geological survey of Canada for the last year, recently issued, since 1896 upward of $97,000,000 worth of gold has been shipped out of the Canadian Yukon. The production of the precious metal in this district amounted to only a few hundred thousand dollars' worth eight years ago. In 1900 it had leaped to $22,000,000, but since that record year it has steadily declined several millions each year until last year the production amounted to $12,250,000.

Probably the richest cargo ever carried by a steamer on the Great Lakes passed down the Detroit river this week on the steamer Northern King. The vessel's load, composed of copper ingots and slabs from Portage, Lake Superior, is valued at $850,000.

"At the bottom of the 800-foot shaft," says the Reins Copper Company of Butte, "we have crosscut to the vein, which was cut at 700 feet. It shows good shipping ore. We have drifted 60 feet on the vein and have taken out ore which gives us, after paying smelting charges, $1,194 29."

The plant of the Utah Copper Company at Bingham, Utah, has been brought up to its maximum capacity, and is now reducing to concentrates 600 tons of ore a day. The plant is making a product which yields the company anywhere from $70,000 to $75,000 a month; the net profits being a little over $2,000 a day. With the equipment now provided, at least 1,000 tons of concentrates are produced monthly, and which carry values of about 35 per cent copper and some gold.

BOSTON, Oct. 28.—It is impossible to pick out any particular strong stock in the Boston market today. All the copper stocks were intensely active and sold in large volumes at advancing prices. Atlantic was in great demand at the opening and sold steadily up to 17. Isle Royale sold with an advance of $3 and Michigan, Franklin and Allouez moved up over a point apiece. Winona was taken in hand today for the first time for many months and on heavy transactions advanced to 10⅝, closing at the top. Take it all together it was the best and most general market we have had and promises especially well for the future.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The London tin market was rather irregular, but closed firm with spot at £132 7s 6d and futures at £131 2s 6d. Locally the market was quiet with quotations ranging from $28 75 to $29 12½. Copper was firm. Lake is now quoted at $13 50@13 62½; electrolytic at $13 37½@13 50, and casting at $13 12½@13 25. In London the market was also firm and high, closing at £61 12s 6d for spot and £62 for futures. Lead was unchanged, at £12 7s 6d in London. Locally the market shows rather an advancing tendency with spot held all the way from $4 00 to $4 45 for large and small lots respectively. Spelter was a shade higher in London, closing at £23 12s 6d and it also ruled firm in New York, where spot is quoted at $5 35@5 40. Iron closed at 50s 7d in Glasgow and at 44s 1½d in the Middlesboro market. Locally iron is unchanged and steady. No. 1 foundry northern is quoted at $15 00@15 50; No. 2 foundry northern, No. 1 foundry southern and No. 1 foundry southern soft at $14 50@15 00.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Copper was strong, in sympathy with better American advices. Six hundred tons were sold. The metal closed at 61⅜c.

FOR LOWER BAGGAGE RATES.

Committee to Be Appointed to Request Rebates from the Central Passenger Association Charges.

A committee representing business men's organizations in the cities of Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Columbus, Chicago, Cleveland, Buffalo, Detroit and Toledo will be appointed next week to ask the Central Passenger association for the privilege of using an interchangeable excess baggage book upon the railroads in that territory. The appointment of the committee is the outcome of a meeting held in Cleveland on Thursday. Manager James W. Wardrop of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association represented Pittsburgh interests.

Mr. Wardrop returned yesterday and said that the outlook for favorable action by the passenger association was most encouraging. The meeting was unanimous in its request upon the railroads, and voiced the opinion of 25,000 business firms. The decision of the Central Passenger association officials is expected before the beginning of the new year. The object of the interchangeable excess baggage ticket is to allow excess checks to the value of $30 for $20 on railroads in the Central's district.

SOLES DIGGING TO CURB LINE

Wants a Vault and Denies His Responsibility for Safety of Telephone Pole.

D. A. R. WOMEN'S BIG VERDICT

The responsibility of a property owner for the safety of a telephone pole is raised in the equity suit of the Pittsburgh & Allegheny Telephone Company against W. C. Soles of McKeesport, an action involving the right of a property owner to excavate to the curb line in order to construct a vault. The telephone company seeks to prevent him from removing the earth, as the operation will take away the support of a pole. In Soles' answer he says he is excavating to the curb line for his vault. He says he notified the company to remove its pole before any damage resulted. He denies any responsibility for any damage that might be done to the company by the excavation.

The Daughters of the American Revolution in their suit against the city over the closing of Fort street and Point alley thereby damaging the old block house, were awarded damages to the amount of $18,300, $14,050 being for Fort street and the balance for Point alley. The board of viewers had awarded $1,000, but the society appealed to court. The case will probably be appealed to the supreme court by the city. The city alleged that the property was subject to certain limitations which deprives it of market value. If the Daughters recover, the money will be used to improve the block house property.

Judge Frazer granted injunctions in the remaining suits against the city restraining the collection of the tax imposed by the linear tax ordinance. In the equity suits brought by the Philadelphia Company, the Allegheny County Light Company and the Consolidated Gas Company, opinions were written reciting the facts involved and calling attention to the law as found in the case against the Pittsburgh Railways Company, decided a few days ago. Judge Frazer says there are really stronger reasons for granting the injunctions asked for by the plaintiffs because the ripper bill and the linear tax ordinance do not expressly apply to these companies, while the ripper bill does mention street railway companies.

Judge Shafer refused an injunction asked by George A. Lashell restraining the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie from laying additional tracks on Third avenue, Coraopolis, but decided that his property would be damaged by the new grade. He directed that a decree nisi be made in the case if the railroad file a bond for damages.

Andrew Hopkins has brought suit against the Pittsburgh & Allegheny Valley Railway Company to recover $2,687 50. The amount is alleged to be due on bonds held by the plaintiff and issued by the defendant. It is alleged the installments of interest have been defaulted. The company was organized to operate a street railway between Apollo and Parnassus.

The East End hotel yesterday entered suit against Simon O'Donnell to recover $658 30 alleged to be due for board, lodging, laundry and sundries furnished the defendant.

The testimony in the divorce suit of Nicholas Linteiman against his wife, Emily, shows she deserted her husband in Wilkinsburg four years ago. A decree was granted Cora Dischner against Albert Dischner on the ground of cruelty. Robert T. Verner filed a libel against Lidia Verner, charging desertion.

Wills of leaving of estates to the immediate relatives of the decedents were probated, as follows: Charles F. Lindner, Pittsburgh, $7,000; Samuel P. Shumaker, Pittsburgh, $10,000 personalty and realty of unknown value; Barbara Wiesenbach, Tarentum, $2,000; August F. Schurr, Millvale, $4,200; Jeremiah D. Hunter, Pittsburgh, $6,500; Joseph Baker, Tarentum, $1,000.

Executions issued: Jerecki Manufacturing Company vs. George W. Sherman, $972 94; Thomas M. Griffith, trustee, vs. A. W. Kunzelmann, $18,000; Mary Jane Kennedy vs. James A. Gaytons, $2,397 05; William M. Pease vs. The Marsh-Sexton Manufacturing Company et. al., $338 48; Charles A. Meikle vs. James Steel et. al., $90; William Kruckewitt vs. Eleanor Seigel et. al., $1,471 84; Alexander Dempster vs. Anton J. Katchmar, $567 15; E. Goldburg vs. Mrs. Elizabeth Rock et. al., $64 90.

A petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed against the W. A. Lindsay Company, Tombstone manufacturers of this city. George Oldham & Co. of Philadelphia, New Port Granite Company of Albany, and W. H. Perry of Concord, N. H., the petitioners, filed claims amounting to $936 94. A voluntary petition was filed by John G. Wisener, a saloonkeeper of Pittsburgh. Liabilities, $4,535 50; assets, $300.

These Allegheny county cases were argued in the supreme court: The township of Crescent vs. the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, appellants, an action over a township road; Charles F. Smith and Charles A. Smith vs. the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railway Company, actions growing out of the Sheraden explosion; Findley Gilkeson, appellant, vs. Mrs. Euphemia Thompson and others, an action over a deed; Harry T. Wright vs. John Hanna, appellant, an action on a note; T. Brent Swearinger, assignee, appellant, vs. Theodore Barnsdall, an action over a West Virginia oil and gas lease; E. E. Crusaw vs. C. A. Hutchinson, appellant, an action on a note; Mrs. Frances A. O'Hara, for use, appellant, vs. John Carr, deceased, with notice to Harry E. Holman, an action on a mortgage.

Sentences imposed in criminal court: Frank J. Keefe, burglary, 18 months to the workhouse; Martin Donnelly, larceny, six months; Emil Conover, false pretense, four months; James Bannon, misdemeanor, three months; John Anderson, misdemeanor, $10 and costs.

In the juvenile court John Mullen was sent to Morganza; Thomas Sullivan to St. Paul's orphan asylum, and John Foster, Frank Crahan and James Marion were returned to their parents. They were charged with breaking into a store. Robert Witkopski was sent to Morganza for breaking into a freight car.

Objections attacking his moral character were made against the application of W. F. Braun for a detective license.

On Monday James Fleming is to be tried for killing John McDonald. It is alleged that McDonald was knocked down by Fleming, and a resultant blood clot caused death. Robert Harper, a Coraopolis policeman, is to be tried on Wednesday for killing Ford Craig, who was shot during a raid. On the same day Titus De Bobula is to be tried for involuntary manslaughter. He is said to have caused the death of Mrs. Mary Schaffer of Duquesne, by running her down with an automobile.

TRAFFIC IS IMPROVING.

President Ramsey Expects a Period of Good Business in Moving the Corn Crops.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—(Special.)—Joseph Ramsey, Jr., president of the Wabash Railroad Company, is in town. He says the gross revenue received by the road from the world's fair business will not be $100,000 away from his first estimate of $2,500,000, made when the world's fair was first considered as a project.

In regard to the general outlook, he says traffic is improving and that he looks for a period of good business on the road, which passes through the five states that produce half of the total corn crop.

Will Debate Imperialism.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 28.—The question for the Yale-Princeton debate to be held here on December 9, is: "Resolved, That a determination not to hold territory permanently, unless with the purpose that it shall ultimately enjoy statehood, should be the policy of the United States." Princeton has the choice of sides.

Gave $15,000,000 Mortgage.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The Harlem River & Port Chester Railroad Company and the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company filed a mortgage for $15,000,000 today for the purpose of raising funds to begin work on the Harlem River & Port Chester railroad.

A WIFE'S CONFESSION.

Of course every one knew when they were engaged and every one pretended to be surprised when they heard it was suddenly broken off. It was first said she had broken it off, then that his heart had changed, but finally she confessed that she had been so irritable, so depressed and blue that she had fairly driven him away. Her good looks were vanishing. She was getting thin, pale, and hollow-cheeked, with dark circles around her eyes. Suddenly all society was pleased again to hear of the engagement being renewed, and it was not long before a beautiful and radiant bride was taken to the altar. She had regained her good looks, her former happy disposition and strong nerve all through a secret a friend gave her. A few bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is what made two more lives happy and a radiant bride more beautiful than she had ever appeared before.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

Mrs. O. O. Scripture, of Prescott, Ariz., L. Box 536, writes: "For nearly two years I was a great sufferer with ulceration and enlargement of womb, also suffered severely with dyspepsia and was run down—a perfect wreck. I doctored for several years; got no better, until about seven months ago I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Pleasant Pellets.' I can stand on my feet and work hard all day. I feel that life is now worth living, and shall ever feel grateful to you and shall always recommend your medicines to all who are suffering in any way."

Stomach Paralysis

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, properly named, is Paralysis of the Stomach.

When you have water-brash, feel sick at the stomach, have gas or wind on it, or feel as though you had a ball or heavy weight in the pit of the stomach after eating, and the nerves and muscles of that organ cease to act and digest your food, that stoppage in the process of digestion, to call it properly, is Paralysis of the Stomach, and should be treated as such. It is perfect folly to assist the stomach with dyspepsia remedies and stimulants to dissolve the undigested food. You may get relief, but at the next meal you suffer again. The proper treatment is to build up the worn out muscles and nerves of the stomach so that it can do its own work without assistance, and not only digest the food you eat to-day but tomorrow and forever after; as is done by the use of Dr. Chase's Blood and Nerve Food and Liver Food, which have an immediate action on the nerves and muscles, that control digestion. The price of the Blood and Nerve Food, 50 cents; the Liver Food 25 cents. Book free.

EXAMINE YOUR DENTIFRICE

Acid and grit, deadliest enemies of the teeth, abound in cheap dentifrices. Fine perfumes do not make fine dentifrices. Your teeth deserve better of you than to be offered up a sacrifice to your pocketbook.

SOZODONT

is of proven value. Sixty years is a pretty good test. No acid, no grit in Sozodont. The Liquid penetrates the little crevices and purifies them; the Powder gives a bright and polished surface.

As directed by said tenth section of the act of June 26, 1895, I hereby give notice that every person (excepting justices of the peace) who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or this state, or any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise a subordinate officer or agent who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judicial departments of this state or of the United States or of any city or incorporated district and also that every member of congress and of the state legislature and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioner of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for, except that of an elective office.

And, whereas, by virtue of the constitution of the State of Pennsylvania, adopted December 16, 1873:

Every male citizen 21 years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections: First—He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month. Second—He shall have resided in the State one year (or, if having previously been a qualified elector, or native-born citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election. Third—He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election. Fourth—If 22 years or upward, he shall have paid within two years a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

Section 5—The electors shall, in all cases, except treason, felony and breach of surety of the peace be privileged from arrest during their attendance on elections, and going to and returning therefrom.

Given under my hand at my office, in Pittsburgh, this 29th day of October, 1904, the one hundred and twenty-ninth year of the independence of the United States.

JAMES W. DICKSON,
Sheriff.

Sheriff's Office, Pittsburgh, October 29, 1904.
